NEW PARLEY, COOLIDGE PLAN

LOWDEN DROPS IN AND IS TOLD WEST BACKS HIM

He Doesn't Choose to Promote Boom Now.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

(Picture on back page.)

"What have you to say regarding the Presidency?" the interviewers were asking Frank O. Lowden yesterday.

"Nothing," was his favorite reply to that particular query.

Illinois' war governor, who was born in Minnesota, educated in Iowa where he taught school and became a lawyer, and who is now the owner of two farms in Arkansas and one in Illinois, had arrived in Chicago, almost his home city, from his vacation in the Thousand Islands. President Coolidge's "choose" had focused attention on Lowden, and here he was.

Lowden Situation Revealed.

"What about it," he was being asked and he wasn't saying much. But when, last night, he had departed for the east to rejoin his family, what is being done in his behalf was told.

"Mr. Lowden has been a presidential possibility since 1920," Clarence Buck, former state senator said, "although not an active one. Recently a delegation of Iowans came to him with a petition signed by 132 members of the Iowa general assembly, asking him to become a candidate for President.

"Mr. Lowden said he was pleased to find them thinking so highly of him—but he wasn't making a campaign. Then a delegation came from Indiana, headed by Senator A. C. Lindley, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Indiana senate. They, too, wanted him to declare himself.

"The Iowa folks and the Indiana people said he was being hailed as the candidate of the great agricultural west. They wanted an answer and he didn't give it. It was suggested to him that they would arrange to get him a sounding of the sentiment of the western states.

Finds Lowden First Choice.

"They asked me to do that. I was sent west by them to see what the people thought of Lowden. I visited eight states, Nebraska, Montana, Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, Colorado, and Missouri.

"I talked with heads of agricultural bureaus, governors, senators, republicans, high and low, farmers and business men of all sorts. I found that nearly 75 per cent of the people favored Lowden, except possibly in California. That was while President Coolidge was still considered as likely to succeed himself. I think now that 90 per cent of the westerners are for Lowden as first choice.

"I didn't need to go to Arkansas. The delegates of that state never stopped voting for him at the 1920 convention.

"I told all this to Mr. Lowden today. Naturally it pleased him. But he had nothing else to say. He has not sponsored an organization in any state. He is just letting events shape their own course and his, too.

Illinois Favors Ex-Governor.

"It is certain that Illinois would vote almost solidly for Lowden in the presidential primaries. I believe his name will be on the ballot here. We have been told that he will get more New York votes this time than he did in 1920 when 42 New York delegates voted for him.

"As we view it, Lowden is the only candidate who understands the problems of the farmer and who is in sympathy with them who has a chance to win. The business people of the east have as much confidence in Lowden from a business standpoint as the farmers have in him from an agricultural standpoint. He is the one man to bring them together."

Mr. Lowden smilingly persisted before his departure, in denying that there was any political significance to his trip. "I merely came here for a social visit," he said. "I didn't come to meet any delegation. If any gentlemen from Iowa are here it is accidental, not intentional."

The Dawes-Lowden Entente.

There are published reports of the friendship existing between Lowden and Vice President Charles Dawes, and the ex-governor says he is proud to admit the friendship. Mr. Dawes and Mr. Lowden are referred to as unwilling to run against each other. That brings a smile from the ex-governor, whose only interviews so far have been "I know of no man who has run away from the presidency."

Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom was in the city and his views were sought.

"I still think Mr. Coolidge will be renominated," he said. "The country wants him and I don't think he will refuse the call that will come to him

CONDEMNED MEN SCORE FULLER; WILL FIGHT ON

New Attorney Takes Up Their Case.

Radicals Aflame.

Workers' organizations throughout the world are roused to protests and violence by Gov. Fuller's refusal to halt execution of Sacco and Vanzetti.

In Paris a 24-hour strike is called for Monday by communist workers and a strike of every organized worker in Europe is being debated. Many were hurt in Paris riots.

In Berlin 100,000, interrupted in a protest parade, fought the police.

Strike is called in Rosario, Argentina, and expected in Buenos Aires.

Moscow workers meet and resolve "to avenge."

American embassies, banks and stores in foreign cities are under guard to prevent possible bombing.

In Brooklyn and other American cities there were mild demonstrations. Radicals in Milwaukee will hold a protest meeting Saturday.

Chicago building trades unions refused to join in a Sacco-Vanzetti general strike move; but radicals here have sent out pleas for foreign demonstrations before U. S. embassies.

Boston, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, condemned pay roll robbery slayers, were crushed this morning for a time after learning that Gov. Alvan T. Fuller had denied them clemency, but rallied later in the day to pen fiery letters to their defense committee, which has not yet given up the fight to save their lives.

Vanzetti denounced Gov. Fuller, Judge Webster Thayer, who presided at their trial; District Attorney Katzmann, who prosecuted them, and the state witnesses as murderers and perjurers.

Sacco said: "We are proud of death and fall as all anarchists fall." He made one final appeal to his comrades to save himself and Vanzetti and reiterated Vanzetti's statement that Gov. Fuller, Thayer, and Katzmann were murderers.

Here's Vanzetti's Letter.

The letter from Vanzetti follows:

"From the Death House.—Gov. Alvan T. Fuller is a murderer as Thayer, Katzmann, the state perjurers and all the others. He shaked hands with me like a brother, makes me believe he was honest-intentioned, and that his killing of the three car-barn boys was not so as to have no precedent to save us.

"Now ignoring and denying all the proofs of our innocence, he insults us and murders us. We are innocent.

"This is the war of plutocrack against liberty, against the people. We die for anarchy. Long life to anarchy.—Bartolomeo Vanzetti."

Sacco Writes to Camrades.

Sacco's letter translated from Italian, says:

"My dear Friends and Comrades: In the death cell we are just informed from the Defense committee that Gov. Fuller has decided to kill us Aug. 10. We are not surprised by this news because we know the capitalist class is hard without any mercy to the good soldiers of the revolution.

"We are proud of death and fall as all the anarchists fall.

"It is up to you now, brothers, comrades, as I have told you yesterday, that you are the only ones that can save us, because we have never had faith in the governor. For we have always know that the Governor Fuller, Thayer and Katzmann are the murderers.—Nicolo Sacco."

Statement from Committee.

Coupled with these letters came a statement from the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee denouncing the governor's decision.

"Gov. Fuller's decision betrays an appalling ignorance of the vital facts in the Sacco-Vanzetti case," the statement said; "shows a complete failure to grasp the ideas involved and will, it is obvious, satisfy no thinking person in the slightest degree. How his advisory committee, headed by President Lowell of Harvard, came to a position which warranted the governor to say it 'arrived unanimously at a conclusion which is wholly in

GERMAN FLYERS CLAIM NEW MARK FOR ENDURANCE

DESSAU, GERMANY, Aug. 5.—(AP)—The Junker W-33 airplane, after being in the air in an endurance test since early Wednesday morning, shuttling between Dessau and Leipsic, came to earth at 10:13 o'clock this morning. Officials of the Junker works claimed that the plane beat the American endurance record of 51 hours 11 minutes and 25 seconds, set up by Clarence D. Chamberlin and Bert Acosta.

The junker plane was piloted alternately by Cornelius Edzard and Johann Risticz. If the junker claims are confirmed they were in the air 52 hours and 23 minutes, or one hour, 11 minutes, and 35 seconds longer than Acosta and Chamberlin.

Acosta and Chamberlin brought the world's non-stop record back to the United States on April 14, this year. Flying over Long Island in their Bellanca monoplane, they beat by approximately six hours the record made in France by the French army officers, Drouhin and Landry, of 45 hours, 11 minutes, and 59 seconds.

"BANDIT," 8, AND PAL, 16, HOLD UP KEEPER OF CAFE

Two bandits, one only about 8 years old, went into the restaurant of Robert Vodak at 3239 West 26th street early today and forced the owner to let them have the $25 his cash register contained. The second robber, described as 16 years old, carried a revolver. He marched Vodak out to the street while the younger boy took the money. As they left Vodak went back into the restaurant, seized a pistol, returned and fired several shots at the pair.

Mercury Falls as Rain and Wind Sweep Over City

A heavy rain and windstorm swept over Chicago last night, causing a slight lowering of the temperature, which had reached a maximum of 81 during the afternoon. Today's prediction is for fair and cooler, while the temperature is expected to rise tomorrow. Motorcycle Policeman John Dietz fell and suffered a broken leg at Balmoral and Ravenswood avenues while chasing a speeder during last night's storm.

Coolidge Made Great Chief of Ogalala Sioux

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Deadwood, S. D., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—President Coolidge is now Wamblee Tokaha [Leading Eagle], great chief of the Ogalala Sioux Indian tribe.

The straw hat which he withdrew from the 1928 presidential ring two days ago was tossed away again today as he put on a magnificent war bonnet of black-tipped eagle feathers that trailed at his feet as he walked. He now ranks with Sitting Bull, Red Cloud, and two other famous chiefs in the councils of the tribe.

"You are now 100 per cent American," Chief Yellow Robe told the President, as he escorted him to the Presidential box at the "Days of '76" show after the ceremony of induction into the tribe.

Reënact Gold Rush Days.

This ceremony was short and simple, out of doors in the green gulch of Deadwood, where the days of the gold rush were reënacted.

Cañon walls and clambering spruce and pine forests formed the backgound. It was home to the Indians, grouped in their barbaric finery in the field in front of the grand stand. It was a strange place for a New England President. But the President, on signal from his aide, marched with Mrs. Coolidge across the open space to the Indian throng and stood before the chiefs. They could bestow no higher honor on a man than this.

It was not an idle, empty show for them, but a ceremony of ancient meaning and deep significance. And the President entered into the spirit of this and acted as though he were receiving a degree from a university. He was addressed by Chief Yellow Robe and Chief Standing Bear—the first in English and the second in the Sioux language. He was told that his acceptance of the war bonnet was the greatest honor that had come to the Sioux tribe.

Given $2,500 War Bonnet.

Then the lovely Rosebud Yellow Robe, who might be Pocahontas come to life or the princess of an Indian legend, stepped forward with the double trailed bonnet for the President. It trailed at her dainty feet as she held it aloft and moved toward the President, placing it on his head.

Mrs. Coolidge stood by his side, somewhat unnoticed by the Indians, who do not have women in their war councils. But she was placated by a gift of bead work and walked beside the buckskin clad figure of Rosebud.

Trailing his plumed, gay bonnet, the President went back to his seat and invited the other chiefs to sit with him.

The war bonnet given to the President is one of the finest ever made. Its value, if it ever could be sold, would be at least $2,500. It was made by White Thunder and Pretty Bowl of the Pine Ridge reservation, and has a double trail or plume of black tipped eagle feathers nearly six feet long. It took three years to select and assemble these feathers.

The double-trailed bonnet is a distinction given to few of the Sioux chiefs. It has only been worn before by Red Cloud, Sitting Bull, Spotted Tail, and Chief Gall. There are 180 feathers in the bonnet. Sinew and buckskin hold it together instead of thread.

Occasion Is Spectacular.

The President's party arrived at Deadwood at 1:30 o'clock and found thousands at the stations and along the narrow, colorful streets. His progress through town was marked by a warm demonstration of welcome. Arriving at the show ground, the President and Mrs. Coolidge were escorted to their special box, where Senator and Mrs. Norbeck were their guests. The whole Deadwood show was then paraded for their benefit.

"He's our Cal, hooray!" yelled the cowboys as the President stepped down to have his picture taken with the Indians.

"How, how!" cried the old braves as they rode past the President, saluting with upraised arm. The women looked at him and said nothing.

The President looked happy and seemed to smile more than usual. Races and drills preceded the ceremony of adoption.

He left soon afterward for the long ride back to the lodge.

Detective Gets Stolen Gems in Cigar Box

When Chief of Detectives William E. O'Connor opened a gift cigar box at the detective bureau last night he found, instead of the $2.50 worth of tobacco that he expected, a fine lot of diamond encrusted platinum valued at $30,000 or more.

The jewelry had been vigorously sought by the police since early yesterday morning, when Mrs. Mildred Cummings of Long Beach, N. Y., and her sister, Mrs. Sophie Smit of St. Louis, reported that it had been taken from them by two masked men.

Old Friend Is Held.

Chief O'Connor doesn't know the name of the donor of the cigar box full of diamonds. He isn't so certain that he knows all the facts about the robbery, but his suspicions are so strong that Maurice Harris, of the Bismarck hotel, an old friend of Mrs. Cummings, is being held.

Mrs. Cummings is the wife of David Cummings, formerly a wool broker, now a building contractor. Mrs. Smit is the wife of Dr. William Smit, a prominent surgeon in St. Louis. Recently they had been visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. Frances Goldberg of South Haven, Mich. Wednesday they came to Chicago on a shopping trip.

Harris, once an associate of Mr. Cummings in the wool business, is engaged to Ada Goldberg, a niece of the two women. He alone, according to them, knew they were coming here. On Wednesday evening he telephoned to them at the Stevens hotel.

So Party Is Organized.

They gave a non-committal answer and a little later Harry Davis, insurance broker at 76 West Monroe street, who once met Mrs. Cummings in Europe, gave another invitation. It finally was arranged they they would all go in Davis' car, with Harris as a member of the party.

After visiting a fashion show, the four went to the Midnight Frolics cafe on 22d street. Mrs. Cummings was wearing nearly all the $30,000 worth of jewelry, and it attracted some attention.

At 3 a. m. they left the cabaret and got into Davis' car again. At 22d street and Michigan avenue two masked men stepped on the running board, and forced the party of four to go to 18th and State streets. There, while one of the robbers held a pistol pointed at Davis, paying little attention to Harris, the other stripped the jewelry from the women.

Watchman Fires at Robbers.

Then, while a passing watchman fired a few shots, the two men fled with their loot.

When the stickup was reported to the police, Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Smit gave assumed names. Later they explained they feared their husbands would not believe their trip with the two men was as innocent as it really was.

Chief O'Connor got in touch with one, Nathan Katz, who reported that Harris had offered him a part in a plot to rob two women of a lot of jewelry.

Wait to Receive Gems.

So Harris was held in durance. Later, a mutual friend of his, and of Chief O'Connor, talked with him in his cell. The mutual friend came out and whispered to the chief:

"Go over in front of the Wrigley building," he said, "and wait. A man will hand you the diamonds."

While O'Connor did as told, the cigar box was sent to the bureau for him.

The jewelry was a diamond and platinum bracelet valued at $15,000, a ten carat ring, $10,000; a diamond and platinum watch, $5,000, and three rings belonging to Mrs. Smit.

Damage estimated at more than $500,000 was caused early last evening by a spectacular fire that destroyed the dry kilns, storage sheds and offices of the Bohnsack Brick company at 6600 West Grand avenue.

Thousands of residents of the west side and adjacent suburbs crowded to the scene and police reserves from four districts were called to keep order. Lines were established and the spectators kept away from the clay pits.

Firemen, responding to a 4-11 alarm, were hampered in the fight against the flames by dense clouds of rolling smoke and also by the fact that the buildings were set back at least 1,000 feet from the water mains on Grand avenue. Thousands of gallons of oil used in heating the kilns exploded and aided in spreading the fire.

William Bohnsack, president of the company, declared the loss would be far more than $500,000 and might reach $1,000,000.

GENEVA NAVAL MEET FIZZLES; WILL TRY IN '29

Powers Blame Each Other for Smash.

BULLETIN.

Deadwood, S. D., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—President Coolidge will call another naval disarmament conference in Washington before he ends his administration early in 1929, it was said unofficially here today.

It is the President's belief that more can be accomplished in the atmosphere of Washington than in Europe and that after the reaction among the taxpayers of Europe the naval powers will be more favorably inclined to consider an agreement on naval armaments that would assure peaceful relations and a reduction of tax burdens.

President Coolidge joined with Secretary Kellogg tonight in expressing the hope that the collapse of the Geneva conference will be preliminary to a more determined effort to reach an agreement on naval limitation.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

GENEVA, Aug. 3.—The tripower naval conference called by President Coolidge on Feb. 10 and opened here on June 20 ended this afternoon in failure.

The cruiser deadlock, which was encountered on the fourth day of the conference and which continued for forty-two days more to the finish, was responsible for the breakup.

At this afternoon's plenary session, W. C. Bridgeman of Great Britain, Viscount Saito of Japan and Ambassador Hugh Gibson, chief American delegate and chairman of the parley, restated their governments' positions. Then the American delegation read a declaration, in which the British and Japanese concurred, emphasizing that the breakup does not mean a diminution of the mutual confidence that exists between the three powers.

British and Japanese Agreed.

The climax of the conference found Japan and Great Britain in complete accord on a plan covering the entire scope of the discussion. Both Mr. Bridgeman and Viscount Saito remarked how distressing it was that Mr. Gibson could not agree with them and thereby save the conference.

Japan's statement revealed how the agreement was reached with Great Britain and tingled in the American ears, which a couple of weeks ago heard Mr. Gibson boast that "I will place the baby right in England's lap. If Great Britain and Japan reach an agreement it will be acceptable to us."

In Mr. Gibson's statement could be discerned the touch of Allen W. Dulles, legal adviser, who had sought a treaty at any price.

Ignores Parity Issue.

Mr. Gibson's long speech failed to develop the American viewpoint as clearly as Mr. Bridgeman stressed the British attitude. He did not bring out the fact that the crux of the differences between Great Britain and the United States was the admiralty's virtual refusal of parity for America. Great Britain insisted on having an equal number of 10,000 ton cruisers with the United States, refusing to grant America as many of these maximum craft as she desires. The British stressed their needs for small cruisers, ignoring the American reply: "Go ahead and build them, but we don't want them."

Mr. Gibson attacked Mr. Bridgeman's statement about economy, insisting it was cheaper to build and maintain a certain number of ships of one size than double that number of half the size.

Attacks Naval Bases.

Mr. Gibson also took a rap at Great Britain's naval bases. He emphasized the United States' lack of them and the resultant necessity of craft with a long cruising radius. He pointed out that Great Britain's desire to defend the sea lanes automatically implies denying them to others in time of war.

The American spokesman touched on mercantile ships, pointing to Great Britain's 888,000 tons, capable of carrying six inch guns, compared with the 122,000 tons for the United States. He then cited Admiral Jellicoe, "who so ably brought out the fact that converted merchant ships played a great part in the late war." This seemed annoying to Admiral Jellicoe. The other British delegates glared at him.

Cites Washington Parley.

Recalling that at Washington in 1922 the British delegation found 450,000 tons of auxiliary craft a reasonable figure, while today they demand 647,000 tons, Mr. Gibson asked:

"What has brought about the change? What new factor in world affairs has appeared to arouse apprehension? One of the mightiest fleets, the German, has disappeared and no other maritime nation has embarked on any program conceivably menacing the British empire. I cannot but feel that the British government is unnecessarily apprehensive as to the use that might be made by the United States of a reasonable option in the cruiser class within a stated limit of total tonnage."

Lord Cecil and Mr. Bridgeman scribbled notes as if preparing answers to this statement.

Ambassador Gibson recounted the advantages of Mr. Dulles' political clause, which would have made the treaty not a treaty right away, and which Mr. Bridgeman did not even deign to mention in his report. He thanked the Japanese for their firm desires and profound influence to the evident amazement of the Nipponese, who had just swung over to the British.

Mr. Gibson closed with the ringing statement that "war between these three nations is unthinkable."

Whereupon the French and Italian observers, sitting at side tables, pricked up their ears.

Bridgeman Presents Case.

Mr. Bridgeman's exposé was virtually a replica of his other statements, amounting to a careful enumeration of what ships the admiralty is willing to let the United States build. He stressed the fact that certain English proposals on destroyers and submarines were not accepted, and pounded heavily on the original proposal to reduce the size of capital ships to 30,000 tons and guns from 16 to 13½ inches.

"We stated our reasons for wanting a number of small cruisers, but do not understand the American reasons for wanting so many large cruisers, with such highly offensive weapons as 8 inch guns," Mr. Bridgeman said.

Mr. Bridgeman then said: "It was pointed out at the last plenary session, when we could not reconcile our differences with those of Japan, that if any agreement was accepted between Great Britain and Japan, it would be possible for the American delegation to make the agreement complete."

Mr. Gibson closely inspected the work of his manicurist and Mr. Dulles shaped his mouth as if whistling during this remark.

Michael MacWhite of the Irish Free State said his government regretted that no agreement had been reached here, and expressed the hope that another conference would be called which would be more fruitful.

Bares Anglo Japanese Deal.

Viscount Saito then showed how Admiral Kobayashi and Vice Admiral Field had reached an agreement when Mr. Gibson told the British and Japanese if they got together the result would be acceptable to him. He admitted that the Tokio government abandoned its original stand for 8 inch guns, as "the question would present practical difficulties." He also confirmed THE TRIBUNE's dispatch that the British offered the Japanese parity with themselves and the United States in submarines, at 60,000 tons apiece all around. This Mr. Bridgeman indignantly denied when it was published.

The British will leave tomorrow morning and all the Americans who can get sleeping car accommodations are going tonight. The Japanese are in no hurry.

British Are Disappointed.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 4.—So far as Great Britain is concerned, the naval position is exactly the same as before the Geneva conference was called, a spokesman for the foreign office said today. He asserted the British are bitterly disappointed over the breakdown at Geneva.

"Our proposals at Geneva were based on our needs and our needs have not changed in the slightest," he said. "We will continue with the program mapped out before Geneva was thought of, but we will not accelerate it one iota. It is based entirely on the needs of empire communications and safety, without a thought of the American fleet."

The cabinet held a long meeting today to discuss the situation. Lord Balfour, it is announced, will make an important speech Saturday at Whittingham, in which he will set forth the British viewpoint.

Envoys Explain Fizzle of Navy Parley; Still Hopeful

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 4.—The joint declaration of the American, British, and Japanese delegations, delivered at the plenary session of the naval conference today, follows:

"In pursuance of the suggestion of the President of the United States, the plenipotentiary delegates of the President of the United States, his Britannic majesty, and his majesty the emperor of Japan met at Geneva on June 20 to consider the limitation of auxiliary naval craft.

"Meetings have been held from that date until Aug. 4.

Blocked on Cruisers.

"On many important questions provisional agreements have been reached, certain of which are embodied in the annexed report of the technical committee of the conference. These points of agreement relate particularly to the limitation of destroyers and submarines, and it was only when the conference took up the question of the limitation of cruiser class that difficulties were encountered.

"These difficulties proved to be of a character to render it desirable to adjourn the present negotiations until the respective governments have had an opportunity to give further consideration to the problem.

"The American delegates presented the view that within total tonnage limitations (maximum) initially suggested should be between 250,000 and 300,000 tons in the cruiser class for the United States and the British empire and between 150,000 and 180,000 tons for Japan, each of the powers should have liberty to build the number and the type of vessel which they might consider best suited to their respective national needs, with freedom, subject to limitation of the Washington treaty, to arm these vessels as they saw fit.

British Oppose Bases.

"The British delegates, while putting proposals tending to a limitation of the size of vessels of all classes, have opposed the principle of limitation by total tonnage alone, on the ground that the largest ship and the heaviest gun permissible must inevitably become the standard. They desired first a strict limitation of the number of 10,000 ton eight inch gun cruisers, and secondly the establishment of a secondary type of cruiser of a maximum caliber of six inches.

"The Japanese delegates presented the view that low total tonnage levels should be fixed, which would effect a real limitation of auxiliary naval vessels.

The Japanese Position.

"As for the question of the eight inch gun cruisers, while the Japanese government could not agree to any restriction as a matter of principle, they had no difficulty in declaring that, provided a tonnage level of 315,000 tons for auxiliary and surface vessels were fixed for Japan they would not build any further eight inch gun cruisers until 1936, except those already authorized in existing programs.

"Various methods were considered of reconciling the divergent views indicated above, but, while material progress has been made and the point of divergence reduced, no mutually acceptable plan has been found to reconcile the claim of the British delegates for numbers of vessels, for the most part armed with six inch guns, with the desire of the American delegates for the lowest possible total tonnage limitation, with freedom of armament within such limitation subject to the restriction as to armament already set by the Washington treaty.

Break Up Parley.

"Faced with this difficulty, the delegates have deemed it wise to adjourn the present conference with this frank statement of their respective views, and to submit the problem for the further consideration of their governments, in the hope that consultation between them may lead to an early solution.

"Further, the delegates agree to recommend to their respective governments the desirability of arranging between the signatories of the Washington treaty that the conference to be called pursuant to paragraph two of article 21 of that treaty should be held earlier than August, 1931, the date contemplated under the terms of that instrument, in order that any decision reached by such a conference may come into force before the capital ship construction program commences—namely, in November of that year.

"In making these recommendations and in submitting this statement of the points of agreement as well as of the points on which agreement has not yet been achieved, the delegates desire to place on record a statement of their conviction that the obstacles that have been encountered should not be accepted as terminating the effort to bring about a further limitation of naval armament.

Hope for Agreement Soon.

"On the contrary, they trust that the measure of agreement which has been reached, as well as the work which has been done in clarifying their respective positions, will make it possible, after consultation between the governments, to find a basis for reconciling divergent views and lead to the early conclusion of an agreement for the limitation of auxiliary naval vessels, which will permit of substantial economy, and, while safeguarding national security, promote the feeling of mutual confidence and understanding."

Slaying Suspect Fails in Two Suicide Attempts

Two unsuccessful attempts at suicide were made yesterday in his cell at Warren avenue police station by William Stoddard, 2434 West Harrison street, who is being held in connection with the slaying on Jan. 9 of Edward Sweeney, owner of a soft drink parlor. When repeated bumping of his head on a radiator failed even to cause unconsciousness Stoddard severed an artery in a finger. He was taken to the county hospital, where his cuts were treated.

GENEVA HIATUS RENEWS CHANCE FOR AMPLE NAVY

Leaders at Capital See 35 Cruisers as Program.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Confidence that collapse of the Geneva naval limitation conference will be followed by a naval building revival in this country, which will result in immediate passage of legislation providing an adequate, balanced fleet for the United States, was expressed by Washington officials today.

The minimum requirements over a term of years of such a congressional program, in the opinion of naval officers, are at least seventeen 10,000 ton cruisers in addition to the eight now building, eighteen destroyer leaders, three aircraft carriers to utilize the 69,000 tons of carrier tonnage allowed by the Washington treaty, and a limited number of long distance radius submarines for operation with the fleet.

Aroused by Britain's Program.

It is not even certain that senate and house advocates of a "big navy" will be satisfied with a navy program of those dimensions, inasmuch as Great Britain's emphasis upon the necessity of having a large number of cruisers to protect her trade routes has raised the question here of whether thirty-five cruisers will be enough to protect America's constantly growing trade.

Secretary of the Navy Wilbur admitted today that he had reached his conclusions as to the kind of a naval bill necessary to safeguard national defense, but he declined to discuss the matter at present.

The secretary made it known, merely, that he was to hold a conference with President Coolidge at Rapid City shortly. It is understood that the needs of the navy will be thoroughly aired at that time.

Relieved by Geneva Result.

While Secretary of State Kellogg and other administration officials voiced disappointment that the American plan had not been adopted at Geneva, no regrets were expressed over the course of action taken by the American delegation. In all quarters there was a general feeling of relief that the conference was finally over.

Secretary Kellogg, however, is still convinced that the door is open for negotiation of a limitation treaty by the three powers, and he expressed the belief today that the work done at Geneva would eventually result in an actual agreement.

Kellogg Remains Optimistic.

"I do not consider the failure to make an agreement now as final," Secretary Kellogg said. "I am confident that the work done at Geneva will make it possible, after consultation between the governments, to find a basis for reconciling divergent views and lead to the early conclusion of an agreement for the limitation of auxiliary naval vessels."

Pressed for particulars concerning the possibilities of such an early agreement, it was admitted at the state department that little hope exists for an agreement within the next year. The administration's confidence in an early agreement, one statesman said, is not so strong that it will crystallize into opposition to adequate cruiser legislation by the next congress.

The Dream That Failed.

Secretary Kellogg in his statement pointed out that President Coolidge had called the conference in the hope he could accomplish a real reduction in building programs.

"We believed," he said, "that there was no condition today which would threaten the security of the powers interested, or justify increased building programs. Pursuant to the Washington treaty, the United States made drastic cuts in its capital ship program and scrapped the largest capital ship navy in the world. It had every reason to believe that the British government was prepared to carry out a real reduction.

"I am certain, however," Mr. Kellogg continued, "that the failure at this time to enter into an agreement will not impair the cordial relations existing between the British government and the United States."

The secretary emphasized the fact that the conferees had found little difficulty in harmonizing views on destroyers and submarines.

Bolsters Cause of Big Navy.

Comments on the conclusion of the Geneva conference disclosed beyond question today that the acrimonious discussions over comparative cruiser needs has greatly strengthened the "big navy" members of congress. The administration, it is believed, will endeavor to prevent any building program taking the form of competition with Great Britain, but will support a program based upon the security needs of the United States.

The United States at present has ten 7,500 ton cruisers and is building eight 10,000 ton cruisers. Construction of seventeen additional ships would bring the total to thirty-five—the number urged upon congress last year by Admiral Edward W. Eberle, chief of naval operations.

ALWAYS ON JOB, CAPTAIN MURPHY SWEARS AT TRIAL

The civil service commission last night continued until Aug. 25 the trial of Capt. Daniel Murphy, formerly of the Chicago avenue police station, who is charged with political activity and inefficiency. Murphy denied all accusations. In cross-examination, Attorney John Tyrell tried to show that the captain's vice squads eased up between the mayoralty primary, Feb. 22, and the election, April 7.

"There is always a relaxation by the police in this period," explained Murphy. "They don't want to stir up trouble for friends of politicians on either side. My men, however, were always on the job."

Murphy said he had only 135 to 150 men in his district, one of the toughest in the city. He said he repeatedly asked for more men but denied that conditions were ever "deplorable." Attorney Francis X. Busch, his counsel, produced numerous records to prove his efficiency.

GIBSON BLAMES BRITISH IN SWAN SONG OF PARLEY

Hopes Next Meeting Will Reduce Navies.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 4.—The address of Ambassador Hugh S. Gibson, chairman of the American delegation to the conference for naval limitation of armaments, delivered at Geneva today, follows:

"The conference has now reached a point when it is essential to review the situation and to determine whether we can continue our work with any hope of a successful conclusion.

"Since the proposals which have been laid before us by Mr. Bridgeman represent the final decision of the British Empire delegation, I fear, as I have already informed Mr. Bridgeman, that we shall be forced frankly to admit that our efforts at present to find a basis for negotiation acceptable to all three powers have not been successful.

"I should like to take this occasion for stating somewhat fully the American views on the subject, not by way of argument with my colleagues, but because the solution of this problem can be found only if all conflicting views are clearly stated and left for mature consideration.

Met in Interest of World Peace.

"First of all, let us consider why we came here. The President of the United States on Feb. 10 extended to the powers signatory to the Washington treaty an invitation to meet in Geneva to agree upon extension to auxiliary craft of the principles of that treaty. Great Britain and Japan accepted this invitation. The President's initiative in calling the conference was in conformity with the repeatedly expressed desire of our congress as set forth in act of Feb. 11, 1925, that armaments should be reduced and limited in the interest of the peace of the world and for the relief of all nations from the burdens of unnecessary expenditures.

"In strict conformity with the President's invitation the American delegation on the opening day of the conference laid on the table, clear, simple and comprehensive proposals for a limitation of naval armaments. We were confident that proposals of this general character would be acceptable to the powers represented here.

Japanese Ready to Negotiate.

"The Japanese delegation subsequently indicated its willingness to negotiate on the basis of the minimum figures suggested by the American delegation. The minimum figures of the American proposal involved a considerable reduction in the destroyer and submarine tonnage now possessed by the United States.

"From the first, however, we encountered a serious difficulty in the claim of the British government that it needed a considerably larger number of cruisers than it now possesses. Instead of the 48 cruisers now in service the British empire delegation has set forth in the report of the technical committee a need for 15 8 inch gun cruisers and 55 cruisers of a smaller type, a total of 70.

"The claim for these figures was defended on the ground of the absolute naval needs of the empire."

How Negotiate without Concessions?

Mr. Gibson here addressed to the British delegates a question as to how negotiations could succeed unless all parties would make some concessions. No answer was made to the question. Continuing, he said:

"In an effort to meet the views of the British empire delegation we have agreed to discuss a tonnage in the cruiser class far in excess of what we had hoped might be fixed as a limitation for the future. Further, we have agreed to discuss the number of 10,000 ton cruisers and to accept a secondary class of cruisers, provided that the secondary type of cruisers should not be of a maximum individual displacement which will preclude the mounting of eight inch guns, a caliber of gun which was agreed upon by the signatories of the Washington treaty.

"Unfortunately these efforts to meet the British position, together with other American proposals, were not considered sufficient. Any further concessions on our part would have involved a complete surrender of the right to build ships responsive to our needs, and we were obliged to take the ground that if agreement were to be reached there must be some measure of reciprocity in concession."

The speaker conceded he understood the need for Britain to guard her long trade routes. Then he gave details of America's need for cruisers of larger cruising radius to guard American possessions, America having few naval bases.

Six Inch Guns in World War.

"When we are asked," Mr. Gibson continued, "to limit cruisers on which eight inch guns may be mounted and eventually to abandon that gun altogether in favor of the six inch gun, we are compelled to consider the effect of such a limitation upon our situation in view of the fact that the British government has at its disposal approximately eight hundred and eighty-eight thousand tons of fast merchant ships capable of being readily converted into cruisers and armed with many six inch guns as contemplated by the Washington treaty. We on the other hand have only one hundred eighty thousand tons of such ships. As was so ably brought out by Lord Jellicoe, converted merchant ships played a great part in the late war."

Ripples of laughter were heard throughout the hall at this shot.

Larger Units Are Cheaper.

"The British contention has been that their proposals make for economy while ours call for a large outlay. We cannot admit the justice of such action. We have proposed a low limitation on total tonnage, which means a very large saving. Economy can only be realized by reduction of total tonnage. The fact is that within the total tonnage limitation the larger the unit size of vessel the greater is the economy, both in initial construction and in operation and maintenance."

Mr. Gibson here asked what would be the sense in America's building a vast fleet of the small and relatively more expensive cruisers which she could not use.

Latest British Proposals.

He then took up the final British proposition, brought by W. C. Bridgeman and Lord Cecil after their trip to London.

"The new proposals of the British delegation," he said, "contain the points of difficulty which we have encountered from the outset and in addition a new difficulty in that a combined tonnage limitation for all auxiliary craft, including submarines, is suggested. This total, fixed at 590,000 tons, is to be augmented by an additional twenty-five per cent of so-called over-age vessels.

"But the age limit for replacement within the tonnage limitation of 590,000 tons has been so reduced that we have, in effect, a proposal for a total limitation of effective vessels of over 737,000 tons. If we deduct from that figure the highest submarine and destroyer tonnage heretofore suggested by the British empire delegation—namely: ninety-thousand tons of submarines and approximately two-hundred-twenty-one thousand tons of destroyers—there would remain a tonnage limitation for cruisers of at least 421,000 tons.

"This is over 75,000 tons in excess of the British cruiser strength upon completion of vessels now under construction."

Offers Safeguard Clause.

The American ambassador then reviewed the American suggestion of inserting a "political clause" in the treaty, under which, if any party to the treaty should so desire, it could at any time after 1931 calls a meeting and terminate the whole treaty. How, after America had submitted such a clause, he asked, could the British delegates have any "apprehension of America's intentions"?

He continued:

"The American delegation was greatly impressed by a statement recently made by the British foreign secretary to the effect that war between the British empire and the United States was already outlawed in the hearts of both nations. We give our thorough indorsement to this view and the sincerity of this indorsement has been proved in practice by the fact that our government has not indicated misgivings or concern because the British empire has built up a cruiser force entirely disproportionate to our own.

Difficult to Understand View.

"We find it difficult, however, to reconcile the British conviction that war is already outlawed between us with their present unwillingness to recognize our right to build a limited number of the type of ships we would desire or with their willingness to risk the success of this conference because they fear the problematical possession by us during the life of this treaty of a small number of eight inch gun cruisers, and this in spite of the fact that any apprehension which might be occasioned by such problematical construction is amply covered by the political clause which offers a release from the obligation of the treaty."

He interrupted the thread of his discourse here to voice personal appreciation for the friendship of the delegates from Japan and from Great Britain and to say all had shown sincerity in desire not to disturb the friendship among the three peoples.

"State of Peace."

"From generation to generation during the last hundred years it has become more and more evident that these three nations intend to and will live in a state of peace, and we should approach this subject of naval limitation on the basis that war between them is unthinkable," he said.

"The interruption of our work should not be interpreted as indicating a permanent inability to agree upon an effective method of naval limitation. It is our hope that a thorough study of the whole problem of naval armaments may lead to the finding of some method of reconciling the views of our governments and that a satisfactory agreement may shortly be concluded for a greater limitation of auxiliary naval craft."

SEVERE QUAKE IS FELT ALONG PACIFIC COAST

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 4.—(AP)—For seven months southern California's earth crust has been slumbering, but it was interrupted here early today when a rolling, rocking quake, lasting from ten to forty-five seconds, advanced the rising hour of thousands of persons but did no damage, so far as reported, except the breaking of a water main in Los Angeles.

San Pedro, the harbor city of Los Angeles, seemed to have received the most severe shaking. The marine lookout stationed on top of a six story building reported that the shock continued for forty or forty-five seconds.

Coast towns from Ventura south to a point probably fifty or sixty miles south of Los Angeles felt the quake with about equal severity, while the mountains rumbled and shook in the San Bernardino area, sixty miles east of Los Angeles.

In Los Angeles office buildings keeled over slightly when the subterranean convulsions got the earth's surface moving and then swayed gently back and forth for about ten seconds.

LONDON PAPERS DECRY WAR FEAR AS PARLEY ENDS

U. S. Razzed for Its Firm Stand on Navies.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Aug. 4.—With the exception of Lord Rothermere's Daily Mail, the breakdown of the Geneva conference takes first place in the editorials of London's chief daily newspapers today. The trend of most of the editorials is: "We told you so," with an undercurrent of satisfaction that the controversy is out of the way for the time being. Emphasis is laid by many on the general lack of preparation for the conference.

The Conservative Daily Telegraph says:

"No one in Great Britain envisages the remotest possibility of war with America. That is ruled out here just as it is utterly repudiated by American opinion."

Blames U. S. Delegates.

The Liberal Chronicle blames America for the crash, saying that "on no material point from first to last was the American delegation able to make the smallest concession. The British and Japanese delegations both negotiated in a spirit of elasticity."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express says:

"The formula does not exist and could not be contrived which would reconcile Anglo-American parity at sea, the Japanese requirements, our imperial necessities, and a smaller shipbuilding program.

"What is to happen in the future? Nothing. There need be no shipbuilding rivalry."

The Liberal Westminster Gazette hopes the powers will be more successful the next time.

"War Is No Nearer."

The Conservative Morning Post says: "If disarmament is as far off as before, war is no nearer." It does not blame the Americans.

"The original mistake of the conference," the Liberal Daily Mail News says, "was that it was hurriedly convened without adequate preparation. The second major error was that the naval experts were allowed to become protagonists in the controversy."

Masons to Put Marshall's Body in $25,000 Mausoleum

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—The body of Thomas R. Marshall, former governor of Indiana and former Vice President of the United States, will be removed early next month from the chapel in Crown Hill cemetery to the Marshall mausoleum, virtually completed at a cost of $25,000 by the Supreme council of the 33d degree Scottish Rite Masons. Marshall died June 1, 1925, in Washington.

100,000 Fight in Berlin; Guard All Embassies.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—Twenty were wounded and scores of communists were arrested this evening when 100,000 communists streamed to the center of town before the former kaiser's palace to demonstrate against Gov. Fuller's refusal to halt the execution of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

This was the biggest demonstration Berlin has witnessed for a year. The communists paraded with floats, one of which carried electrical chairs in which young communists impersonated Sacco and Vanzetti, and others represented priests consoling them.

Police officers held up the floats and ordered the communists to give up their religious vestments. The latter refused and a fight ensued. Many were clubbed down and arrested.

In Berlin and all Germany there are expressions of regret for Sacco and Vanzetti "as martyrs of their party," and the decision is called a tragic error of justice.

The Berliner Tageblatt declares: "It is a barbarous, judicial murder to execute Sacco and Vanzetti on the strength of insufficient evidence after submitting them to seven years' torture—it lacks wisdom and courage and is an act of inhumanity."

Paris Strike on Monday.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Aug. 4.—French communist unions representing about a fourth of the organized labor of France, tonight called a twenty-four hour general strike for Monday, Aug. 8, if the execution sentence against Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti is not revoked.

At a tumultuous meeting at the Cirque d'Hiver 3,000 Reds screamed their hatred of the American "capitalist régime" and of the "butcher governor of Massachusetts," and voted the strike order unanimously. Prof. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Dana, the American radical of Boston, started the demonstration when he read a letter from Vanzetti.

The police finally dispersed the gathering and arrested several soldiers on charges of violating orders in attending a communist meeting.

Two policemen were injured. The communists claim that ten comrades, including Jacques Duclos, the deputy, were gravely hurt. Prof. Dana himself barely escaped getting a broken head.

Luigia, Vanzetti's sister, wired Boston from Boulogne tonight asking that the execution be postponed until she arrives. Her departure is set for Saturday.

Talk All-European Strike.

PARIS, Aug. 4.—[U. P.]—A demand for a general strike of continental workers has been made to the International Labor federation here.

Will Meet in Trafalgar Square.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(AP)—A demonstration against the sentence of death hanging over Sacco and Vanzetti will be held in Trafalgar square Sunday. The demonstrators plan to accompany a deputation to the American embassy to demand a reversal of Gov. Fuller's decision.

Tragic Joke, Says Fascist Paper.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Aug. 4.—The first Fascist comment upon the refusal of clemency for Sacco and Vanzetti appears this afternoon in the newspaper Tribuna. This Fascist journal says:

"We don't know if the decision of Gov. Fuller means finis to the tragic joke which for seven years has tortured the spirit of our two unfortunate countrymen. It is not justice which for seven years has kept Sacco and Vanzetti between life and death, but a form of refined cruelty."

Russians Call for Vengeance.

MOSCOW, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Workers' organizations throughout the soviet union today condemned the refusal of clemency for Sacco and Vanzetti and called upon all workers of the world to avenge them.

Plan Boycott in Denmark.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 4.—If Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti are executed American products will be boycotted by organized labor in Denmark and Sweden, and a protest strike will take place, says a manifesto published today by trade union leaders in both countries.

Guards in Vienna and Budapest.

VIENNA.—[U. P.]—Extra policemen, both afoot and mounted, have been stationed in streets around the American legation as a result of the refusal of clemency for Sacco and Vanzetti. Similar precautions have been taken in Budapest, Hungarian capital.

Double Buenos Aires Guards.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 4.—Gov. Fuller's decision regarding Sacco and Vanzetti stunned labor circles here.

Police vigilance at the American embassy, consulate, American club, banks, etc., has been doubled.

The labor unions of the city of Rosario declared a general strike. Street cars which were run were stoned.

Rio Janeiro Protest.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Aug. 4.—(AP)—A protest "in the name of the city of Rio de Janeiro and American culture and civilization" against the execution of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, has been unanimously adopted by the municipal council. The American embassy and consulate here are under police guard.

Reds Call General Strike to Protest Sacco's Doom

New York, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Call for a nation wide Sacco-Vanzetti protest strike to start at noon next Tuesday and continue the rest of the day was issued today by the workers' communist party and approved by 2,000 communists and I. W. W.'s who gathered in Union square. The audience listened for two hours to twenty-one speakers who, without exception, denounced Gov. Fuller as a "tool of capitalism."

About 2,500 members of local 913 of the Journeymen Barbers' union, gathered at a Sacco-Vanzetti protest meeting in the Brooklyn Labor lyceum on Willoughby avenue, today, hissed the names of Gov. Fuller and Judge Webster Thayer, and passed a resolution calling upon William Green, president of the A. F. of L., to call a general strike throughout the United States.

In the resolution the audience expressed the opinion that "organized labor has not done its best to save these two fellow workers" and said those present had this day declared a one-day strike. The meeting, according to one speaker, is the first of a number that will be held throughout the country.

Police Guard Buildings.

A parade of protest was scheduled to take place through Brooklyn streets to McCarren park in Green Point at the close of the meeting. Policemen and detectives were present.

Earlier in the day, Police Commissioner Warren announced that as a precautionary measure police guards had been placed around some of the larger of the city's buildings. He refused to identify the buildings or to say whether uniformed policemen or detectives were on duty.

As during the course of speeches, the names of Gov. Fuller or Judge Thayer were mentioned loud hisses and jeers arose.

Cigar Men Walk Out.

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 4.—[U. P.]—More than 1,000 cigar makers employed at a local factory walked out today in protest against the decision of Gov. Alvan T. Fuller of Massachusetts in the Sacco-Vanzetti case.

A sympathetic strike of the 15,000 members of the cigar makers' union in Tampa was asked by a local committee of the union.

Organize Demonstration.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 4.—(AP)—An organized demonstration in protest against the action of Gov. Alvan T. Fuller in refusing to save Sacco and Vanzetti from the electric chair was arranged for 3 p. m., Saturday, by organized labor groups of Milwaukee, fraternal organizations and language societies.

The meeting will be held in Court House park, according to plans announced by a provisional committee.

Guard Capital Buildings.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Guards were put about officials and public buildings at Washington today as a result of the refusal of Gov. Fuller of Massachusetts to intervene in the Sacco-Vanzetti case.

Warned by bombings and demonstrations by radicals in foreign countries against Americans during recent months because of the case, the state department put a special guard in the corridor outside the office of Secretary Kellogg. For weeks a guard has been posted at all hours about his home. Other guards were stationed at the justice and treasury departments, while the Washington monument was under special protection.

No persons carrying packages were admitted to the treasury.

RECALL 'MARTYR' CRY FOR FORMER RADICAL KILLERS

Sacco-Vanzetti Agitation Similar to Mooney's.

The Sacco-Vanzetti case closely parallels two others in which international sentiment was agitated on behalf of radicals convicted of murder. In all three cases a tide of publicity was set loose with the charge of "frame up" as its backbone to establish the convicts and martyrs, found guilty because of their radicalism and labor affiliations.

When Thomas J. Mooney, labor organizer, was sentenced to be hanged and Warren K. Billings, his henchman, sent to San Quentin prison for life in connection with the explosion of a bomb which killed ten and wounded fifty participants in a San Francisco preparedness parade on July 22, 1916, the "frame up" charge echoed from California to Petrograd. So powerful was the agitation that Gov. William D. Stephens of California, at the insistence of President Wilson, commuted Mooney's sentence from death to life imprisonment.

The Los Angeles Outrage.

The "frame up" literature was also distributed when John B. McNamara, Chicago and Indianapolis organizer for the iron workers, was sentenced to life imprisonment after he had confessed and pleaded guilty to the bombing of the Los Angeles Times building, Oct. 1, 1910, in which twenty-one men were killed. His brother J. J. McNamara was at the same time subject of "frame up" sympathy movements when he was sentenced to fifteen years for dynamiting the Llewellyn iron works in Los Angeles on Christmas day, 1910.

In disclaiming that he was influenced by the "frame up" propaganda in commuting Mooney's sentence, Gov. Stephens stated that "a propaganda has been carried on to make it appear that he is a martyr to the cause of labor."

During Mooney's trial and since his conviction, radical elements in America and elsewhere particularly in Russia, spent hundreds of thousands of dollars working for his freedom. Mrs. Rena Mooney, his wife, who was tried for the bombing outrage and acquitted, toured the country to arouse sympathy and funds.

The sums contributed by labor organizations and their sympathizers such as Mrs. J. Sergeant Cram, constituted the "Mooney-Billings defense," which came to be regarded as a powerful organization within the labor movement.

"Shall Not Hang," is Cry.

On July 28, 1918 there were protest meetings in every city throughout the country. Frank P. Walsh, labor chairman of the national war labor board, spoke at Carmen's hall in Chicago. Samuel Gompers addressed a New York meeting. Bourke Cockran talked in Washington, and John H. Walker led the San Francisco meeting. "They shall not hang Mooney" was the cry of the day.

Other leaders in the Mooney movement were John B. Densmore, special agent of the department of labor who tapped the wires of Charles M. Fickert, who prosecuted Mooney; W. D. Patterson, Maxwell McNutt, Mooney's attorney; Dudley Field Malone, Felix Frankfurter, Clarence Darrow, Anton Johannsen, Fremont Older, who took control of the movement after Alexander Berkman was incarcerated, and Mrs. Belle Lavin, who was also connected with the McNamara affair.

A threatened strike throughout the country to protest Mooney's sentence proved abortive. The movement reached Russia, however, when on April 23, 1917 Lenine conducted a demonstration on Nevsky Prospect in Petrograd.

Confessions Halt Movement.

The "frame up" movement which threatened to assume gigantic proportions in the McNamara bombing case was largely quenched by the unexpected confessions of the two brothers after they had been apprehended by William J. Burns. However, there was propaganda disseminated to elevate the McNamaras to martyrdom because of their alleged unlawful transportation from Indianapolis to California. It was broadcast that their extradition was in reality a kidnaping.

ITALIAN IS KILLED IN ARGUMENT OVER SACCO AND VANZETTI

New York, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—The Sacco-Vanzetti case was the indirect cause of the shooting and the death of an Italian plasterer in Brooklyn today.

The decision of Gov. Fuller of Massachusetts became the subject of argument between Luigi Esposito, a plasterer of Brooklyn, and another worker at a building in course of construction there.

The argument became heated and was terminated by the action of Esposito's companion in drawing a revolver. He shot Esposito in the chest and fled. Esposito was taken to Kings county hospital and died there a short while afterward.

Arrest Trio in Prague as U. S. Woman's Slayers

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PRAGUE, Czecho-Slovakia, Aug. 4.—A newspaper editor, M. Michalko, and two friends, were arrested today in connection with the disappearance of a Czecho-American woman, Margit Vorosmarty, a year ago. The three men are accused of murdering the woman after Michalko inveigled her into a fake marriage to get her money.

Jail Two for Plotting to Attack Hungary's Premier

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Aug. 4.—Charged with inciting a mob to attack Premier Bethlen, two workingmen, who were officials during the communistic régime, were arrested today.

NEW ATTORNEY TO FIGHT ON FOR SACCO, VANZETTI

accord with mine' is a tragic mystery."

Sacco and Vanzetti had seemed overwhelmed when they learned at 10 o'clock this morning that Gov. Fuller had refused to intervene in their case and that they must die in the electric chair next Wednesday for the double murder at South Braintree, of which they were convicted six years ago.

Sacco, who after seven years in prison is almost a physical and mental wreck, and is now on the nineteenth day of a hunger strike, repeated over and over, "I told you so."

Vanzetti, from his adjoining cell in the death house of the state prison at Charlestown, looked dumbly at a blank wall and seemed totally unable to comprehend the governor's decision.

"I can't believe it," he muttered.

They were not the only ones who seemed crushed by the governor's action. William G. Thompson, one of the conservative leaders of the Boston bar, who for three years has been chief counsel for the condemned men, resigned that post this afternoon and with him went his associate, Herbert B. Ehrmann.

Later the defense commission announced that further steps in the effort to save the two radicals would be taken by Arthur D. Hill, Boston attorney.

In a statement signed jointly by Mr. Thompson and Mr. Ehrmann, they said:

"We are unable to comment upon the opinion of the advisory committee to the governor because we have not been permitted to see it. We are unable to comment upon the evidence introduced before the advisory committee because we were permitted to hear it and to cross examine the witnesses only on condition that we would not make public what they said."

"The case now is remitted to the judgment of mankind. We retire from the position of responsibility in the case."

Mr. Hill, a former district attorney of Suffolk county, would not say what steps he proposed to take to save the condemned men.

There are two moves which Mr. Hill can make. He may apply to the state courts for a habeas corpus writ and get the men out of the death house, and he can seek a new trial under a presiding judge other than Judge Thayer on the ground that Sacco and Vanzetti were not convicted by due process of law.

Failing in that, he can attempt to get the case into the federal court.

It was the visit to the death house this morning to break the news to Sacco and Vanzetti which seemed to crush Mr. Thompson, although his associates say that for the last year he has been slowly breaking under the strain of what he felt to be the injustice of this case. He was accompanied this morning by Mrs. Sacco and Aldino Felicani, treasurer of the defense committee.

COMPLEXION SO IMPROVED, FRIENDS ASK WHAT SHE USED

Delights in telling of simple treatment

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—"I am so thankful for Resinol Soap and Ointment and what they have done for me. For several years my face has been badly broken out with small pimples. They were very sore and so embarrassing I was ashamed to go among people. I tried several treatments, even those specially prescribed, but none of them healed the trouble. At last I began to use Resinol Soap and Ointment as directed. In a few days my skin began to look better and now it is so clear my friends ask me what I used. I delight in telling them about Resinol Soap and Ointment, and I will never be without these products."—(Signed) Mrs. Sara Burnett, 6344 Scotten Ave.

BUILDING TRADES REFUSE TO JOIN VANZETTI STRIKE

Chicago Radical Appeals for Foreign Protests.

Chicago building trades will not participate in a demonstration or general strike of a short duration as a protest against the execution of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, who are sentenced to die in the electric chair on Aug. 10, Samuel P. Luzzo, vice president of the Chicago Building Trades council, announced last night.

Mr. Luzzo acted as spokesman for the trades council in the absence of Patrick F. Sullivan, who has been confined to a hospital for an operation. At headquarters of the International Labor Defense at 22 South Lincoln street, James P. Cannon, chairman of the Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee, announced the protest program of the radicals would include the calling of a general strike of short duration in Chicago. Mr. Luzzo's refusal applied to that announcement.

The proposed Chicago strike, however, is only part of the extensive protest plans mapped out by Cannon and his associates at headquarters of the International Labor Defense.

Say Propaganda Starts Here.

Many labor leaders aver that Cannon's organization is dominated by communists, directing from Chicago, practically all activities in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti since their arrest.

Cannon has been engaged in radical activities for several years and is the national secretary of the International Labor Defense. Yesterday he announced that he had sent telegrams to all radical organizations in the United States and Canada urging them to voice protests to Gov. Alvin T. Fuller of Massachusetts against the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti.

Cablegrams, he said, have been sent to radical organizations in England, France, Belgium, Russia, Austria, Germany, China, and South American countries.

Stirs Up Foreign Protests.

These cablegrams, Cannon said, urged the militant workers and their families to parade in front of the various American embassies and consulates to protest against the execution. Cannon asserted in his cablegrams that such demonstrations have been effective in the past in arousing sentiment for Sacco and Vanzetti.

In the telegrams to radical organizations in the United States and Canada the leaders of the International Labor Defense urged the workers to hold demonstrations, the culmination to be a short general strike in both countries on Aug. 9.

Expresses Opposite View.

"Prior to Gov. Fuller's investigation I felt that Sacco and Vanzetti may not have been accorded a full measure of justice," Mr. Luzzo said.

"The Massachusetts executive selected unbiased investigators, and their decision upheld that of the courts. That procedure seems fair, and is not generally accorded to others who have paid the extreme penalty.

"Activities in behalf of both condemned men have been conducted by men and women whose destructive work and antagonistic spirit have been shown time and again, against both the government of the United States and the organized labor movement of the country."

CHICAGO PLANS AUG. 13 GREETING FOR LINDBERGH

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his famous airplane apparently are going to receive a welcome here, Aug. 13 and 14 rivaling the finest ever given by Chicago to a President, queen, prince, or conquering general.

Tentative plans for the reception were made yesterday at a meeting of Mayor Thompson's advisory committee. They will be presented for final approval today to an advance representative of Lindbergh.

The flyer in his Spirit of St. Louis is expected to circle the loop and swoop down on Grant park where a reception committee will greet him probably soon after noon on Saturday Aug. 13. While Lindbergh is whisked away to the White Sox park to view the police field games, his plane is to be rolled onto Soldiers' field where the public may view it.

A dinner, Mayor Thompson presiding, has been arranged at the new Hotel Stevens for that evening. Reservations may be made at the Association of Commerce.

Col. Lindberg's mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh is expected to meet him here Sunday, Aug. 14, and in order not to interfere with their visit, the committee has left that day open.

Lindbergh, according to dispatches, was in Wheeling, W. Va., yesterday, arriving there from Pittsburgh. He will spend the next week flying from city to city across Ohio and Indiana.

GENEVA CRASH FINDS PANAMA OPEN TO U. S. FOE

Yankees Lack Soldiers and Ships in West Indies.

BY GERALD MARTIN.
[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Aug. 4.—In case of sudden attack by a world power, the Panama canal and the United States' entire Caribbean interests are dependent upon naval forces from the continental United States bases. At present Guantanamo, the Virgin Islands, Cristobal and Balboa have the merest skeletons of naval defenses, with Porto Rico represented by naval radio only, and not even coast defenses. The strategic board gave up the coast defenses, although the administration still retains the sites.

The inadequate American defenses in the Caribbean are viewed by many as being even more serious in the light of the crash of the Geneva naval parley, as it is now feared that a naval building race is imminent.

Porto Rico is without forts and possesses no suitable naval base locations. The Porto Rican regiment is scheduled for defense of the Panama canal, should an emergency arise, leaving the island to depend on the National Guard.

Panama Canal Squadron.

The Panama canal headquarters has a special service squadron of four cruisers, of which one usually is in Brooklyn dock for repairs. The squadron is augmented by destroyers from Guananamo, but usually these are employed for Central American squabbles.

Balboa, headquarters of the fifteenth naval district, possesses a dry dock, but no submarine base, no air station and no ships except the ships before mentioned. Thus the canal averages two craft on each ocean cost. On the Atlantic side the Coco Solo submarine base, the army flying field and the naval air station are undermanned and lack ships. The remnant of the old French drydock is available for small tugs only.

The coast defenses at both ends of the canal are operating at a low peace strength. The guns are undermanned 50 per cent, while sixteen inch naval guns, taken from warships scrapped by the Washington treaty, still are lying around awaiting emplacements because of congress' failure to appropriate funds.

Need 12,000, Officer Says.

A high military official told THE TRIBUNE: "The canal coast defenses need a strength of 12,000 personnel and today they are garrisoned by less than 25 per cent."

Cuba, with 12,500 troops, is unable to maintain internal peace, while Haiti and the Dominican Republic are maintaining 1,000 police each to maintain order in normal times. The United States marines in Haiti, reduced to the skeleton of a brigade, have been retained for a moral effect only. The Porto Rican regiment, with American officers and commanded by Col. Estes, can be brought to "war strength within forty-eight hours." The Porto Rican regiment stationed at the Panama canal has been disbanded.

Outside of a small cruiser squadron stationed in Bermuda, the British maintain no naval or military forces in their Carribean possessions.

Anchored Fleet in Haiti.

While Porto Rico has no suitable naval bases, Gonaives, in the Gulf of Haiti, anchored the United States' combined fleets last April. These were based on Guantanamo, which makes an ideal harbor for 130 vessels. Guantanamo's small naval station is without a drydock and able to handle only minor repairs. The nearest drydock is Hampton Roads. Charleston is capable of handling destroyers. No ships outside of destroyers are based at Guantanamo, which is used for winter maneuvers and target practice.

GIVE PERMITS TO PILOTS; 10 PLANES ARE CONDEMNED

Licensing of airplane pilots and inspection of planes in the Chicago district was rushed yesterday by federal inspectors and at nightfall they announced that between twenty-five and thirty aviators had been granted permission to fly. Among the planes inspected ten were condemned as being dangerous and were barred from further use.

According to Lieut. Robert H. Gast, who is working in conjunction with Ralph G. Lockwood, supervising inspector, there remain fifty or more pilots to be examined besides a number of planes.

The first pilots to be licensed are employés of the National Air Transport company, the Robertson and the Northwest Airways companies. Fields visited so far are the Ashburne, Municipal, Checkerboard, and Palwaukee.

FOUND DEAD IN ALLEY.

Charles M. Houghton, 45, of 226 Whiting street, was found dead yesterday in an alley in the rear of 870 Orleans street.

BYRD'S POLAR EXPEDITION TO COST $250,000

Boston, Mass., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Calling as it does for the establishment of a modern city upon the rim of the ice barrier and the transportation of supplies necessary for this city from the United States, Commander Richard E. Byrd's expedition to the south pole, which he announced today would be delayed until next fall, promises to be one of the most stupendous undertakings of its kind in history.

The cost of the expedition, he disclosed today, will be in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars, an extraordinary large sum, he admitted, but really a very conservative one measured against the size of the expedition and the fact that two and perhaps even three years will be required for its completion, and the vast distance that must be traversed in the shipment of supplies to the base.

SALESMAN HELD AS FORGER.

Walter Redfield, 30, formerly a salesman for the Burroughs Adding Machine corporation, 431 South Wabash avenue, was held to the grand jury yesterday on a charge of forging a $540 check. The Burroughs concern was the complainant.

71st Anniversary of
GOODRICH STEAMSHIP LINES

71 years' successful operation

Three generations have seen the Goodrich flag in Great Lakes Harbors.

This marks the 71st anniversary of the birth of the Goodrich Transit Company, with a record of having carried nearly 20,000,000 passengers. 71 years ago the Huron, first Goodrich Steamship, made the initial journey across Lake Michigan.

The Goodrich flag signifies operation under the direction of competent management, masters, engineers and officers. The seamen are men who have had long seafaring experience.

Today the Great Goodrich Fleet of 12 modern steamships provides service practically everywhere on Lake Michigan. Goodrich Steamships today are famous for the quality and completeness of their accommodations. Up-to-date staterooms, clean, airy, attractive—accommodations that rival those of any modern city hotel. Facilities are provided on our various routes for different forms of entertainment—dancing, music, deck games, amusements for all.

Goodrich equipment is the last word in navigation—from complete wireless service—permitting passengers to send either a business or private message any hour of the day or night—down to the tiniest detail of operation.

On this, our 71st birthday, we pledge the continuance of our 71-year record of efficient service.

COOLIDGE CHIEFS READY TO FALL IN LINE FOR HOOVER

Administration Choice, Is Washington View.

BULLETIN.

PARIS, Aug. 4.—(United Press.)—Charles E. Hughes, in a long distance telephone conversation with the United Press from Annecy, where he is vacationing, said that his attitude that he was not a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination was not changed by President Coolidge's "choice" not to run.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Evidence multiplied today that Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover will receive strong support from prominent administration groups for the Republican presidential nomination. One high administration official expressed the belief that the New York state delegation would be pledged to Hoover and that many other eastern states would also line up for him.

Announcement by Gov. Ralph O. Brewster of Maine that he favored Hoover made it apparent that the secretary of commerce can count on considerable strength in New England.

Choice of Administration Chiefs.

While the opinion prevails that President Coolidge will not attempt to dictate the choice of a nominee, it is thought that there will be almost a concerted movement among the administration leaders to bring about the selection of Mr. Hoover.

The secretary of commerce, because of his flood relief activities, is conceded to have as good a chance as any one for southern delegates. He is counted on also to carry his home state of California, despite any opposition which may be offered by Senator Johnson [Rep., Cal.]. Mr. Hoover's work in connection with the Colorado river project and other problems of the far west is expected by his friends to give him convention support in some of the states of that area.

In Accord with Coolidge.

Friends of the President, in canvassing the list of possible candidates, have found scarcely any one whose record is so completely in accord with the policies of the Coolidge administration as Mr. Hoover's. Some sentiment has been expressed for Charles E. Hughes, but it is regarded as practically certain that he would not consent to become a candidate. The age of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon is regarded as eliminating him from consideration.

Vice President Dawes differed with President Coolidge on the farm relief issue and in other ways has shown a lack of complete sympathy with the administration. Speaker Longworth left the house rostrum to take the floor against the administration in a controversy over the construction of additional naval cruisers. Frank O. Lowden's support of the McNary-Haugen bill makes it impossible for the Coolidge forces to swing to him in the pre-convention contests.

Between Hoover and Lowden.

That the race will be between Hoover and Lowden is the growing conviction of Republicans close to the administration. It is the understanding that Vice President Dawes will not become a candidate as long as Mr. Lowden, a close friend, is in the running. Mr. Dawes, however, will be certain to loom up prominently if Mr. Lowden, for any reason, is eliminated.

That President Coolidge is sincere in desiring to retire to private life at the end of his present term is more and more the belief of his friends in Washington. Their view of the situation is that Mr. Coolidge will remain out of the race, barring only the inability of any of the active candidates to win the nomination without a prolonged deadlock.

A radical view of the President's action is given in a statement by Benjamin C. Marsh of the Farmers' National council. Mr. Marsh has been identified with the La Follette group.

"President Coolidge's recognition of the fact that American agriculture is doomed by American industrialism, that no man can serve two masters, and that he is committed to industrialism, while the wheat growing states determine who is to be President, explains his renunciation of a third cup of coffee," Mr. Marsh said.

Ford Indorses Hoover.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Henry Ford, in a statement issued at Dearborn today, said he believes President Coolidge is sincere in his wish to retire and that Herbert Hoover is the logical Republican candidate to succeed him.

"No one who knows President Coolidge will doubt his sincerity in declining to run again," the statement said. "It is a poor compliment to his character to twist his words from their plain meaning, or to seek a loophole by which that meaning may be escaped.

"Mr. Coolidge evidently has thought the whole matter out with his usual care and has decided his course. No other President has so nearly possessed the power to break the third term tradition, but he has chosen not to use that power.

Thinks Hoover Logical Man.

"In the time and manner of his announcement Mr. Coolidge has allowed the country ample time for the consideration of his successor.

"For myself, I think that Herbert Hoover is the logical Republican candidate. This is a business generation, and he is a business man. His experience as engineer, business administrator and cabinet member has been varied and successful and has really been in training for the Presidency.

"He is in the prime of life, active and accustomed to tackling great tasks hopefully and bearing great burdens cheerfully. The American people have subconsciously thought of him as Presidential material for a number of years.

"He is the type of man to succeed Calvin Coolidge."

Peek Sees Warning to Others.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 4.—(AP)—George N. Peek of Chicago, president of the American Council of Agriculture, declared here today that President Coolidge's "withdrawal" should warn "other anti-farm relief members of the administration" not to try for the Republican nomination in 1928.

Names were not mentioned by Mr. Peek in a formal statement on Mr. Coolidge's announcement, but the directing head of the campaign for the McNary-Haugen farm aid bill said the men he had in mind are Secretary Hoover and Speaker Longworth.

Mr. Peek declared that since the agricultural conference here last month he has talked with hundreds of farmers and others in Montana and Wyoming, and heard "much favorable comment on former Gov. Lowden and a strong undercurrent for Vice President Dawes."

CITIZENS OF KOKOMO PETITION COOLIDGE TO BE A CANDIDATE

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Believed to be the first of its kind, a petition requesting President Calvin Coolidge to accept the nomination for President instead of rejecting it so "four years of Coolidge prosperity and Mellon wise financing" will be reassured is being circulated here by Charles Heaton, leading Republican.

The petition, which probably will bear several thousand signatures, will be sent to President Coolidge at his summer White House Monday. It reads:

"Calvin Coolidge,

"President of the U. S., Executive Department, Summer White House.

"Dear Mr. Coolidge: The undersigned, the people of Kokomo, Ind., insist that you accept the nomination for President of the United States and thus assure another four years of Coolidge prosperity, and Mellon wise financiering. Under no consideration will the people of America accept no for an answer.

"The condition of this country, struggling from under an enormous war debt, and the precarious foreign situation demands that vigilant and thoughtful administration such as only you can give. Do not turn down the nation in its hour of dire need."

after a few scattering ballots are cast in next year's convention."

"What about the governorship?" Mr. Carlstrom was asked, he being an announced candidate to succeed Gov. Small.

"Everything pertaining to my candidacy is progressing to my complete satisfaction," he answered. "Right now I'm trying to make good as attorney general and I'm interested in seeing Col. Frank L. Smith seated as U. S. senator. I really think he will be seated in December.

"Just a few minutes ago I was told that in the event Col. Smith is not seated I might be offered the appointment as his successor. My statement was that while I think highly of the honor of the office, I am with Smith to the last drop and I can't be sidetracked."

George Brennan, boss of the local democracy, was filled with ideas concerning Gov. Al Smith of New York. He said he believes Smith stands better in the opinion of the eastern business people than does President Coolidge and he thinks Smith could win New York even against Coolidge.

Aside from the possibility of President Coolidge being drafted to make another race, Mr. Brennan had no opinion as to who will be the Republican nominee. His words, aside from those about Gov. Smith, were in reference to the late mayoralty campaign.

"One thing satisfies us," he said. "The ministers, the press, the business men and all good citizenry were with Dever. We proved to them that a Democrat can make a good, honest and efficient public official, and we are pleased, even in defeat."

LOWDEN ACTIVITY IN N. Y.

New York, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Activity here in behalf of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois has been amplified since President Coolidge's announcement. Thomas P. Moffat, secretary of the Lowden for President Association of New York, said a great many influential New Yorkers have declared for Lowden in the past two days.

It was reported here that Will H. Hays, former Republican national chairman, who managed the Harding campaign in 1920, had been invited to confer with Lowden in Chicago.

C. BAI LIHME ASKS $75,000 INCOME TAX REFUNDING

C. Bai Lihme, retired Chicago capitalist and now living at 950 5th avenue, New York City, yesterday filed suit in the United States District court for $75,000 against Mrs. Mabel G. Reinecke, collector of internal revenue here.

The suit is to collect money as income taxes for the years of 1917 and 1918, alleging that the payment was made after a government audit and under duress.

Mr. Lihme stated that during those years he was associated with the Matthissen and Hegeler Zinc company of La Salle, Ill.

CLEAN-BE-TWEEN

Scientifically Designed to Keep
All Teeth All Clean

Just a few days after your dentist has thoroughly cleaned your teeth, examination will show that tartar has already begun to form on the surface not reached by ordinary toothbrushes. You may brush your teeth twice a day—you may try to master the up and down brushing methods recommended by your dentist—but with even the best of old style brushes it is practically impossible to clean every part of every tooth.

Dentists say that 35% of tooth surfaces never have been cleaned by ordinary toothbrushes.

The Clean-Be-Tween is an adjustable brush scientifically correct in size and shape to reach all surfaces of all teeth. It makes the up and down brushing easy and natural. It cleanses not only the flat surfaces but around its sides and spaces between. The first time you use the Clean-Be-Tween you will sense that your teeth are cleaner than you have ever been able to get them before.

The handle of the Clean-Be-Tween lasts a lifetime. The brushes are removable and replaceable. Once you have used the Clean-Be-Tween you will never buy any other toothbrush.

OWENS VALLEY'S 5 BANKS CLOSED IN WATER FIGHT

Blame Los Angeles for Ruining Lands.

Bishop, Cal., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—All five banks in Owens Valley closed their doors today. Banking facilities tonight were completely wiped out in the region which has seen nine dynamite attacks on the Los Angeles aqueduct and several recent gun brushes between ranchmen and guards employed by Los Angeles.

The closed banks are the First National of Bishop, Inyo County bank of Bishop and branches of the latter in Independence, Long Pine and Big Pine.

To the doors of each bank was affixed a notice stating:

"It has been found necessary to close this bank because of four years of destructive work carried on against Owens Valley and its settlers by the city of Los Angeles."

Will C. Woods, state superintendent of banks, arrived here tonight. When he arrived the notices on the bank doors were torn down. J. R. Richard of the public service commission in Los Angeles denied that any action of the city put the Inyo county banks into difficulties, and stated that the city lost $40,000 on deposit in one of the institutions that shut down.

Residents of Owens Valley have been waging a legal and propaganda feud with Los Angeles for years. The valley claimed that the city bought up water rights on pieces of key property, turned the water into a 200 mile aqueduct leading to Los Angeles, and transformed a region of blooming farms into desert without adequate recompense to those who lived on the land.

DE VALERA OPENS DRIVE AGAINST NEW IRISH LAWS

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Aug. 4.—The Dail Eireann today passed the public safety bill, 50 to 12. The senate will consider the bill next Tuesday. A bill to unseat Republicans who refuse to take the oath also was passed.

Eamon de Valera tonight sent circulars to the anti-government party, leaders of labor, National League of Farmers, Sinn Fein and Larkin's labor organization, as well as the transport workers, asking each to send delegates to a conference tomorrow "with a view of deciding on joint national action to save the country from the consequences of the legislation now being pushed through the Free State assembly."

SENTENCE ALABAMA FLOGGER TO EIGHT YRS. IN PENITENTIARY

Oneonta, Ala., Aug. 4.—(AP)—A prison sentence of eight to ten years was meted out today to Eugene Doss, first of seven men to be tried in the Blount county Circuit court on charges of flogging Jeff Calloway, Oneonta farm youth, several weeks ago.

Doss was found guilty of kidnaping after the jury had deliberated 18 hours. Immediately after the verdict was read Judge O. A. Steele pronounced sentence on Doss.

"This trial strikes at the very root of the constitution of the United States," Judge Steele said. "When a man takes upon himself enforcement of man made laws without recourse to constituted authority he commits a grievous crime."

Doss, according to testimony of John Hughes and Oliver Tidwell, state witnesses, was a member of the group of men that went to the Tarrant City klavern of the Ku Klux Klan, donned klan robes and hoods, and flogged Calloway. Both Hughes and Tidwell admitted they also were members of the whipping party.

FRIENDS KIDNAP CHIEF HUGHES FOR HIS HEALTH

Chief of Police Michael Hughes has been kidnaped and is being held a prisoner somewhere in Wisconsin, it was learned last night. But the kidnaping is a friendly one, having been carried out by friends who were concerned over the chief's health.

Always known as a hard worker, Chief Hughes is said to be somewhat careless about taking a vacation when needed. Lawrence Benson, head of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad police, finally succeeded in luring Hughes to his summer home near Minocqua, Wis., on assurance that he would be brought back to Chicago last Monday morning.

Monday came and the chief was still absent. Inquiries made by men in his office revealed that his clothes had been hidden in efforts to detain Hughes at the resort. He finally agreed, it was said, to remain another week.

TRIES TO HOLD UP POLICEMAN AND IS SHOT TO DEATH

Policeman Constantine Czernikowski of the Deering street district shot and fatally wounded David Nyhan, 25 years old, 1831 Wenonah avenue, Berwyn, when the latter attempted to rob him and several men in a soft drink parlor at 946 West 19th street early today. The policeman, who is on a furlough, was in the rear part of the saloon when Nyhan entered and commanded them all to raise their hands.

Drawing his pistol, Czernikowski fired twice into the ceiling, fearing he would wound some of the bystanders. Nyhan fled and the policeman followed, wounding him as he ran into the street. He died at the county hospital.

WOMAN DRIVER TAKEN ILL; CAR UPSET; SHE DIES

An attack of dizziness while she was driving her automobile caused an accident fatal last night to Mrs. Charles F. A. Arnold, 51 years old, of 1539 Thatcher avenue, Des Plaines, wife of a florist. Three others in the car with her were injured.

The party was riding on the Northwest highway, north of Palatine, Mrs. Arnold, sudenly feeling faint, let go of the wheel. The car ran part way up an enbankment and overturned. Those injured are: J. H. Knodt, 62 years old, 1237 Eddy street; his wife, Mrs. Theresa Knodt, 50, and Mrs. Emma Arnold, 50, of 5023 Strong street, sister-in-law of Mrs. Charles F. A. Arnold.

This death and one other during the day raised Cook county's toll since Jan. 1 to 549.

John Searles, 29 years old, colored, 4195 Vincennes avenue, was killed in a head on collision between his motorcycle and an automobile driven by Louis Lindsey, 20, also colored, of 6555 Aberdeen street. Lindsey was held.

Mrs. Charles Harrell, of 5445 South Fairfield avenue, was killed and her husband injured perhaps fatally by a passenger train that struck their automobile on the Chicago and Alton crossing at Braceville, near Bloomington, Ill. Mr. Harrell was taken to a hospital at Dwight.

Otis Van Pelt, 17, of Chicago Heights, died at La Porte, Ind., of injuries received in an automobile accident near there Monday night.

WOULD GIVE DEATH MESSAGE.

Chief John Britton of the Charleston, W. Va., police department, telegraphed the detective bureau last night to search for Mrs. Hattie Godspeed to inform her of the death of her brother, W. W. Howe, Charleston newspaperman.

PLAN TO INSPECT ARTILLERY RANGE SITES ON MONDAY

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 4.—[U.P.]—Possible sites for an artillery range near Camp Grant will be inspected Monday by government officers from Springfield and Washington, D. C.

Maj. Gen. Charles Summerall, chief of staff of the army; Maj. Gen. Roy D. Keehn and his chief of staff; Col. Loren H. Grieves and representatives of Gov. Len Small will visit four prospective sites in Winnebago county. Land owners in Owen township along the bottom lands of Sugar river have tentatively agreed that an artillery range would not injure their holdings.

FORDSON PLANT BEGINS WORK ON NEW FORD MODEL

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—The Fordson plant of the Ford Motor company went into production today when the working force was increased by the addition of 3,000 employés and, according to information obtained from employés of the Detroit Street railways, the system has been asked to be ready to handle 3,000 additional men each day until the peak of production has been reached.

It was learned that the employés are working on the new Ford car which is due to make its appearance Sept. 1. Peak production will not be reached until that time. Del A. Smith, general manager of the D. S. R., has been authorized by the city council to purchase 125 additional street cars to handle the increased traffic.

SACCO AND VANZETTI.

The decision of Gov. Alvan Fuller, supported by an advisory committee consisting of President Lawrence Lowell of Harvard university, President Samuel W. Stratton of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Robert Grant, former judge of the Probate court, will be accepted by the American conscience. Both Gov. Fuller and the distinguished members of his committee have reviewed the evidence in the case against Sacco and Vanzetti and examined the case advanced for their innocence. They are all men of high character and trained minds. They have gone into the whole question of the crime, the trial and the attendant circumstances of both with a single desire, no reasonable person can doubt, to reach the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. If the American people are not safe in accepting the judgment of such men, arrived at after careful inquiry and deliberation, it will never be safe in arriving at any conclusion.

There is ground for some self-reproach in this affair, but it is not, we may be confident, ground of reasonable doubt that Sacco and Vanzetti were given a fair trial and the benefit of all the guaranties secured by our elaborate legal procedure for the protection of the accused from injustice. The ground for self-reproach is the extraordinary delay which the American administration of justice, even in Massachusetts, permits. This delay has permitted a world-wide scandal to be set in motion and exploited to the unjust injury of our good name and the profit of radical agitation at home and abroad. The case is an outstanding example of the mischief which is constantly done by the cumbrous, infirm, and tardy processes of our criminal administration. It is devoutly to be hoped the lesson is striking enough at least to stimulate the movement for procedural reform.

It is well also for the American public to ponder upon the extraordinary claque which radicalism has been able to organize in behalf of two criminals who happened to profess doctrines of revolutionary action. Their crime had nothing to do with their alleged convictions, except as the latter may justify any violence against capitalist society or its adherents. It was a robbery accomplished with destruction of life. But the criminals were quick to make use of the perverted partisanism which has flamed up wherever radicalism is organized, and they have had the benefit of national or racial partisanism, and, most formidable in this country, they have had the benefit of the amiable zeal of the considerable class of the liberal minded which is always convinced of the total depravity of American government. Few, if any, of these partisans of Sacco and Vanzetti will be shaken in their conviction that the murderers of Parmenter and Berardelli were anything but martyrs. But the nation has reason to be grateful that the most elaborately organized movement to defeat justice in the history of our courts has not prevailed and that a cruel, sordid, and atrocious crime will be punished. That is a victory for justice, for order, and for humanity, won against organized clamor and perverted sentiment, and Gov. Fuller, President Lowell, President Stratton, and Judge Grant deserve the thanks of their country for their moral courage and the high service they have given the nation.

STORM GATHERS IN MANCHURIA.

THE TRIBUNE's correspondent in Japan, Roderick Matheson, calls attention to recent developments of Japanese policy respecting Manchuria and Mongolia, a region of international contacts and rivalries, full of important potentialities. Mr. Matheson quotes Prime Minister Tanaka's recent references to the economic development of this region. Japan has valuable treaty rights for the construction and control of railways and the extension of Japanese business and agricultural enterprise. In the present mood of the Chinese treaty stipulations are rather lightly regarded, and although the Manchurian war lord, Chang Tso-lin, is assumed by some observers of the Chinese political welter to be a mere tool of Japanese ambition, he has been ignoring pledges not to build independently certain lines which will parallel and compete with the South Manchurian railway, the Japanese line through Corea to Mukden and the rich Manchurian territory. Already there is something of a network of lines, including the Russian, and their development and control will have much to do not only with the economic but the military domination of the whole region of eastern Siberia, Manchuria, Mongolia, and Corea.

In short, the whole situation is full of dynamite. Under the influence of the revolutionary sentiment in China, and owing to the sharp decline of foreign prestige, the Chinese have taken to a more aggressive policy and Tokio has been seriously concerned for some time over the drift of affairs. The Russians, who have been hostile to Chang Tso-lin and who find in him a determined opponent to their policy, discredited themselves even in the south by an attempt to take over railway control, but found Chinese resistance too strong. Of late they have seemed to be letting affairs drift, obviously in the expectation that the friction between China and Japan will increase and bring forth a situation from which they can profit.

What will eventuate no sensible man would care to predict at this stage, except that serious trouble is brewing for all concerned. Mr. Matheson evidently thinks that a crisis is not far off.

Meanwhile, America may view the course of events with considerable interest. Our own opinion is favorable to Japanese enterprise. We cannot regard very seriously the Chinese demand for a free hand, considering that the Chinese domain is huge and the Chinese doing a very poor job with what is in their control. Japan needs an outlet for her population and she would bring order and modern progress to Manchuria. Her expansion is more to be desired than soviet Russia's, and if it proceeds her energies will be well employed in a region which would be greatly benefited by them. China's loss would not be very costly and we think Japan's gain would be a gain for progress and civilization.

KANE COUNTY JOINS UP.

Kane county citizens are aware of the congestion on the radial roads about Chicago and are preparing to coöperate in relieving the situation. A preliminary meeting has led to a call for a general road widening conference to be held at Geneva.

The sponsors of the conference hope that one outcome of the meeting will be the construction of a 40 foot pavement extending Roosevelt road to Batavia. Present plans provide for a 40 foot minimum width through Cook and Du Page counties. The widening may be completed to Kane county by the end of the summer. The Roosevelt road project in Kane county was therefore given first consideration, but the widening of Ogden avenue to Aurora and Lake street to Elgin were accepted as equally important.

The Kane county meeting is a welcome indication of the alertness of the population in neighboring counties to the needs of the region. With coöperative road building, such as the authorities of Du Page and Kane counties are suggesting, the relief of traffic congestion in the metropolitan area can be simplified and hastened.

A BRIEF INTRODUCTION TO THE COOLIDGEAN "CHOOSE."

Mr. Coolidge said: "I do not choose to run for President in 1928." There appears to be some doubt about his meaning. The doubt turns on the word "choose." Did he mean "I won't run" or "maybe I won't run"? The answer, we believe, is to be found not by consulting dictionaries, but in an examination of Mr. Coolidge's works. The dictionaries tell what some one else means; Mr. Coolidge's writings show what he means.

Addressing the American Legion in convention at Kansas City on Oct. 31, 1921, Mr. Coolidge said that in April, 1917, the moment had come when "the destruction of the lives of our citizens . . . left no choice but to declare . . . war." No choice here is inevitability.

On Jan. 11, 1922, Mr. Coolidge spoke on "Our Heritage from Hamilton" before the Hamilton club of Chicago. Hamilton, he said, "had faith that the people would make the right choice. When great tests have come, when supreme choices have been made, the American people have always stood with Washington, with Hamilton and with Marshall." Choice here is sound judgment, based on national tradition.

Mr. Coolidge dedicated the government hospital for Negro veterans of the world war at Tuskegee, Ala., on Lincoln's birthday, 1923. Lincoln, Mr. Coolidge said, in emancipating the slaves "chose to follow the truth." No implication here that he later changed his mind or could have done so.

We come to April 17, 1923, and Harvard university. Mr. Coolidge is speaking at the convention of Spanish war veterans. He is talking about McKinley's "choosing to become a master of the theory and practice of the protective tariff." A month later Mr. Coolidge is speaking at the Memorial day exercises at Northampton, Mass. The revolutionary fathers "had but one choice, either to submit or fight. They chose to fight."

Mr. Coolidge's idea of a choice is something which is frequently difficult to make, but, once made, is adhered to.

Editorial of the Day

LIBERIA PAYS ITS DEBTS.

[The Hartford, Conn., Courant.]

The Republic of Libera has paid to the United States its war debt of $35,610.46. The payment was made by the consul general to the United States from Liberia, Dr. Ernest Lyon, whose office is in Baltimore.

In balancing the account Dr. Lyon said that at the beginning of the war Liberia had no grievance against the central powers, but when the United States severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government "Liberia followed the example of her good and great friend." He added that "in the struggle she [Liberia] supplied marines from her seaport population, which made maritime communication possible up and down the west coast of Africa after Europeans had withdrawn in response to the call of their respective nationalities.

"Her men served as links of communication on the battlefield, rendering such other service as brought down upon her national pate the ire of a German submarine because the president of the republic refused at the bidding of the commander to authorize the destruction of the wireless stations and useful institutions in the service of the allies."

Dr. Lyon said that Liberia is entering upon a prosperous career, that her economic conditions have been wonderfully improved and that the opening of the country to American capitalists marks a new day for the people of Liberia. We can imagine that many residents of the United States forget this elderly republic now and then.

Because of its climate it is not a country frequently visited by tourists. It has a coast line of 350 miles and extends inland, in theory, about 200 miles, but the first 25 include all the civilized settlements. It has one improved highway 20 miles long. But let us not lose sight of the fact that it has paid its debt without grumbling.

HOW HEART DISEASE IS DECREASING.

RHEUMATISM of the heart and the effects of diphtheria, scarlet fever, pneumonia, and other forms of contagion which cripple the heart are on the decrease all over the United States. They ought to come well under control in the next 25 years, and they should be as rare as the dodo 50 years from now. Don't let anybody fool you on that point. Some who try to do so may quote statistics; if they try it, don't be bluffed. Stand by your guns—answer them with statistics.

They will tell you fatal heart disease is on the increase, and they will prove it by official figures. They will be telling the truth. But when they stop, you pick up the story and come back at them with some more figures out of the same book. The book is, "Heart Disease Mortality Statistics [U. S. Registration Area]," by Miss J. S. Whitney, American Heart association.

This report shows that fatal heart disease is increasing in every state in the Union. But the increase is heaviest among people over 80 years of age; it is very heavy among people over 65 years of age; and it is moderate among people 40 to 60 years of age. On the other hand, among children less than 20 years of age, heart disease is decreasing.

The present increase in the disease is due to two great factors. The first is the increasing number of people who are living to reach 60 to 80 years of age. The second is the neglect of health which was so common prior to 1890. We can confidently expect the present low heart disease rate among children under 20 to continue relatively when, some 50 years from now, the present group of children have developed into men and women of around 70.

Nor will we have to wait that long for plain proof of gain. The great health age began about 1900. Soon after the beginning of this century, the lessened menace of diphtheria, scarlet fever, typhoid, and some other diseases that endanger the heart, was plainly apparent. Diphtheria is a disease that is very likely to cripple the heart. In certain cities where vaccination against diphtheria is an established policy, diphtheria is rarely encountered. Scarlet fever has become so mild that it is not much of a menace. A study made at Bellevue hospital indicated that rheumatism is decreasing. In ten years from now, reports to the same effect should be coming in from all over the country. So far as heart disease is concerned, we seem to be in the dark hours which come just before the dawn.

WHAT SHE DOES FOR MIGRAINE.

B. R. H. writes: I often read items in your column regarding migraine, which we old fashioned people call sick headache.

I have had over seventy years' experience with this trouble and have known no cure, but for a long time I have been able to keep off the attacks by using lemon juice. If I neglect using it for a time the attacks come on again, so it is not a cure. I take the juice of half a lemon in a glass of water morning and evening, but taken any time during the day it is just as effective. Do not sweeten. The juice of acid apples at the time they are hard and juicy but not mellow has the same effect on me.

I have suffered so much from this trouble that I want to tell my fellow sufferers what has been such a help to me.

A "SUGAR" CURE.

H. W. W. writes: My wife, aged 58, has long been troubled with constipation, hives and other symptoms of what we regarded as auto-intoxication. Our physician advised her to abstain from the use of sugar, and take her sweets in the form of honey. Since doing so, a remarkable improvement in her general condition has been noted. Her intestinal soreness [I perhaps should have stated that an X-ray of the abdomen showed indication of an obstruction which at first was thought might be a tumor of cancerous nature] disappeared and of late she has not had to resort to mineral oil to bring about a daily movement of the bowels.

I am telling you of this case because it may be helpful to persons similarly afflicted of elderly age, as well as the babies and children to whom your remarks seem to be particularly directed.

RHUBARB GREENS POISON.

D. S. writes: Are rhubarb greens healthful?

REPLY.

They are poisonous; fatally so in many cases. One dish and out!

RESTRAINING INJUNCTION.

Chicago, July 30.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—In a recent edition of a Chicago paper the following news item was printed:

"Pittsburgh, July 19, 1927—An injunction has been granted by an Allegheny county court restraining a former bookkeeper with a steel company from revealing any secrets pertaining to processes, methods of manufacture, inventory costs and sales costs to rival concerns."

Is there anything in the Illinois statutes which would warrant a judge of this county to issue such an injunction?

E. T.

While there is no statute on this narrow point, such relief could be granted on proper facts under common law principles.

GET A LAYWER.

Chicago, July 30.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—On Jan. 25, 1926, I loaned a certain party the sum of $100 in cash and he signed a note for the same amount due on Jan. 25, 1927, with 6 per cent interest. This note is now six months past due and it is still unpaid. I received only $10 from this party since he signed the note. I wrote to him and asked him to pay it and he keeps stalling me off. Kindly tell me how to collect this in the best way possible. He has not signed a new note. I must get this money in the quickest way possible.

REBUTTAL.

I cannot understand that after
These long years of brave, broken laughter,
These months of men whose kiss I flee,
I'd fall in love so earnestly.
I've been in love—my heavens, yes,—
A reminiscence of caress,
An echo of love's whispered charm,
The feel of cheek and tightened arm,
Techniques paraphernalian,
Identical with every man.
I am no copyist, no harker
After the plaints of Dorothy Parker;
I cannot, to be truthful, say
That emulating Miss Millay
In rhyme, would buck me up a bit
—I grieve for sorrow not a whit—
But you'll agree it's most confusing
To find that life can be amusing,
That at the tinkle of the phone
I do not clasp my heart and moan.
I love you, dear. For your sake, I'll
Bury the tear and wistful smile,
Forget the tactics of the chase,
And settle down in your embrace.

This ought to hand the folks a laugh
With no lost love per paragraph.

Of course there is always the pride a mother has in her offspring that will lead one carelessly to let out some intimate incident in the child life, such as "My Mabel croaked her husband last week. Goodness, I must say it as shouldn't that that girl of mine is simply a bearcat with a sashweight." Ah, these talking mothers! How little they think that the careless things they say with so much maternal pride may be picked up by snooping people who place a bad construction on everything—even murder.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 5, 1862.

WASHINGTON.—Secretary of War Stanton issued an order that a draft of 300,000 militia be called into the service at once, to serve for nine months unless sooner discharged. The order also provides that if by Aug. 15 any state has not furnished its quota of the 300,000 volunteers authorized by law, the deficiency shall be made up by a special draft on the militia.

WASHINGTON.—A reconnoitering column under Gen. Crawford crossed the Rapidan, pushed forward to Orange Courthouse, and took possession of the town after a sharp engagement.

NEW YORK.—A dispatch to the Times says that there was a report in Washington that Gen. McClellan's army was embarking on transports for the purpose of changing the place for advance upon Richmond.

INDIANAPOLIS. — Two thousand one hundred rebel prisoners in Camp Morton refuse to be exchanged, and desire to take the oath of allegiance. They are from Tennessee.

EDITORIAL.—Every loyal man's heart beat more proudly yesterday, and eyes flashed with earnestness as the news flew from lip to lip that the government had decided to call 600,000 men into the field within ten days' time. The voice of the country summons its sons to the earnest work of crushing the rebellion. It means war now, a war for exterminating and blotting out from the face of the earth this unholy rebellion. There is to be no more playing war, and from this clash of arms will come forth Peace under Liberty.

CHICAGO.—Dr. C. H. Stanley, a north side physician, was arrested, charged with cheering for Jeff Davis and dissuading parties from enlisting.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 5, 1902.

CHICAGO.—Gov. Yates' order for an investigation of the Kankakee insane asylum has been vetoed. After debating the matter for eight hours the trustees decided not to investigate themselves.

KIEL.—Emperor William, accompanied by his brother, Admiral Prince Henry, and Count von Buelow, minister of foreign affairs, sailed on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern for the Russian naval maneuvers at Reval.

CHICAGO.—Rescuing her daughter from the path of a swiftly moving automobile, Mrs. Anna C. Merrilhan stepped in front of a runaway horse that was frightened by the machine, and was killed.

CHICAGO.—By purchasing a large interest in the Weaver Coal company, John W. Gates has added a side line to his steel industries and in the new venture is associated with men of the United States Steel corporation.

CHICAGO.—Car builders and blacksmiths at the Pullman car works have gone on a strike for more wages and threaten to involve all the 6,000 men in the employ of the Pullman company.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

AUGUST 5, 1917.

LONDON. — The Russian executive council of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates, according to a Petrograd dispatch, has resolved to issue a proclamation to the peoples of the whole world pointing out the tragic position in which the continuation of the war would place them.

CHICAGO.—Platoon after platoon of the young men selected for the national army marched through Chicago's streets yesterday in a parade inspiring to the thousands watching as well as those in line. Maj. Gen. Thomas Barry, who reviewed the marchers, said: "Chicago or no other city in the United States or the world ever witnessed a finer sight than the parade of honor of the selected men composed solely of young American manhood." The parade was the outcome of a TRIBUNE editorial.

CHICAGO. — Members of the Russian commission closed a two days' visit to Chicago with a massmeeting of their countrymen at the Auditorium. The commission is headed by Boris A. Bakhmetieff.

WAR NEWS. — London reports the recapture of the remaining portion of trenches east of Monchy le Preux, wrested from the British three nights ago. Paris reports the continued advance of the French in Flanders and artillery duels in the Verdun sector.

A TEACHER'S VIEW OF M'ANDREW.

Chicago, July 30.—Supt. McAndrew has unified the entire school system. The teachers as a body have discovered that they are individually responsible to their principal; principals have worked under direction and close supervision of their assistant superintendents; the division superintendents have a vivid realization that they are responsible for the work accomplished in their school districts.

When William McAndrew came to Chicago to accept the position of superintendent of schools there was a deplorable lack of system, and consequently a lack of uniformity in scholastic requirements in various schools. Children transferred from one school to another were frequently not accepted in the new school according to grade indicated on the transfer card. It was not unusual for a child so transferred to be demoted and considerable dissatisfaction on the part of parents resulted from such carelessness in grading.

Under Supt. McAndrew, with his strenuous requirements of the "three R's" and disregard of various fads and frills, it became much easier to give an accurate and just rating of scholarship on report cards and transfers.

There was also a wide latitude permitted in regard to marking teachers. A principal who conscientiously undertook to grade his teachers in accordance with the fitness of classes for promotion was liable to have a rather hard time of it.

As a member of the teaching force of Chicago public schools for over thirty years, I desire to record my conviction that it will be a serious step backward for the schools to consider any change of superintendents. The disinterested citizens who were primarily responsible for bringing Supt. McAndrew back to Chicago I hope will show their appreciation of his work. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Chicago must not lose McAndrew.

FANNIE SCOVILLE REEDER.

A "DISRESPECTFUL REFERENCE."

Chicago, July 29.—Your reporter covering the tragedy which overtook the unfortunate passengers of the lake boat Favorite yesterday wrote that the "darky musicians bravely kept picking out a tune. . . Soon the wind drowned the instruments, but the duet went on, etc., etc."

Is it possible that any justification exists either in journalism, literary license, or the tastes of a majority of your subscribers for such a disrespectful reference as "darky musicians"?

J. N. BAKER.

A COMPLAINT FROM ELMHURST.

Elmhurst, Ill., Aug. 1.—For three years we have been riding on the Aurora and Elgin railroad from Elmhurst. Elmhurst is a city of 10,000 and has been growing rapidly. Where there were six houses three years ago there are six hundred now. The majority of these people take the interurban because the North Western is too far away. In the last three years the A. & E. has improved slightly but it is far from giving satisfactory service.

The trains are fast enough and run often, but why can't we have seats? A lady leaving the train this morning made the remark: "I pay $9 for my monthly ticket and stand all the way in, over twenty miles." The August rates are being raised and now is the time for us to have better service. The new trains that are being advertised will be fine for the cities west of Elmhurst, the cities the limiteds stop at, but will not affect Elmhurst.

The limited trains that don't stop at Elmhurst pass with empty seats. On the 7:38 morning train from Elmhurst coming into Chicago there are three city stops. The train discharges from ten to fifty passengers and this morning there were thirteen standing in just the front coach when we arrived at the terminal. We don't even have standing room.

ELMHURST COMMITTEE.

A RADIO NUISANCE.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Is there any protection against radio noises? Why do the people who have radios installed in their homes set them up near an open window or door, put on the loud speaker, and turn the thing loose? One neighbor will have some noted minister's sermon on the air. Another at same time grand opera, a third that ear splitting Negro minstrel girl with a voice like the noise made in filing a saw, with perhaps a jazz orchestra or two, all on the air at once, or following closely after each other, making one who must listen, whether he will or not, wish for some hut on a desert island, where he can read in peace and quiet.

ONE OF THE NEIGHBORS.

ANOTHER WOMAN COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

La Moille, Ill., Aug. 2.—The telegram from Champaign in your issue of Aug. 2 stating that Douglas county has the only woman county superintendent of schools in Illinois seems to be an error, as Miss Mary Uthoff of Princeton is now serving her second term as superintendent in Bureau county.

Testimony of her popularity is the fact that she is a Democrat and has been twice elected in a normally Republican county.

COUNTY PAYS GAS TAX, BUT DOUBTS IT'LL GET ROADS

Cermak Tells of 18 Years of Trying for Them.

Cook county, as represented by Anton Cermak, president of the county board, and Illinois, as represented by Gov. Len Small, are playing that little game, "Try and get it," the state trying and getting Cook county's money as gasoline tax and the county trying and not getting hard roads, wide roads, any kind of roads.

President Cermak told about it yesterday. He was asked by a representative of THE TRIBUNE:

"Can Cook county get a dollar's worth of road for every dollar of Cook county's gasoline tax?"

A Game 18 Years Old.

"Try and get it," he suggested. "We have been trying for eighteen years to get the state to pay us what it owes us for state aid roads. We've received a million and a half in that time. If Gov. Small wants to say it was two million I'll not contradict him."

"But the gasoline tax is supposed to be for the one purpose of building more roads; therefore, why not ask the governor to give us roads for all the money we pay?" Mr. Cermak was asked.

"Because Gov. Small's word is no good," the county board president replied. "He'd promise Cook county roads or anything else while the coming campaign is on, but after the campaign: Try and get it. He'd make political capital out of our asking him and he might get some votes in Cook county because of his promises—but all we'd get would be the promises."

Some Facts About Situation.

A few facts necessary to the proper understanding of the road building situation were then given by President Cermak and his assistant, John Delaney.

"First, you must understand," the explanation went, "that the farmer is just as much opposed to the gasoline tax as is the Chicagoan. For years the farmer has had his roads built by the taxes from Cook county and he has those roads.

"Now he has to pay a tax he never contemplated, and he'll pay plenty, too, because the farmers have automobiles and they use them frequently going and coming from town. And he'll find more red tape in collecting his rebates on his gasoline for farm implements than the trouble will be worth.

Who Pays the Tax.

"The city man pays for the paving of Chicago streets by special assessment. He very seldom uses the country roads. The big payers of gasoline tax will be the taxicabs, busses and trucks that never leave the city streets.

"It is agreed, therefore, that the city taxpayer should get something for his gas tax but the only way he can get it is in paving Cook county roads. None of that money can be used for paving city streets.

"Cook county will probably pay $5,000,000 into the state treasury in gasoline tax. If we get any of it back we're lucky.

"We are judging the future by the past. It has been a joke to build a road and turn it over to the state. First we do not get the 50 per cent the state is obligated to pay, and secondly the state does not maintain and repair the state roads in Cook county as it is required to do.

"So, before we try to get what is coming to us from the gas tax we should get what is already due us from the automobile license tax.

"Cook county has been building hard roads for many years, out of bond issues and out of direct taxation. We have spent over $8,000,000 of bond money.

"The state has two bond issues, one of $60,000,000 and one of $100,000,000. Cook county will pay for a heavy portion of those bond issues and out of both of them we should get 400 miles of state highways. That's another try and get it proposition. We'll get our share when Small is ready to give it to us, not before.

"The gasoline tax law contains the provision that half of the tax collected in each county should be returned to that county. The other half goes into the general fund and may be used wherever the governor pleases. There's no good reason why all of the money collected in Cook county shouldn't be spent for roads in Cook county, for widening or grade separations or in any way we please to use it. But there is a reason, and his name is Small."

What Figures Show.

Figures prepared by the Automobile Club of Illinois before the gasoline tax became a law show that without the gasoline revenue the receipts of the state for 1927, 1928, and 1929 for road building would amount to $125,716,985. The estimated cost of maintenance, retiring part of the principal and the interest, completing the road program for those three years, with refunds, would be but $117,068,406.

Under that estimate there will be a surplus in the state road fund on Jan. 1, 1930, of $8,648,579. This sum, under that estimate, will be in addition to the money collected from the 2 cents a gallon tax on the gasoline used in the state, which in three years is expected to be about $45,000,000. So the Automobile Club of Illinois asks:

"Why the hurry? Unless, perhaps, to build up a big political machine? Why the gasoline tax?"

KANSAS CITY STOCK LAND BANK OFFICERS FACE MORE CHARGES

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Walter Cravens, former president of the Kansas City joint stock land bank, and Miss Alice Todd, its former secretary, were charged jointly in eighty-eight counts with misapplication of funds of the bank in indictments returned today by the federal grand jury. The amount involved exceeds $1,000,000, according to government agents.

The counts also included charges of false entries involving, particularly, the outside enterprises fostered by Cravens.

Cravens and Miss Todd and other officials and directors of the bank previously were indicted by the federal grand jury in connection with the case, but the grand jury was recalled to resume its investigation.

Cravens and associates also are under federal indictment in Kansas in connection with the affairs of the Cravens mortgage company of Salina and the land bank.

WANT ROOSEVELT ROAD WIDENED IN TWO COUNTIES

Du Page, Kane Residents Appeal to State.

Request that the state widen Roosevelt road to 40 feet across Du Page county was formulated yesterday at a meeting in Wheaton attended by informally selected delegates from Wheaton, Glen Ellyn, Elmhurst, West Chicago, Hinsdale, Lombard, and other communities in that county.

Kane county residents showed their interest of the county through the presence of N. W. Tomblin, chairman of the road and bridge committee of that county's board.

Sentiment expressed at the meeting was that 40 foot wide radial roads from Chicago are an immediate necessity. It was urged that as the condition of Roosevelt road requires repaving the state should be urged to rebuild it to 40 feet wide, instead of the present 18 feet. The gathering was sponsored by the Chicago Motor club.

Seek Full Details.

At the close the following committee was named to gather all necessary data: Ted Hammersmith and Fred Krueger, Elmhurst; W. McFryer and Ralph Telefson, Wheaton; George Baughn, Glen Ellyn; Roy Chidlow, Villa Park; D. H. Merrill, Hinsdale.

Resolutions were adopted describing the general highways in Du Page county and calling on the state highway department to take immediate steps for widening them.

Mayor Otto Balgermann of Elmhurst acted as chairman of the meeting.

"There is not the slightest doubt," he said, "that the people of Du Page county are in favor of immediate widening of the radial roads from Chicago at once. We may not know it, but practically every motorist is thinking that way.

"In my territory this movement will get unanimous support and my observation is that the same feeling exists elsewhere. It can do done.

Believes State Is Willing.

"There may be some problems, but they can be overcome. It is our understanding that the state is willing to widen Roosevelt road through the county. When all right of day is supplied it will start. If the county or the villages and towns are to be called on to pay for this additional right of way I do not see that will be any great obstacle. Some way will be found to meet the situation."

In speaking of the present Roosevelt road, the pavement on which was laid in 1914, Mr. Tomblin of Aurora recalled a prediction made at the formal dedication by the late Senator Medill McCormick.

"Mr. McCormick said at that time," he declared, "that while the newly finished road was an important step in transportation history of this community, the eighteen feet of width would be looked upon with contempt in a decade or two. 'What we will have here,' he said, "will be a highway 100 feet wide, not so far in the future, and it will be none too wide for the volume of traffic that will be using this highway in the years to come.'

Says Prediction Came True.

"The prediction has come true and even as extravagant as it seemed then it does not meet more than our present needs."

It developed after the gathering that the state is preparing to let contracts for the rebuilding of Roosevelt road from a point a mile west of the Cook county line to the Findley road, at a width of 20 feet, and may get at the work this summer.

"We are getting land along that section which will widen the present right of way 125 feet to provide for the future," E. L. Gates, county highway superintendent of Du Page county, said. "This is ready to be turned over, so the state could build its 20 feet additional parallel with the present line of pavement, thereby making it possible to have the road open into Chicago while the new work is going on. When the 20 foot strip is completed, then the state could tear up the old line and rebuild it either as part of the new section or as a parallel road slightly separated.

"For the balance of the highway west of Findley road, the 66 foot right of way is complete and the state can start its widening at any time it pleases. A small piece at Gary's Mill, which will take out a bad curve, can be had whenever wanted, agreement having been made to turn over the title at the appropriate time."

Cook county's paving price advisory committee continued its cost analysis sessions yesterday without reaching a conclusion. The committee has decided to apply its cost units to all the thirteen projects, bids for which twice were rejected by the county board as excessive.

LINCOLN PARK CROSSING TO BE OPENED TUESDAY

Lincoln park's new $175,000 separation of grades at North avenue and Lake Shore drive will be opened next Tuesday afternoon following a luncheon in the park refectory to which leaders in city, county, and state affairs have been invited, it was announced yesterday by President David H. Jackson.

County commissioners and state officials will study the new project closely with a view to adopting similar plans to relieve congestion at important highway intersections in Cook county and downstate, Mr. Jackson said. The east half of the upper level has already been opened to traffic. Lincoln park's new $250,000 small animal house, with many new specimens recently arrived, will also be dedicated Tuesday. Gov. Len Small has promised to attend.

MRS. O'BANION TO SEEK TO IDENTIFY RECOVERED GEMS

The police of St. Louis were informed yesterday that Mrs. Viola O'Banion, widow of the slain bootlegger chieftain, Dean O'Banion, was on her way to St. Louis and would seek to identify jewelry valued at $8,000 which the police found in the possession of Jesse MacMurray, an ex-convict.

MacMurray asserted that he had found the gems in a purse on the road between Michigan City and Gary, Ind. The purse contained receipts showing that Mrs. O'Banion had paid a hotel bill at Grand Beach, Mich., on July 18. She had not been there since, however, and efforts to locate her were fruitless.

MacMurray, who lives at Steger, Ill., once served a prison term for burglary. It was a representative of an insurance company who reported that Mrs. O'Banion would view the jewels.

U.S. EDITORS HEAR FRENCH PLEA TO CANCEL DEBTS

Paris Speaker Lauds Plan of Dr. N. M. Butler.

BY JAY ALLEN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Aug. 4.—Peace reigned supreme over the board at the Interallied club tonight where the French entertainment committee wined and dined visiting American editors.

After being told yesterday that they had it in their power to free Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, and were urged to do so, the editors tonight learned that they likewise had it in their power to prevent the return of "another terrible cataclysm of savagery and barbarism."

The way to do this, Auguste Fabre, who represented Quai d' Orsay, told the editors, is to shake America from its policy of isolation and cancel the debts.

Tribute to Butler.

M. Fabre did not actually use the word "cancel." What he did say was incorporated in a tribute to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, who has advocated cancellation.

"There is not a Frenchman who does not bear in mind the notes he has recently published on interallied debts," M. Fabre said. "These are true prophetic visions which show the author's profound knowledge of European and world-wide realities and positively inspired understanding of their ultimate developement.

"Tell your elite and your politicians that to be a stateman worthy of the name it is insufficient to look only to the material prosperity of a nation. Impress the millions of your daily readers that they should not slumber in deceitful security and in splendid isolation."

Hartford Editor Speaks.

The editors did not say much tonight, having announced since they left London that they came abroad to learn things and not to talk. The only exception was Maurice Sherman of the Hartford Courant, who said that Dr. Butler ought to be the next president, but would not be, because the best man never got the job.

The editors learned something about international relations at the American club today when Julius Klein, director of the United States bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, said American tourists are spending $650,000,000 in Europe this year, or $1,000,000 more than last year.

Guarded by Detectives.

Wherever they go the editors still are guarded by detectives lest French radicals show resentment over their not using their influence with Gov. Fuller of Massachusetts to pardon Sacco and Vanzetti.

La Presse, commended tonight: "Among the big footed, loud speaking, garden variety of tourists at the Louvre the editors appeared obviously of superior breed, representatives of the cultivated American elite. It is a good thing France is able to entertain representatives from a country that so far has been exclusively a field for British and German propaganda."

HOLD BEVERLY HILLS FLASHLIGHT BURGLAR IN BONDS OF $315,000

Raymond Hill, 26, colored, of 3348 South State street, was held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge Borrelli of the Grand Crossing court on twenty-one charges of burglary. Bonds were fixed at $315,000.

Hill, known as "the Beverly Hills flashlight burglar," admitted that he had broken into all the houses as charged by the police. He added that a colored woman, Mattie Carter of 3857 South State street, had persuaded him to commit most of the burglaries and that she went with him on several of his expeditions.

The Carter woman and four others were held as receivers of the property stolen by Hill. They are Nora Reilly, Lena Johnson, Ammis Hazel, and Mattie Harper, all colored.

FERNEKES' PALS FIGHT TO OBTAIN LIBERTY ON BAIL

CRIMINAL COURT.

Emeragilo Becema, rape, sentenced to 1 year in the penitentiary, by Chief Justice Lindsay.

George Kuhn, incest, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary; William Level, burglary, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary, by Judge Stanley Klarkowski.

A fight to obtain their release on bail was begun yesterday before Chief Justice Lindsay in Criminal court by Daniel L. McGeogehan and John Flannery, convicted along with Henry J. (Midget) Fernekes for the murder of Michael Swiontkowski, building and loan official. Assistant State's Attorney Emmet F. Bryne is contesting the bail motion.

McGeogehan and Flannery have been in jail since 1925. The case against Fernekes was nol-prossed recently after a reversal by the state Supreme court. Efforts are now being made to extradite him to New York in connection with a murder there.

All Winnetka Takes Day Off for Its Annual Fete

Winnetka's annual gala day was celebrated yesterday with a parade, races, games, and a pageant, an event staged by the chamber of commerce. Virtually the entire village took part and all business houses were closed at noon. The main features of the parade were numerous floats. Among them was a small locomotive built and run by John Shedd Schweppe, son of Charles H. Schweppe, La Salle street broker. The United States navy lent one of its planes for display in the procession.

Bilbo, Murphree Matched for Second Miss. Primary

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Theodore G. Bilbo, former governor of Mississippi, will oppose Governor Dennis Murphree in a second primary for the Mississippi gubernatorial nomination.

With one precinct missing, returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary revealed tonight: Bilbo, 128,706; Murphree, 70,704; Conner, 59,255; Anderson, 21,993.

GUARD OFFICERS SENT INTO MINE DISORDER ZONES

Columbus, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—While Gov. Donahey today awaited action of coal operators and union miners of the central competitive field on his proposal of a resumption of their wage scale conference, Ohio national guard officers were despatched as permanent observers to the scenes of the recent disorders in five counties.

A flurry caused at the capitol early in the day over the murder in Athens county of P. J. Merz, president of the Liok Run mine, Nelsonville, was quieted tonight when the governor's office was informed by Maj. John Edwards, stationed in Athens county, that the shooting was "a domestic affair."

Accepted As Domestic Row.

"It is commonly accepted here, and it is my belief that the killing of Merz by his son-in-law, James McManaway, grew out of a domestic quarrel," Major Edwards reported.

After suggesting that the proposed wage conference be held in Toledo on Aug. 15, Gov. Donahey, at his summer cottage on Indian lake, adopted a policy of waiting. Up to the time his office closed tonight, no word had been received from either John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, or Rice Miller, chairman of the central field operators, who were urged by Donahey to resume the conference which ended in a deadlock at Miami, Fla., several months ago.

NO POWER, MILLER SAYS.

Rice Miller, spokesman for the Illinois coal operators, announced last night that he had not received any telegram or letter from Gov. Donahey of Ohio urging that a meeting of representatives of the coal miners and mine owners be called to settle the strike of bituminous coal miners.

"I gather from newspaper reports that the Ohio executive suggests that I call a meeting of the mine owners in the central competitive field for the purpose of later meeting the miners' representatives," Mr. Miller said. "I haven't the power to call such a meeting. When the Miami conference between mine owners and union leaders adjourned it did so sine die. Mine owners in each state are empowered now to conduct their own negotiations with the union."

SPECIAL TRAIN BEARS WOUNDED BOY TO HOSPITAL

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—After racing with death for almost three hours, a special one car train arrived here this evening from Watersmeet, Mich., bearing Jack Kelly, 12, son of a Watersmeet grocer, who was critically wounded this afternoon. The boy was shot through the forehead with a .22 rifle by a playmate who was attempting to shoot chipmunks. An attempt is being made to probe for the bullet in a hospital here.

Suggests Skyscrapers Top Chicago's Fire Stations

Skyscraper fire engine houses for Chicago were proposed yesterday by Fire Commissioner Albert W. Goodrich on his return from a trip to Detroit where he inspected fire stations with office buildings overhead. He said he believes by this arrangement Chicago can build many of its new stations without cost. He suggested such combinations at 117-119 North Franklin street, 54th street and Wabash avenue, 439 Plymouth court, and several north side sites.

UNION TO FIGHT COATH MOVE TO FIRE ENGINEERS

Prepares to Take School Issue to Courts.

With the board of education yesterday working out preliminary arrangements for reorganization of the schools' maintenance department under civil service, attorneys for the school engineers' union prepared to petition for a new injunction restraining President J. Lewis Coath from discharging engineers whose jobs were threatened.

Following a ruling the board on Wednesday eliminating the old contract system and putting engineers on a flat salary basis, President Coath issued a warning that men in automobiles would be ready at any time to take the places of engineers who objected to the change. He also announced that only those engineers whose work had been satisfactory in the past would be retained.

Attorney Talks for Union.

Michael F. Ryan, attorney for the union, declared yesterday that the board had no legal right to take advantage of the change in the engineers' status and that an attempt to discharge any of them would be followed by court action. The engineers were on the civil service roll. Their 2,400 employés were not.

"Civil service does not make it legally possible to oust an incumbent of a civil service position merely by abolishing the particular position, recreating it under a new name and then filling it by other than the incumbent of the former position," Mr. Ryan said. "The Supreme court has on numerous occasions passed on this question."

Meet in Conference Today.

A committee headed by James J. Spain, president of the union, will meet with John E. Byrnes, business manager for the board of education, this morning at 10 o'clock to discuss terms. The engineers will ask that the present contract system be extended to Sept. 1, and also will present demands for their July checks which have been held up by the board, Michael P. Sullivan, union official, said last night.

"We anticipate no serious difficulty with the union," Mrs. Byrnes said. "Eighty per cent of the engineers have indicated they would coöperate with us willingly. I understand that it is the board's intention to dismiss only a very small number."

2 Girls Forfeit Bonds in Gold Coast Lace Swindle

Jean and Maggie Williamson, charged with attempting to swindle Mrs. Benjamin Carpenter, society matron, by selling her cheap lace as hand made, imported Scotch goods, failed to appear in South Clark street court yesterday caused Judge William R. Fetzer to forfeit their $1,000 bonds.

AIMEE NAMES IOWA MAN ASSISTANT AND SENDS HIM TO CHICAGO

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—The Rev. Mrs. Aimee McPherson today elevated the Rev. John Goben of Des Moines, Ia., to first assistant pastorship in her church and assigned him to expand her creed from middle west headquarters in Chicago.

Goben leaves for Chicago next week. He will assume charge of the two "salvation lighthouses" in Chicago and launch a revival campaign which, Mrs. McPherson expects, will give a flying start to her program of a nationalized church movement.

Mrs. McPherson will follow Goben east on Aug. 28 and conduct a rally in Blackton, Ia., then will return to Los Angeles to assemble the business reins of a million dollar gosped enterprise for expanding her field. After that she will move to Chicago to start her train of churches over this country and Canada.

Mrs. McPherson today informed church leaders that she has let an order for the biggest advertising electric sign in the world. It will glow above the yellow dome of Angelus temple and "will make the New York theater signs look like failing matches," the preacher-promoter declared.

SCALISI AVOIDS SECOND BATTLE; TAKEN BY POLICE

Repetition of the battle between police and Genna gangsters on June 9, 1925, was narrowly averted yesterday afternoon. John Scalisi, who figured in the fatal fight in 1925, was arrested after a short chase by a detective bureau squad.

Sergt. Fred Joyner and members of his squad sighted the gangster with two companions in an automobile near 11th street and Blue Island avenue. Speeding in pursuit as the trio sought to escape, the squad car forced them to the curb at Roosevelt road and May street. "It was a good thing for them," Joyner said, "that they didn't try to use either of the two guns found in their machine. We were ready to shoot to kill."

The other two seized yesterday were Angelo Percibosca, 28, of 4900 Lexington street, and Louis Schibone, 30, of 1001 South Ashland avenue. Scalisi and Albert Anselmi recently were acquitted of the murder of Policeman Harold Olson during the pursuit two years ago. Policeman John Walsh and Michael Genna also were slain at that time.

DIES OF INJURY TO TOE.

Thomas Holder, 64 years old of Wheaton, Ill., died in the County hospital yesterday of gangrene resulting from a leg infection. The infection developed from an injury to one toe two years ago.

STATE DELAYING WAREHOUSE OF MARSHALL FIELD

Refuses to O. K. Air Rights Lease with Railway.

Failure of the Illinois Commerce commission to approve a lease of railroad air rights, it was learned yesterday, threatens to block the construction of Marshall Field & Co.'s new $15,000,000 warehouse at Wells street and the river.

Under an agreement with the Chicage and Northwestern railroad, the Field company expected to lease air rights over an area of nearly 3 blocks, planning to build a 16 story structure, set back to make way for a drive on the north river bank. An application for the lease order was made two months ago.

State Board Says "No."

The commerce commission at its meeting last Friday, it was disclosed, failed to pass the order by a vote of 3 for and 2 against. Four votes are required for passage. Voting "yes" were David H. Jackson, chairman; Paul Kuhn, and W. H. Smith; voting "no," Patrick H. Moynihan and Alexander Johnson. Commissioners Edward Wright and Hal W. Trovillian did not vote.

"The two members opposing the order did not explain their stand," Mr. Jackson said last night. "I know of no reason why the lease should not be authorized."

Originally, the cause of delay, he said, was to await action by the legislature on a bill permitting such air right contracts. The bill was passed, however, and signed by Gov. Small several weeks ago.

Goes Ahead with Plans.

James Simpson, president of Marshall Field & Co., said his firm has gone ahead with its building plans, confident of the lease's validity, although the matter is being handled by the railroad.

Ray N. Van Doren, general counsel for the Northwestern, also said the delay was inexplicable. The commission previously had indicated it would favor the proposal, he said. He asserted that the railroad would employ every legal method to secure its passage.

Mr. Jackson said the lease order will come up for further discussion at a meeting of the commission Aug. 9. At that time, he indicated, another roll call will be taken and an effort made to settle the question definitely.

RECOVER BODIES OF 15 MEN FROM WRECKED MINE

Clay, Ky., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Explosion wrecked No. 7 mine of the Western Kentucky Coal company tonight gave up the bodies of eight miners, making the total number recovered fifteen. All missing men now have been accounted for.

The last two bodies were brought to the surface at 10 o'clock tonight. Those whose bodies were recovered were West Carter and Green Russell, Negroes. Earlier the bodies of George Coleman, Mark Townsend, and Corbet Taborn, white, and John Dogan, John Clark, and Boss Money, Negroes, had been recovered.

JACKSON STILL LETTING FRIENDS DO THE TALKING

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Gov. Ed Jackson is thus far ignoring the story that in December, 1923, while he was secretary of state, he went to the then Gov. McCray and offered to deliver $10,000 to McCray if the latter would name James E. McDonald as prosecuting attorney of Marion county instead of William H. Remy. Remy was appointed.

Jackson's attitude toward the story, published last week while he was at Mackinac, was indicated this evening when he said: "If the time ever comes when it is necessary to issue a statement I'll issue one, of course. So far I've been paying no attention to the newspapers."

The latter remark was particularly a reference to the demand of the Indianapolis News and Times that he either make a satisfactory explanation of the McCray affair or resign.

Several persons who profess to be counselors of Gov. Jackson had passed out the word this week that Jackson would in due time "issue a statement that would rock the state," but developments today confirmed no such expectation.

Claude M. Worley, former chief of police detectives, ousted this week by the klan supported Indianapolis city administration, will aid Prosecutor Remy in the investigation of the now famous political scandal, it became known tonight. Judge James A. Collins of the Criminal court announced Worley's appointment as special investigator for his court—a post he formely held—to take effect Aug. 15.

Worley probably will aid Remy specifically in his preparations for the trial of Mayor John L. Duvall, set for Sept. 12.

His Klan Card Identifies Cook Murdered in Gary

The coroner of Lake county, Ind., and the Gary detective bureau yesterday were investigating the murder of Albert J. Fairfax, 43, a cook, whose body was found by a milkman early yesterday. Fairfax's head had been crushed with a stone. Identification was made through his Ku Klux Klan membership card. Fairfax formerly lived in Minneapolis.

"Popular here," says Malden St. woman:

I often wonder what I'd do if I couldn't get Rinso for my washer. Why, it works just like magic! It makes our water so sudsy that all the dirt comes right out of the clothes, and in no time at all they are ready for the lines—whiter than ever. The clothes last much longer, too, this way, now that they get so little rubbing. Rinso also washes dishes, floors and tiles just as nicely as it washes clothes. No wonder every woman in town is talking about it!

MRS. PANSY KRAUS,

Millions use Rinso. Thousands write us letters like this.

Try this way to get a whiter wash

In machine or tub, no scrubbing or boiling—even in hardest water!

WOMEN all over town—women everywhere—are talking about Rinso! Just try it next washday and see why!

Notice what thick, creamy suds it gives—even in the hardest water. Whether you use washing machine or tub, see how this safe "no-work" way gets clothes whiter than you've ever seen them!

No scrubbing to wear out clothes or to ruin hands. No boiling to waste fuel. No bar soaps, chips or water softeners. Just Rinso! Soaks clothes whiter and brighter than you could scrub them! So wonderful in washers the makers of 30 leading machines endorse it.

You'll never know how easy washday can be until you try Rinso! So for a whiter wash—with less work—get Rinso now!

For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on the package.

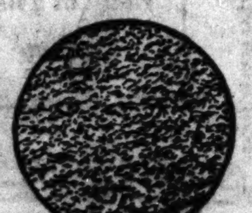
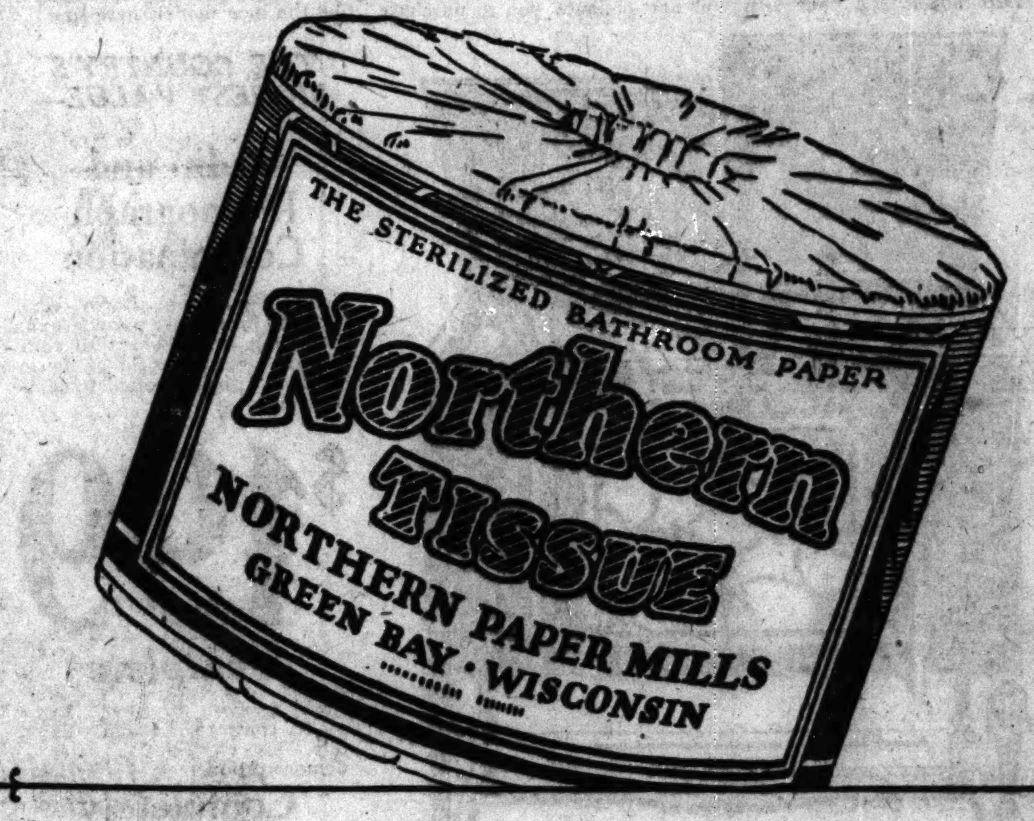
Most yellow toilet papers are made from ground wood. Note the tiny splinters which the microscope reveals and to which many doctors attribute rectal troubles, such as Pruritis Ani.



A drawing from a 10 times enlarged microscopic photograph of snow-white Northern Tissue.

Every sheet of Northern Tissue is made from pure cellulose paper pulp—sterilized 20 times in manufacture by our own process. Note the firm, down-like texture—free from all irritating particles.



Now! a Bathroom Paper as sanitary as sealed hospital cotton

Snow-white! Downy soft! Doubly absorbent! 20 times sterilized!

...Costs no more than ordinary toilet paper

NOW, at no additional cost, you can use a sterilized Bathroom Paper which doctors recommend. For Northern Tissue is sterilized 20 times in the making. It is actually as sanitary as sealed hospital cotton. And with this sterile quality it is soft, white, and doubly absorbent. Yet its price is no more than ordinary toilet paper.

A new safeguard to health

Modern medical science has traced many ills to careless hygienic methods of our everyday life. Seemingly trivial things that often endanger health.

This is why physicians and surgeons everywhere recommend this sterilized Bathroom Paper. Why it is used in hospitals throughout the United States—to safeguard health.

Every roll as sanitary as sealed hospital cotton

Northern Tissue is sterilized 20 times in manufacture. By our own process. Thus every roll comes to you clean and sterile. A laboratory test conducted by the nationally-known Columbus Laboratories, proved Northern Tissue to be as sanitary as sealed hospital cotton.

Doctors advise

Now you do not have to use yellow toilet paper (most of which is made from ground wood) to which many doctors attribute dread rectal troubles, such as Pruritis Ani. (Note the difference between yellow, ground wood paper and Northern Tissue, as revealed by microscope in the drawings above.)

Start using Northern Tissue today. (Simply ask your dealer for "Northern Tissue." He will know your wants without further explanation.) Note its snow-white color; its fine, firm texture; its down-like softness and absorbency. And remember—every sheet is sterilized 20 times. The price is no more than you pay for ordinary toilet paper.

Madam—

"I would like to send a generous sample of Northern Tissue to you, so that you can see the difference between this white, soft, sterilized Bathroom Paper and ordinary toilet paper.

OKLAHOMA PAIR AIR HIKE TO JOIN IN PACIFIC DERBY

On 1,400 Mile Nonstop Trip as Test.

BULLETIN.

Bartlesville, Okla., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Bennett Griffin and Al Hanley were forced down tonight by motor trouble at Amboy, Cal., said advices received here late tonight. The aviators were in the air 13 hours and 40 minutes. They will fly tomorrow to San Francisco, 500 miles away.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Two young aviators from Oklahoma in a double seated monoplane roared westward tonight in an attempted nonstop flight of 1,400 miles from their home hangar at Bartlesville, Okla., to San Francisco—the first severe long distance flying test among the entrants in the trans-Pacific aerial Derby to Honolulu.

Successfully negotiating the first few hundred miles over the plains between their state and New Mexico, Bennett H. Griffin, pilot, and Al Henley, navigator, lofted over the mountain ranges today. The last word early tonight was of their passing over East Las Vegas, N. M., shortly before noon, apparently trying to escape a rainstorm. Their safe arrival will bring another of the official entries to the starting line to await the hour Aug. 12 that will set off fifteen flyers in a race from the mainland over the 2,400 miles of water separating them from the Hawaiian islands.

Other entries today were engaged in testing their mechanism at their hangars along the California coast line. In accordance with the rules of the flight all the pilots are expected here Monday to draw for positions.

METERS TO GO OUT OF HOMES, MAYOR ASSERTS

Mayor Thompson, speaking at the opening of the city's new $10,500,000 pumping station at 49th street and Western avenue yesterday, promised that water meters in small homes will be abolished as soon as the city council can act.

"There are those who presume to tell us how much water we can take out of Lake Michigan for domestic purposes," he declared, "but while Bill Thompson is your mayor we will take just as much as we want to use and if anybody tries to tell us how much we can take we'll tell them to go to hell."

"Only yesterday," the mayor said, "final arrangements were made with the federal government which will permit the passing of the water meter removal ordinance without objection."

Mr. Thompson announced that the city is considering a plan to use its water pumping station for manufacture of ice to sell at 25 cents a hundred pounds.

U. S. UNION MEN ON WAY TO RUSSIA TO STUDY SOVIETS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Seeking the truth about social, labor and economic conditions in Russia, an American party of trade union men landed at Plymouth today en route to the land of the soviets. Scotland, France, Belgium, Germany and London will be visited on the way.

"We have not been invited to Russia, but we presume we will be welcome," James H. Maurer, Pennsylvania labor leader and chairman of the delegation, told THE TRIBUNE correspondent. "We presume we will be allowed to travel where we like without molestation; if not, then the trip will be a failure. We want to find out the truth about Russia.

"In the United States there are two groups of propagandists, distinctly pro and distinctly anti-soviet. We are hoping to compare present conditions in Russia with the pre-war czarist conditions."

LAKE COUNTY GIVES BRACHER'S JOB TO MORSE

The Lake county board of supervisors yesterday appointed J. E. Morse county treasurer to succeed Roy Bracher, who resigned after a shortage of more than $100,000 was found in his accounts.

Bracher and four others have been indicted on a charge of conspiracy to embezzle the county's money.

Bracher recently admitted the shortage and turned over cash to cover it. He maintains that he was victimized by the others who were indicted. Morse, who has been a deputy county clerk since 1910, is expected to become the treasurer about the middle of September, when an audit of the books has been completed.

Good News for Thrifty Housewives

Save money NOW on these two delicious meats

RIGHT NOW every woman who likes to please her family with the choicer meats can save money on her household expenses.

This is a great ham and bacon year. These two select meats are selling at special-saving levels as compared with last summer.

We urgently recommend that the housewives of this city serve more ham and bacon and serve them oftener, thus profiting by the excellent values which exist at this time.

Mildly and sweetly cured, ham appeals strongly to the summer appetite. Buy it in slices for a quick meal. Buy a half ham or a whole ham to give your family varied meals with minimum cooking effort. Whole or half ham is easily used up and thoroughly enjoyable.

If you want to serve meals that have a relish and a zest—if you want to practice thrift and get more value for your money—serve ham and bacon. Buy for value. Ham and Bacon give you extra value now.

HEATHCOTE'S BAT BEATS BRAVES, 5 TO 4

FRIENDS REPORT JAMES MULLEN, PROMOTER, MISSING

LAST SEEN AT LOOP GYM AFTER $15,000 SHOW

Fighters in Windup Unpaid.

Friends of James C. Mullen, Chicago boxing impresario, were beginning to show worry last night lest something sinister had happened to him. Some of them were about ready, they admitted, to enlist police help in finding out what is keeping him from his home, 1521 North Mansfield avenue, Austin, or his gymnasium at 180 West Randolph street.

Mr. Mullen staged a boxing show on Tuesday night at Mills stadium. It was a financial success, an unusual thing for Chicago boxing extravaganzas. The gate receipts were around $15,000.

Mullen paid a fleeting visit to his gymnasium on Wednesday morning. Since that time his friends have been unable to locate him despite a thorough search.

Carries Fite Receipts.

Concern for Mullen has been increased by the knowledge that at the time of his disappearance he is believed to have been carrying the bulk of the gate receipts.

Out of the $15,000 taken in Tuesday night the tax and incidental expenses, it is said, absorbed about $1,000. From the remainder Mullen owed Stanley Loayza, winner of the main bout, some $3,500. Tommy Herman, the loser, had $2,500 coming. Apparently the winner and losers' shares are still due and will be until Mr. Mullen returns.

Managers of the two fighters were reported to be haunting Mr. Mullen's haunts last night without success.

John C. Righeimer, chairman of the Illinois boxing commission, expressed concern yesterday over Mr. Mullen's fadeaway. He said the fight managers, however, need have no worry about getting their money, even though Mr. Mullen had been waylaid and robbed. A $50,000 surety bond posted by the promoter assures payment of any fight debts.

Efforts to reach Mrs. Mullen by telephone proved futile last night. The promoter's brother, Joe, said he was certain that "Jim will turn up today." He suggested that his brother might have been taken ill and thus prevented from visiting his gymnasium.

Fighters Paid on Percentage.

Usually fighters are paid their purses by the commission. Mr. Righeimer explained last night that this procedure was not followed in the recent show because the principals in the main bout were boxing on a percentage and agreed to take their money from Mullen direct.

Harry Hockstader, partner in the gymnasium enterprise, admitted yesterday that he did not know where Mr. Mullen had gone Wednesday. But he said he wasn't worried.

There were some who suggested that Tex Rickard's entry into local boxing competition might have tinged Mr. Mullen's outlook with a shade of darkness. But Mr. Mullen's friends hooted at the suggestion.

They stuck to their fear that something sinister might have befallen him. They were hoping the morning would bring Mr. Mullen back, hale, hearty, and with his gate receipts intact.

WILLIAM C. PROUT OF U. S. OLYMPIC COMMITTEE DIES

Boston, Mass., Aug. 4.—(AP)—William C. Prout, president of the American Olympic council, died at his home here today after an illness of three months. He was 40 years old.

In November, 1923, Mr. Prout was elected president of the National Amateur Athletic union. Last November he again was chosen as head of the A. A. U., as well as being elected to the committee in charge of American participation in the 1928 Olympic games at Amsterdam.

Mr. Prout had been a prominent track athlete in his earlier years and was a member of the Boston Athletic association. He served at various times on many National A. A. U. committees and was nationally known in athletic circles.

In his college days Mr. Prout was a track star at Brown university, and later as captain of the Boston A. A. team he won national prominence. He became one of the foremost quarter milers of the country.

GORMAN LOSES TO HEENEY ON FOUL; MUNN KAYOS FOE

New York, Aug. 4.—[U.P.]—Bud Gorman of Summit, N. J., was disqualified for fouling in the third round of his bout with Tom Heeney, 194½ pound Australian, at the Madison Square Garden tonight.

In the semi-windup Monte Munn of Nebraska knocked out Pat Lester of California in one minute and three seconds of the first round.

Herman of Yonkers was knocked out by Jimmie Burns of Louisville in the fifth round. Jack Roper won on a foul in the third round from Smith. Billie Franklin defeated Al Settle in four rounds.

MRS. MIDA'S 249 WINS WOMEN'S WESTERN GOLF

Nearest Rival Is Twelve Strokes Behind.

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Mrs. Lee W. Mida of Butterfield had a birthday yesterday and as a birthday present to herself she smashed a jinx which has been trailing her for years. Recognized as one of the best women golfers in the west, she has been on a lean diet of golf championships for the last four years.

Mrs. Mida had set course records by the half dozen but since winning the women's western medal play championship in 1923, she had been unable to claim another until yesterday, when with another under par round, she again won this same "western open for women." Her score for the 54 holes over the Oak Park Country club course was 88-80-81-249.

Shoots 39 In Out Nine.

Mrs. Mida, still suffering from a cold, which, she admitted, didn't make golf a pleasure, got a bad start but barely missed breaking her own course record at that. A trap on the first hole cost her a shot and she put her second in the rough on the fourth. A mashie niblick pitch didn't quite carry the water and the penalty gave her a 7 on the hole, the only bad one in the round.

After that, however, she scored three birdies and an eagle on four holes, laying her approaches within six feet of the pin and sinking the putt on three of them and getting home with her second on the other. A drive to the rough lost one of those gained shots on the ninth, but she was out in 39, two under women's par.

Two traps, pitching from one over the green to another, gave her 6 on the 12th, but she sank a 15 foot putt for a 3 on the 320 yard 14th. Her third shot on the 580 yard 16th hole went over the green into a trap and she took another 6 and missed a four foot putt, after chipping from a trap, for a 3 on the 15th.

Traps Bother Mrs. Jones.

She needed a "4" for a 79 to break her own course record of 80 set Wednesday, on the 18th and her second was just short of the green. "Going on the four" she chipped past the pin and then took three more putts for a 6 and 81.

Next to Mrs. Mida's round, the two best rounds of the day were shot by Miss Catherine Bryant of Westward Ho, and Mrs. R. F. Holloway of Olympia Fields, both of whom scored 89. Miss Bryant's 89, combined with her 92 of the first day and 85 of the second, put her at the top of the second flight and probably will move her into the championship flight. Some of the leading scores were:

MRS. LEE MIDA.

Favorites Fall in Public Parks Golf Tourney

Cleveland, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Favorites and medal stars fell rapidly in the first two match rounds of the national public links golf championship at Ridgewood club today, Carl Kaufman of Pittsburgh being the only one of this clique to survive. He won by the narrow margin of 2 up in the second round from I. R. Davis of St. Louis, after an easy victory in the morning over George Joyce of Philadelphia.

First of the idols to fall was Clark Morse of St. Louis, the 17 year old lad who won the gold medal in the elimination rounds with 73—76—149. He lost in the initial match of the day to W. D. Halmer of Baltimore, 2 and 1. His conqueror fell later before Kendall Morrison of St. Joseph, Mo., who, after finishing square with R. A. Bowker of Chicago in the first round, on the latter's protest of an offense by a caddy, won by decision of the committee, 4 and 3.

Morrison was the only western contender to survive, except Frank Brokl of St. Paul, who, after setting a course record of par 72 in the second medal round, kept up his par golf today to eliminate Frank Alff of Kansas City, 4 and 3, and Tom Welsh of Boston, 6 and 5.

The second favorite to drop was Carmen Bill of Cleveland, who had tied for lead in the first medal round and was third for 36 holes. He went down before Dick Walsh of New York, 1923 titleholder, 4 and 3, and then saw Walsh fall victim to B. H. Burrows of Washington, 1 down, when Walsh's putt for a birdie three on the final hole missed the cup.

Washington got the lion's share of survivors, two out of eight, for besides Burrows, J. R. Miller came through handily by downing George Thomas of Chicago, 5 and 3, and John Florio of Columbus, 6 and 5. Chicago and St. Louis as well as Cleveland lost all their players, and New York dropped all but William Serrick, veteran of the event.

Serrick put out Harry Sweitzer of Cleveland in 19 holes when a spectator stopped the local player's drive in the extra hole; and he later downed J. P. Sahre of New York by shooting par and finishing 2 and 1.

ENTRIES CLOSE TOMORROW FOR TRIBUNE GOLF

Nearly 300 Registered in Driving Contest.

It's the long drive without any turning which will win the cups and medals in THE TRIBUNE's third annual golf driving contest at Soldiers' field Sunday, but those long drives won't be worth much unless the men and women who can hit them don't get their entries in before the flag drops at noon tomorrow. No entries will be accepted after that time, nor will tee entries be accepted.

The entry list at present is just short of the 300 mark, which is well over last year's record entry of 252. Women, in this first contest for feminine golfers, have been much more bashful, and the average is about one woman entered to every 20 men. There's plenty room for more feminine golfers.

Women Given Preference.

While speaking of the girls, it might be well to mention that this contest will give women preference. No time will be assigned for entrants in the woman's class and all of them will be permitted to drive as soon as they arrive at the tee. That means from when the contest starts at 9 o'clock in the morning until it ends, some time about sundown.

Contestants will drive from a tee built at the south end of Soldiers' field. Contestants and specators must enter the field at the south entrance, as the north gates will be locked to prevent any one's getting in the path of a golf ball. There is no admittance charge.

No Clubs Loaned.

There are only two things necessary for a golfer to compete for the cups and 36 gold, silver, and bronze medals in this contest, and those are to fill out the entry blank printed herewith and get it to the golf editor before Saturday noon, and to appear Sunday with a golf club. Through courtesy of the Wilson-Western company there will be an ample supply of new crest golf balls to hit, though a golfer may bring his own, if he or she choose. There will be no clubs to loan.

BUILDING UP FOR BATTLE

N. Y. Turns to Delaney and Paulino Bout

New York, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—With Jack Dempsey finally accepting Sept. 22 as the date for his attempt to regain the heavyweight crown from Gene Tunney in Chicago the attention of the boxing fans here turned today to the Jack Delaney-Paulino Uscudun 15 round bout which will be held at the Yankee stadium next Thursday. That will be the biggest attraction of the summer for New York fans who are unable to go to Chicago.

The trend to the Delaney-Paulino fight was reflected by a spurt in the ticket sale at the Garden offices. Tex Rickard is not worried over the gate. "That does not bother me because it is a natural attraction," he said.

Winner to Meet Sharkey.

Betting on the outcome continued at odds of 7 to 5 in favor of Delaney, and the realization became general that the winner probably would be matched to meet Jack Sharkey. The Boston heavyweight has faded from the scene since his defeat by Jack Dempsey but that is always the way with a loser, and it is merely a question of time before he comes into the foreground again.

Rickard has made an offer to Sharkey for a match with the winner of next Thursday's fight and there seems no doubt that the negotiations eventually will be completed. At present Sharkey is on a vacation and there has been no authoritative word of when he will be ready to return to the ring.

There are many who question whether the match can be held during the outdoor season. Rickard has his hands full with promoting the Chicago bout. He and most of his force will depart for the Illinois city a day or so after the Paulino-Delaney fight. There is no doubt that a Sharkey-Paulino or Sharkey-Delaney bout would be a great drawing card in New York, but it is chiefly a matter of whether Rickard can find time to work it in.

Paulino, Sharkey at Odds.

Should Paulino be the winner, the bout between him and Sharkey would be a battle in which a good deal of feeling between the principals would be involved as well as the purse. It might be called a "battle of the languages." Sharkey and Paulino whenever they have met have "kidded" each other a lot. The last time they encountered each other was at a dinner to Tex Rickard. They sat at the same table. Paulino talked volubly, as is his habit, but in French. Sharkey could not understand him.

Finally Paulino "wisecracked" at Sharkey that he ought to learn some languages. Sharkey's retort was that he knew English, Lithuanian, Russian and perhaps a few others, which was more than Paulino knew. He added that, furthermore, he did not care particularly to fight a man who couldn't talk English. This remark was not translated for Paulino until after the dinner and Paulino took it seriously. Ever since Paulino has wanted a chance at Sharkey in the ring or in a room, may the best man come out. So if they meet in the ring it promises to be a good fight.

McGraw Plans to Quit, but Not Until Next Year

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, today spiked renewed reports that he would retire from baseball at the end of the present season by declaring he would not quit until 1928. "I will remain until my contract expires in 1928," he said. "After that I will give up the job and try to take it easy for the remainder of my days."

PIRATES GAIN ON CUBS BY BEATING PHILLIES TWICE

Win First Game, 8 to 5, and Second, 7 to 3.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 4.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates drew half a game closer to the league leading Cubs by taking two games from Philadelphia today, 8 to 5 and 7 to 3. Ray Kremer hurled the Pirates to victory in the second game and hit two singles and a home run. The opener was a hard hitting contest which the Corsairs snatched out of the fire with a four run rally in the seventh inning. Scores:

ESTELLE BETTER; MAY COME HERE

Hollywood, Cal., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Although Estelle Taylor, wife of Jack Dempsey, has been unable to leave her bed for two weeks, her physician, Dr. L. J. Huff, today described the actress' condition as reassuring and improving. Miss Taylor sat up in bed for the first time today. The doctor said that she may be well enough to travel east to Chicago some time prior to Dempsey's bout with Gene Tunney on Sept. 22.

TIMELY WALLOP IN 8TH ERASES BOSTON'S LEAD

Root Turns in 19th Victory.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

When playing in the shoes of Mr. Earl Webb, one must do as Webb would do himself. Being in those shoes yesterday it was necessary for Cliff Heathcote to affect the rôle of a slugger. He did with a triple while two mates were on the bases in the eighth, thereby scoring both and giving the Cubs a 5 to 4 victory over Boston's Braves in the second of the series. It made five in a row for the pacemakers.

The blow also was of considerable importance in the figures that deal with the torrid pennant race and with the season's pitching record of Charley Root. Without the triple the campaign would again have been tied in a knot because of Pittsburgh's twin triumph. As it is now, the Cubs still race at the head of the field with a one lap margin, and the capable Root, even though he was not much of a flinger on this occasion, is the possessor of nineteen victories for his personal ledger.

Smith Replaces Genewich.

Probably because they were irked by being slapped around by 12 to 1 the day previous, the Braves overlooked no opportunities to make headway. And they were so successful that they once had the game seemingly safe with a two run margin. They lost that edge because of the Cubs' persistency but they put on another homecoming of one runner in the eighth and this is the run that would have been damaging if Heathcote had not done as Webb might have done, or at least tried to do.

The Braves started off with Joe Genewich, a fairly skilled workman decorating the hill, but as soon as it became apparent that the lad with the slightly warped legs was shy of deception Manager Bancroft switched to Bob Smith who was being held in reserve for today's fight. Smith, although hit hard, kept the Cubs from producing in the pinches until the eighth when he made the mistake of handing out two passes just before Heathcote let loose the triple.

Pitcher Puts Braves Ahead.

Had Smith been able to hurdle Heathcote's bat he would have had the double satisfaction of winning on a run he had driven in himself. In the front half of the eighth Root started with a pass to Fournier, making the fourth ticket awarded the old Frenchman. Brown sacrificed and Dr. Farrell, the tooth extractor, popped out. Hogan has a habit of hitting 'em at the wrong time, so was walked purposely, whereupon Smith ruined McCarthy's strategy by poking a single to center and scoring Fournier to put the hostiles ahead by 4 to 3. But not for long.

The Cub half opened with the limping Webb batting for Root, but he did not fill the order. Then Adams walked. English already had blown himself to three hits so deserved consideration from the enemy and got it in the form of free transportation. A moment later Heathcote crashed his triple against the right field screen for three bases, Adams and English ran home, and there remained only a distressing ninth in which Percy Jones staggered through successfully after the bases had been loaded on High's double, a pass to Fournier, and Beck's boot of Brown's roller.

Root Gets Bad Start.

The Braves did their greatest damage to Root in the early parts of the engagement. In the second Fournier strolled with one out and galloped around to the plate on a triple to right center by Brown. Farrell's single let Brown tally. Then the Braves increased their lead by one run in the third on hits by Bancroft, High and Fournier. The round probably would have been more disastrous if Heathcote hadn't made a beautiful peg that cut down Bancroft going to third on High's single. Only four blows were notched off Root after this.

McCarthy's athletes started their scoring in round one. Adams tripled and a single by Heathcote shoved him home. Their next tally occurred in the third, the factors being blows by English and Stephenson. Then they tied it in the fourth on clouts by Hartnett, Adams and English, whereupon Genewich went away and left the thing to Smith.

SOX DREAM AS RED SOX STAGE NIGHTMARE, 2-1

Poor Base Running Costs Comiskeys Sour Game.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Boston, Mass., Aug. 4.—The futile White Sox for the second time in two days dubbed about behind a six hit pitching performance, and for the second time in two days got trimmed by the Boston Red Sox, 2 to 1. Ridiculously sloppy base running did the trick today, for the clownish work on the paths not only deprived the White Sox of runs, but it eventually broke down Elmer Jacobs, the temperamental papa.

Metzler and Hunnefield produced the first run of the game, after one was out in the third, when the kid doubled and young Bill singled to drive him in. In the next inning the Sox furnished one of the several answers to the question, "What's the matter with the Sox?"

Falk Misses Second by 20 Feet.

Falk sent a skyscraping fly to short center, which Myer muffed. Bib could have been at least to second while the ball was in the air, but he was doing his Texas jog and barely got to first. Bib ran for second on the next pitch, but Freddie Hofmann nailed him by approximately 20 feet. Barrett followed with a two base hit. Then he started for third on the next pitch. Hofmann wasn't so good this time and he got Bill by only 15 feet. Then Peck doubled and Ward drew his second pass, and there they died when McCurdy grounded out.

While his mates were floundering about Pop kept busily at his task, no one reaching first until a pitched ball grazed Buddy Myer's blouse with one down in the fourth. This upset Jacobs for a minute or so and he walked Flagstead. But all was blotted out on a double play.

Red Sox Offer More Trouble.

Jacobs had thrown out Hofmann and struck out Welzer in the sixth before Rothrock registered the first hit of the game, a bona fide single to right. He got no farther.

Flagstead launched the seventh inning with a Texas leaguer to short left. Regan bunted and Ward, covering first, dropped the throw. Carlyle moved the pair up with a bunt. Shaner grounded to Kamm and Flagstead was run down, Kamm to McCurdy to Kamm. Todt followed with a single, which scored Regan. Todt broke for second and McCurdy threw to Peckinpaugh from a sitting position. Peckinpaugh then returned the ball to McCurdy in time to get Shaner at the plate.

The Red Sox won the ball game in the eighth. Hofmann started it with a single, and Welzer moved him to second with a bunt. Rothrock was thrown out, and Hofmann made it 2 to 1 on Myer's double over first. Flagstead walked and Regan singled to fill the bases. But they all died.

It appeared for a few minutes that the Sox would tie the score in the ninth. Neis, batting for Jacobs, struck out, but Metzler singled and went to third on Kamm's single. Clancy bounced an easy one to Todt, who threw out Metzler at home, and Falk ended by tapping gently to Regan.

Giants Wallop Redlegs 4 to 1; M'Graw Back

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 4.—(AP)—The New York Giants celebrated the return of John McGraw from a scouting expedition by whipping the Reds today, 4 to 1. Larry Benton allowed the Reds only six safeties. Pete Donohue made his first start in a month for Cincinnati, but gave way to a pinch hitter in the seventh. New York has won six of eight games on the present road trip through the west. Score:

KANSAS CITY PLAYER LEADS ROQUE MEET

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—H. E. Lyman of Kansas City was the only undefeated player in the first division of the national roque tournament at Winona Lake at the close of the fifth day of play. He has won the only two games he has played.

W. H. Hoagland of Peoria, Ill., has maintained a high average for five games, although he lost two by narrow margins. He was 15 points short of a perfect score. W. W. Wilson of Chicago, 1924 national champion, who started play today, won his first game but lost his second, 32 to 18, to Hoagland. W. A. Rounds of Cleveland, former president of the league, started play in the first division today.

CALLOW NAMED CREW COACH AT PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Official announcement was made today that Russell S. Callow of the University of Washington, will be head rowing coach at the University of Pennsylvania beginning Sept. 1. It also was announced that Fred Spuhn, head coach for the last two years at Pennsylvania, will be Callow's assistant.

Mr. Callow comes to Pennsylvania under a five year contract at a salary said to be the highest paid to any rowing coach in the country. He is now in Havana coaching Cuban oarsmen and will return to his home in the northwest before moving here.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

POT-POURRI.

THAT the Cubs would "crack" under pennant race strain has been the favorite prediction of eastern commentators, who would not concede McCarthy's north siders a peek at the gonfalon, but now are forced to recognize their chances.

Well, the Cubs did crack, and so did Pittsburgh, but the Cubs, as on a similar occasion earlier in the season, did not stay cracked, while the Pirates, credited with greater stamina, still are staggering.

The Cubs are maintaining their standing with light team hitting—that is, seventh among the eight clubs. But their blows have been timely and the fielding "blows" have been few.

The Wake does not know whether or not the Cubs will win the pennant. It looks like a ding-dong finish with Pittsburgh and St. Louis, but the question of "cracking" may be eliminated from present consideration.

In less than six weeks, unless Tunney and Dempsey usurp all the publicity, football will be prominent on the sporting page, with advance signs pointing to the greatest season yet. We are reminded of this fact by receipt of an advance copy of Spalding's Football Guide and by a Helper who asks where to secure tickets for the Notre Dame-Southern California game at Soldiers' field Nov. 26.

Golf Editor Harland Rohm has invited us to enter THE TRIBUNE golf driving contest at Soldiers' field next Sunday. We suspect he was not entirely serious. At any rate, we declined. As an employé of this paper we do not feel it would be fair to the other participants.

DIEGEL LEADS CANADIAN OPEN BY TWO STROKES

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Leo Diegel of Mount Vernon, N. Y., led a field of 155 competitors over the first 18 holes for the Canadian open golf championship here today. His two 34's represent a card that is five strokes under par for the stiff Toronto Golf club course. The 68 was two strokes better than George Christ of Rochester, N. Y., who finished the day in second place.

In a tie for third place was Tommy Armour, the United States open champion and Al Watrous of Grand Rapids, Mich., who gained 72's. Jock Hutchison of Chicago shot a 75.

The championship is to be decided over 72 holes. There will be 18 holes tomorrow and the final 36 Saturday.

Quicker and smoother power in the Falcon-Knight Six

A flash of pickup and quiet, smooth power through every range of speed, characterizes the performance of the famous Falcon-Knight six-cylinder sleeve-valve engine.

This quicker and smoother power of the Falcon-Knight Six surpasses ordinary six-cylinder performance, just as the average six surpasses the four.

The Knight sleeve-valve principle eliminates noisy, complicated valve mechanism, and substitutes two sleeves which move quietly on a film of oil without wear or mechanical attention—no valves to grind—no carbon to clean.

See the Falcon-Knight Six and drive it today.

CARROLL HOLDS YANKS TO 5 HITS; TIGERS WIN, 6-2

Heilmann Leads Detroit with Four Blows.

New York, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Detroit made it two out of three with the Yankees by a victory today, 6 to 2. Owen Carroll, former Holy Cross star, held New York to five hits. Ruether, meeting his third defeat of the season, was hit freely and knocked out in the ninth. Heilmann led the Bengal attack with a triple, a double, two singles, and a base on balls. Score:

KNEPPER WINS WESTMORELAND TAM O'SHANTER

Seven Strokes Ahead of Nearest Rival.

This twelfth edition of the Tam O'Shanter invitation tournament, which the Westmoreland Country club sponsors annually, was all Rudy Knepper. When the last of 187 cards was turned in last night, the Onwentsia player had a lead on the rest of the field that rivaled that of Bobby Jones' at St. Andrews.

Knepper's driver wasn't behaving properly yesterday and he took a 38 on the outward trip, but good iron work on the homeward journey gave him a 35, one under par for a 73, which added to his par round of 71 of Wednesday made him low gross with 144.

Albert Seckel of Riverside, who was the nearest to Knepper at the end of the first day's play, went backward instead of forward and scored 77 to give him a 151 total. He kept the runner-up honors, finishing a single stroke ahead of Arthur C. Perry. The latter out for a third victory that would mean permanent possession of the trophy, shot a 75—77—152. A. L. Miller of Glen Flora, last year's winner, was fourth with a 79—74—153.

Seckel, who was a western amateur champion back in 1909, was a double winner in the net division, however. His 74—3—71 on the first eighteen holes won a prize. Knepper, playing from scratch, was mathematically first, but already had won an individual prize. Seckel was also a member of the low net foursome. Prize winners:

Tilden Crushes Lott at Seabright Nets, Hunter Wins

Sea Bright, N. J., Aug. 4.—[U.P.]—Big Bill Tilden will oppose Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., here tomorrow afternoon for the Sea Bright singles tennis championship.

Today Tilden was a veritable ball hawk in his victory over George Lott Jr., Chicago, 6-2, 6-4. There have been occasions when Lott withstood five hard sets with the former champion. Today he was impotent as forehands and backhands clattered from Tilden's racket. Tilden played serious tennis and seldom allowed Lott to get in scoring position. During the last few games Bill was invincible and shot across three service aces to complete the victory.

Hunter's victory over Fritz Mercur, Bethlehem, Pa., presented stirring tennis over a one and one-half hour period. Every point called for long rallies and soon it became only a question of stamina. The husky Hunter carried the day, 7-5, 3-6, 6-2.

In the women's singles Mrs. Molla Mallory, national champion, easily defeated Mrs. Charlotte Hosmer Chapin of Hyannis, Mass., 6-3, 6-0, while Miss Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal. had little trouble eliminating Miss Eleanor Goss, 6-2, 6-2.

SELIGSON IN SEMI-FINAL.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Julius Seligson of New York and Dolph Muelheisen of San Diego, Cal., both seeded stars in the junior division of the national tennis championships, won their way into the semifinal round today.

Seligson, ranking No. 1 among the juniors, eliminated C. Alphonse Smith of Charlotteville, Va., another seeded star, 6-0, 6-3, and Muelheisen landed in the select four after a terrific three set battle with Sidney B. Wood Jr. of Forest Hills, 4-6, 8-6, 6-3.

Bobby Seller, San Francisco, and Frank Shields, New York, also gained the semi-finals. Seller defeated Bryant Grant, Atlanta, 6-4, 11-9. Shields won over Eddie Jacobs, Baltimore, 3-6, 9-7, 6-2.

MILLS DEFEAT GIANTS, 4 TO 0

The Mills nine defeated the Chicago Giants, 4 to 0, yesterday in a twilight tilt at Mills stadium. Gray and Foreman held the visitors to one hit.

Juran Victor in Southpaw Golf Tourney

R. S. Juran of the Golden Valley Country club Minneapolis yesterday won the national southpaw championship at Midlothian. Juran's score of 71—69—140 was two under par for 36 holes. His afternoon score established a new course record.

Midlothian recently revamped a couple of holes, which increased hazards and yardage a trifle and Juran was the first player to beat the 68 record held by Walter Hagen and Chick Evans.

R. L. Wanger of Veron Ridge and Dr. R. C. Wilson of Olympia Fields, champion in 1926, tied for second at 157. They matched cards and Wanger won 1 up.

Juran had nine birdies and except for trap and bunker trouble at the first and third holes respectively and three putts at the thirteenth in the forenoon, he played par golf the rest of the way.

CHICAGOANS LOSE IN TWO REGATTA RACES

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 4.—Experience tells in rowing when all other factors are equal yet Lee McClenahan of the Wyandotte Boat club, rowing in a National regatta today for the first time was unaffected by his novitiate and won both the junior 145 pounds singles and junior singles with half an hour's rest in between races staged by the Wyandotte Boat club.

The first event, Junior 145 pound singles went to McClenahan in 7:43 1-5. McClenahan repeated in the junior singles.

In the Junior double sculls Detroit won by half a length in a spirited race with Lincoln Park Boat Club of Chicago in 7:08 2-5. James Lynn and Francis Brady occupied the Detroit shell. Near the finish E. Boess and W. Dietrich, the Chicago pair, almost caught Detroit but Brady and Lynn had enough in reserve to flout the challenge.

Edward W. Freeman of the Nassau Boat club, New York, was an easy victor in the intermediate single sculls. He led a field of six in 7:04 3-5. H. Carlson and W. Smith of the Lincoln Parks of Chicago had a battle for second with Carlson winning by a foot.

Dear Public:

You're the toughest jury in the world, —and we're mighty glad you are!

You're hard to win . . . . you don't give your favor lightly.

But once you are convinced . . . . and square treatment continues . . . you stick.

In five months you've jumped Inland sales 1200%.

We said that Inland tires and tubes were priced $4 to $20 lower than any other tires as good.

You came . . . . and you found that true.

We guaranteed them for 12,000 and 15,000 miles . . . or more service without an argument.

And you found them well backed up on that.

We said your mileage on Inlands would frequently pass 20,000 miles.

You found that true.

Inland is grateful—and too respectful of your patronage to toy for one minute with the principles which have won it.

The Inland Direct Selling Plan Saves 25% to 35%

This Inland plan is just common sense proving itself again. Inland has swept away all distributing costs by selling Inland tires and tubes direct to you through Inland factory owned sales depots spotted all over Chicago.

No distributor, jobber and dealer stands between you and the factory. The $4 to $10 they would get as their profit goes into your pocket. And that is a saving of from 25% to 35% per tire. And that's an inducement to every man no matter how much money he has!

The Green and White Inland Depots Make Buying Easy and Insure Quick Service

The Inland sales depots are painted in a bold green and white for your protection and ours. You can recognize them a block away . . . so keep on going till you get there. Because Inland tires are sold only in Inland sales depots . . . or at the Inland factory. You can buy them nowhere else! One of the depots listed below is surely on your line of travel and when you need service one of the Inland Depots will always be near no matter where you are in the Chicago District. That's another advantage you can score for Inlands.

WISDOM TAKES CRETE FEATURE BY FIVE LENGTHS

Aged Jockey Howard Rides Colt to Victory.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Wisdom, a fast running son of High Time, cantered to victory in the Peoria handicap for 2 year olds at Lincoln Fields yesterday, beating the long shot, Myth, by five lengths and rewarding his followers at $9.22 for each $2 ticket.

It was probably the best thing of the summer season at Lincoln Fields, for the colt which races in Robert S. Clark's New York silks had been a quiet tip in the so-called wise circles. He never left the result in doubt after Starter Hamilton pushed the button and sent the unwieldy field away. Myth broke in front, but before she could untangle her legs Jockey Jack Howard, as old as most race tracks in America, shoved Wisdom to the front.

Wisdom Wins in Romp.

Rounding the turn for home he increased his lead to five lengths, and all he had to do after straightening out for the run down the stretch was let Wisdom have his head. A couple of times it looked like Jockey Howard would slip out of the saddle and fall, but, despite his age, his wig, and his false teeth, Howard clung to his seat in the saddle, and Wisdom was only galloping as the verdict was returned. Myth, after dropping back early in the race, came again and saved second money, while Canberra, Senator Camden's representative, wound up in third place. Kentucky Babe, Congress, and Dixie Prince had been backed heavily, they did not figure in the outcome. Dixie Prince, a winner here only a few days ago, was shuffled back soon after the start and finished a disgracefully beaten ninth, although in the betting he had been made the favorite.

It was a cheap card which was run off on this program, but despite the lack of a real attraction one of the banner week day crowds of the season turned out to see it decided.

Lady Braxted Is Victor.

The secondary feature, a claiming affair at a mile and a sixteenth for older horses, found Lady Braxted a sensational winner. She was last by more than a dozen lengths rounding the last turn, but Jockey L. Jenner gave her a rousing ride from there on home and got up in time to win by a length and a half from H. Guy Bedwell's Forestar, with the favorite Margaret Gaut a neck back in third place.

J. W. Lewis, who owns Lady Braxted, tried to put over a double when his Sandrae started in the last race. There was a long delay at the post, and when the start finally came Sandrae was away poorly and Jockey L. Jenner had to ride him hard to get up into a contending position on the back stretch. That took most of the run out of him, and Bonaparte, ridden by Jockey R. Finnerty, a weak hearted combination in previous races here, got the verdict, after running in front most of the way.

Bonaparte paid his backers $11.84 for each $2 ticket, but could not have withstood the challenge of Duckweed much longer. Sandrae saved third money, and might have been much more prominent but for his bad start.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—This was a day of turf upsets and the dethroning of equine kings and queens at Saratoga. Most surprising, perhaps, was the defeat of Chance Shot, J. E. Widener's Fair Play colt, ranked as the best of the three year olds, by W. R. Coe's Herodian in a mile dash.

Another blow was the defeat of the queen of the west, the unbeaten 2 year old filly Anita Peabody, which carried Mrs. John D. Hertz's colors to third money in the tenth running of the Schuylerville stakes, the first of the important filly stakes of the spa season.

Chance Shot was a 1 to 12 favorite in a three horse field and was a soundly beaten colt at the furlong pole, Herodian winning by a length with a thirteen pound weight concession. The son of The Finn ran in 1:40 under 115 pounds. Coltiletti rode the winner, a 10 to 1 shot.

Anita Peabody, the 6 to 5 choice in a field of thirteen, was always a contender, although she never was able to get to the front after breaking from an outside position. The winner was Mrs. Louise Viau's Pennant Queen, a bay daughter of Pennant and Misty Queen, which was ridden by Johnny Maiben.

Voigt Ruled Eligible for Amateur Golf

New York, Aug. 4.—(AP)—George J. Voigt, sensational Washington golfer, today was declared eligible for competition in the national amateur championship and absolved of any charges of violation of the rules of the United States Golf association.

In the name of the executive committee, Secretary H. H. Ramsay announced that the entry of the winner of the north and south and Mason and Dixon amateur titles had been accepted for the amateur championship.

The committee's action was in connection with the acceptance of entries for the amateur championship, beginning Aug. 22 at the Minikahda club, Minneapolis. After he was declared ineligible by the District of Columbia Golf association to participate in the district amateur championship, his status was investigated by Secretary Ramsay, who reported to the executive committee.

Accusations made by the district golf association were not made public, but it was understood that the golfer was charged with having profited indirectly from his skill at the game through employment by Edward B. McLean, Washington publisher. Voight said that he was employed by Mr. McLean as an assistant secretary and not as a golfer. He was formerly an employé of the treasury department.

"The committee has examined the circumstances in Mr. Voight's case," said a statement by Secretary Ramsay which defined the term "amateur," "and as a result of its investigation finds that, tested by the rules above mentioned, there has been no violation by Mr. Voight.

An amateur, it was explained, is one who has not carried clubs for hire after attaining the age of 16 years, has not received any consideration, directly or indirectly for playing or teaching the game, nor, because of his skill as a golfer, received any remuneration since Dec. 31, 1922, from any firm dealing in goods relating to the playing of the game, or played for a money prize in any competition.

ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

"I'm glad I followed the advice of Mary Garden"

Margery Bailey is telling her companion, Ed Wagner, as he offers her a Lucky Strike between tennis matches at Forest Hills.

© Fernand de Gueldre, Chicago, Ill.

Marvelous Mary Garden writes:

"My teachers, Trabello and Richard Bartelemey, all impressed upon me the solemn warning that I must always treat my throat as a delicate instrument. Yet every artist is under constant strain. Sometimes we get real relaxation in smoking a cigarette. I prefer Lucky Strikes—which both protects the throat and gives real enjoyment."

Mary Garden

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"After having a sign in our window advertising our house for sale for two weeks, and not having success, we decided to put an ad in The Sunday Tribune. Sunday morning, about 10:00 o'clock, we received our first caller, and from that time to late in the afternoon we had twenty callers. We sold the house the same day."—Gustaf A. Schmidt, 6723 South Oakley Avenue.

House Sold at Once Through Tribune Want Ad—

After Window Sign Fails!

Gustaf Schmidt hung a "For Sale" sign in the window of the house he wanted to sell. Two weeks passed and with them the customary ebb and flow of people on Oakley Avenue. That's all that happened. The sign might just as well have been on the floor as far as results were concerned.

Then came a wise decision—a want ad in the Sunday Tribune. And the house was sold the same day the ad appeared!

The "selling" windows of a house face only on the street on which it stands. The "windows" of The Tribune Want Ad Section face on every street in Chicago and its suburbs, as well as those of numerous other cities and towns outside Chicago!

No matter what you have to sell—a house, a set of books, a washing machine, an auto—a Tribune want ad is the surest and quickest way to sell it! Try it today! Phone

COTTON, IN SHARP BULGE, RECOVERS $2.50 A BALE

Cotton had an upturn of $2.50 per bale yesterday and finished with the greater part of it held. Liquidation and a decline of $4.50 per bale on Wednesday cleared out the weak holders and placed the market in a position to respond to good new buying which came at the start. Liverpool, which was expected to show a sharp break, reflecting that in American markets on Wednesday, showed greater stability, opening 18 to 21 points higher than due, and finally closed 1 point down to 1 point higher for the day, with sales of 6,000 bales.

At the finish futures in Chicago were 42 to 53 points higher, and in other markets gains were 46 to 54 points. Spots gained 45 points, with New York, 17.45c; New Orleans, 16.85c; Houston, 17.25c, and Galveston, 17.35c.

Rains were reported in Oklahoma, and in sections east of the river, while favorable weather was reported in parts of the western territory.

Two private reports were issued making the crop 13,983,000 and 14,525,000 bales, with condition 70.7 and 73.4. So far estimates that have been made range from 13,500,000 to more than 15,000,000 bales. Prices in leading markets follow:

Top hogs fell to $10.80 in the absence of shipping support yesterday, the lowest in 12 days, against $11.10 Monday. Light and light butchers were pounded down 10@20c in midsession, with others finishing firm after a steady to 10c lower opening. The wide price spread placed butcher grades on a catch as catch can basis.

An advance estimate of only 14,000 hogs for today, the smallest Friday since middle of last April, encouraged traders to hold some stock off of the late trade. Yesterday's receipts fell short of 28,000, second smallest Thursday since middle of May. General average price was forced down another 5c at $9.10. About 12,000 hogs were estimated left in the pens.

Outside demand swung to light cattle and long yearlings outsold weighty beeves. Choice 1,127 lb averages topped the list at $14.25, with best heavy at $14.00, also paid for 1,041 lb yearlings. Some 1,290 lb cattle sold as low as $11.35 and 1,190 pounders at $11.00. Better grades of light steers held firm at the highest prices of the year, with weighty stock weak to slightly lower. Butcher stock cleared at midweek quotations, about 125 baby beef heifers averaging 745@785 lbs, reaching $12.75. Calves sold strong, selected vealers up to $15.00. Stockers and feeders showed little change.

Lambs Recover Loss.

Killing lambs scored recoveries of 15@25c, carrying best rangers up to the $14.00 line again yesterday. Natives reached $13.75, with bulk at $13.25@13.50. Sheep receipts first four days of this week at seven markets at 152,000 compare with 180,000 a year ago. The year to date movement at seven points is over a third of a million behind the same period in 1926.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs and 10,000 sheep, against 2,130 cattle, 19,361 hogs and 11,221 sheep the previous Friday and 1,661 cattle, 12,133 hogs and 6,944 sheep a year ago.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Sale of the White Star line by the International Mercantile Marine company necessitates a reduction of about $45,000,000 in the good will item on the balance sheet, P. A. S. Franklin, president of the company, informs the stockholders in a letter formally announcing the plan for a capital readjustment. The terms of that plan were revealed some time ago. The good will item has been $80,000,000. On the readjustment balance sheet it will be only $35,000,000.

Employés of the U. S. Steel corporation and its subsidiaries to the number of 62,145 subscribed for 132,846 shares of the common stock of the corporation at $122 a share under the 1927 employé stock purchase plan. This shows an outstanding increase both in the number of employés applying for steel stock and in the number of shares applied for.

Directors of Manhattan Shirt company declared a quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share on common, placing the stock on a $2 annual basis, against $1.50 paid previously. The Imperial Oil of Canada declared an extra dividend of 12½ cents. The New England Manufacturing company declared an extra dividend of $1 a share. An extra of the same amount was declared three months ago.

Wall street hears the Canadian Pacific railroad is planning an issue of ordinary stock this fall ranging in amount from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 as market conditions warrant, probably to finance the building of new mileage.

PRODUCE MARKETS

A weak undertone prevailed in butter markets with the price of standards here lowered ½c to a new low for the season so far. Demand showed improvement on the decline. Cheese firm.

Live hens advanced ½c, and springs 1c. Receipts, 5 cars and 1,190 coops.

There was a fair trade in potatoes with market steady to a shade higher. Receipts, 63 car with 113 cars on team track.

Fresh eggs sold at former prices. Receipts, 7,283 cases.

PLAN $540,000 APARTMENTS ON LAKESIDE PLACE

BY AL CHASE.

Wreckers are now demolishing the old flats at 817 Lakeside place to make way for a $540,000 eight story furnished apartment building to be erected from plans by Architect Maurice L. Bein. The new structure will contain eighty suites of one, two, and three rooms each. It'll be owned by the Lakeside Plaza Building corporation. Straus Bros. have underwritten a $325,000 loan on the project.

A reported $85,000 has been paid by Alma V. Anderson to Clara Hempe for the sixteen apartment building at the northeast corner of Addison and Janssen, according to Arthur Kruggel & Co., brokers in the deal and managers of the Anderson property.

Western Union to Build.

The Western Union Telegraph company has purchased from William Reach the vacant property on the east side of Western avenue, 250 feet south of 59th street, fronting 277 feet on Western and extending back 879 feet to the B. & O. Chicago Terminal railway.

On this site a two story warehouse containing from 100,000 to 125,000 square feet of floor area is to be erected. This will be the distributing point for supplies in the southern and western territory. Baird & Warner were brokers. West & Eckhart and D'Ancona & Pflaum were attorneys.

To Start on Roseland Building.

Immediate construction of the Palmer block on the west side of Michigan avenue from 110th street to 110th place was announced last night by S. W. Straus & Co., who are underwriting a first mortgage bond issue of $350,000 on the project. The building is to consist of two units, one being two stories and basement in height and the other four stories with no basement.

It will contain six stores, six shops, eighteen offices, one loft, as well as 48 one, two, and three room apartments. The borrowing corporation is the 110th-Michigan Building corporation of which Fred and Alex L. Bernstein are the principal stockholders. Joseph G. Ludgin is the architect.

THE FOREMAN TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK, CHICAGO, TRUSTEE

Building: 65 E. South Water Street Building, erection of which will be started immediately, will be located on the southwest corner of East South Water Street and Garland Court, between Michigan Boulevard and Wabash Avenue. This location is in the exact center of the city's greatest present building development and is midway between the universally known "Loop" area and the Michigan Avenue Bridge, which has been the center of Chicago's most progressive development in the past ten years.

The building upon completion will be a 24-story office and loft building with basement and will contain more than 212,000 square feet of net rentable area available for high grade commercial purposes. It will be exposed to light permanently on three sides. The entire building will be of up-to-date design, of modern fire-proof construction and plastered throughout. The general contract for the erection of the building has been let and provides for completion by May 1, 1928.

Special Need and Purpose: 65 E. South Water Street Building will be erected to meet the urgent need for office and loft space of the wholesale millinery and allied trades of Chicago. A large number of the important firms engaged in these trades are now occupying spaces which must be vacated by them by May 1, 1928, because the building now occupied by them has been sold and will be used for other purposes. During the past thirty days a part of these firms, approximately thirty-five in number, representing the leaders in the wholesale millinery and allied trades of Chicago have signed leases for a total of approximately 107,000 square feet of space in the 65 E. South Water Street Building.

Leases: The leases which have already been signed run in the main for 10-year periods and aggregate approximately 107,000 square feet of net rentable area, or more than 50% of the total net rentable area in the building. The leases have been deposited with The Foreman Trust & Savings Bank as escrowee and accompanying each lease is also deposited with the escrowee cash or its equivalent equal to three months' rent. This cash or its equivalent, is deposited as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the lessees and as additional security for this loan. All of the leases call for occupancy on May 1, 1928, or immediately thereafter upon completion of the building.

Sinking Fund: The Trust Indenture will provide for a sinking fund, starting in 1930, which will retire more than 55% of the issue before maturity.

Security: These First Mortgage Leasehold 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds will be the direct obligations of Garland Court Building Corporation and will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on the leasehold estate and the building to be erected thereon. The leasehold estate and building have been appraised by Wm. H. Babcock & Sons, real estate valuators and accountants, of Chicago, as having a value of $2,861,000, as follows:

Building	$1,986,000
Leasehold	875,000
Total	$2,861,000

The amount of this loan is, therefore, less than 60% of the appraised value.

Earnings: Wm. H. Babcock & Sons estimate that allowing for an 8% vacancy the gross annual income of the building will be $380,246.00 and also estimate, on this same basis, that net earnings available for interest after deducting ground rent, all operating expenses, maintenance, insurance and taxes, will be $230,852 per annum. This amount available for interest is more than 2.08 times the maximum annual interest charges on this issue of bonds, and over 2.60 times the average annual interest charges over the life of the loan.

Capitalization: The capitalization of Garland Court Building Corporation upon completion of the building will be as follows:

	Authorized	Issued
First Mortgage Leasehold 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds (this issue)	$1,700,000	$1,700,000
7% General Mortgage Gold Bonds	130,000	130,000
7% Cumulative Preferred Stock	1,000,000	450,000*
Common Stock (no par value)	20,000 shs.	20,000 shs.

*Approximate.

The purchase of these First Mortgage Leasehold 6½% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds completes the financing of the building, the General Mortgage Bonds, Preferred Stock and Common Stock having previously been sold.

Safeguards: Completion of the building will be guaranteed by a surety bond issued by Fidelity & Deposit Company of Maryland. Both an owner's leasehold policy and a mortgage policy for the full amount of the funded indebtedness will be issued by The Chicago Title and Trust Company, payable to the Trustee. Adequate fire, liability and other insurance will be provided, inuring to the benefit of the Trustee and the bondholders.

These Bonds have been Listed on the Chicago Stock Exchange

These bonds are offered if, as and when issued and received by us and subject to approval of our counsel. All legal details incident to the issuance of these bonds will be passed upon by Messrs. Winston, Strawn & Shaw of Chicago, attorneys for the Bankers, and Messrs. Schoenbrod & Rosengard, Chicago, for the Company. Appraisals by Wm. H. Babcock & Sons, real estate valuators and accountants, Chicago.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—All nervousness appeared to have been eliminated as Wall street recovered its stock market poise today. Plainly the announcement by President Coolidge that he would not be a candidate in 1928 for the renomination failed to register because the financial district showed no uneasiness today as far as the political situation is concerned.

It was again a story of easy money that caused a spectacular bidding up of individual issues. The call rate dropped to 3¾ per cent compared with an unvarying charge of 4 per cent throughout the day before. This factor gave fresh upward stimulus to seasoned dividend stock whose yield is attractive in relation to conditions in the open money market.

Even Oils Advance.

The one group of stocks on the exchange lease entitled to rise on the strength of the industry's performance is the oils, yet today there was a spectacular bidding up of a respectable number of oil stocks because of technical strength growing out of the inherent weakness of the oil market itself. There has been more short selling of oil stocks than of any other assortment of securities on the exchange. The selling has gone on for so long that the oil department has become technically strong. Today, in consequence, Marland, Phillips, Houston, Atlantic Refining, Pan American Petroleum, Standard Oil of California and General Asphalt were up from slightly less than two points to more than five in one of the sharpest advances that oil stocks have had in some months.

Some Other Gains.

American Linseed was up 4½ points on the day; American Locomotive was up 2, Beth'ehem Steel, 3⅛; American Sugar, 2⅝; Atlantic Refining, 7¼; Du Pont, 2; General Motors, 2⅛; General Railway Signal, 5¾; International Combustion, 3½; Kresge, 2⅞; Marland Oil, 2½; Nash Motors, 2⅝; Phillips Petroleum, 3; Radio Corporation, 2⅛, and Woolworth, 5⅛.

The changes on the other side were unimportant. Loose-Wiles Biscuit broke 2⅞ points; otherwise the declines were mainly fractional.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Prices of stocks on the curb market today made further recovery from yesterday's break. Strength of the oil shares was the outstanding feature. Standard of Indiana and Humble Oil were the favorites in the petroleum group, the latter advancing more than 3 points to 62½, a new top. Prairie Oil, Standard of Kentucky, Vacuum and Ohio oil also shared in the movement into higher ground.

Public utilities recorded some substantial advances. United Gas Improvement and Mohawk Hudson Power were particularly buoyant, soaring 3¼ and 4½ points respectively to new highs for the year. Associated Gas and Electric also displayed outstanding strength.

The movement into new high territory was continued by several recent favorites among the specialties, including Cuneo Press, Neisner Brothers, Borden common and preferred, Westinghouse Air Brake [when issued], and Bunker Hill Sulphur. The last named, however, met heavy profit taking at the top and declined to 101½, a loss of 2¼ points on the day.

Ford Motor of Canada duplicated its previous high and gains of 2 to more than 5 points were registered by Grand Stores, Phelps-Dodge, Safeway Stores, and New Jersey Zinc. Celluloid preferred was one of the few weak spots, declining about 5½ points on realizing.

The bond market gave an exhibition of strength such as has not been seen since last spring. The buying movement embraced bonds of all classes, but high grade railway mortgages encountered the greater demand.

Numerous new peaks were recorded in the railway division, with advances ranging up to a point or more. Chesapeake Corporation 5s sold as high as 95⅝, while Union Pacific 4½s, Burlington 4½s, and several of the low priced St. Paul issues also attained their best figures of the year. Convertible liens were again active, particularly the Erie D 4s, which crossed 130 to a new record high. Brooklyn Union Gas 5½s climbed 3 points to 221. Third Avenue adjustment 5s encountered realizing around 65⅞ and lost ground.

United States government issues were firm, with chief interest centering in Liberty fourth 4¼s and treasury 3⅜s. Italian and Japanese bonds were accumulated rather freely and Budapest 6s were particularly active on an ascending scale.

Watch The Tribune's Want Ads for Real Estate Values!

Every year Chicago's population increases by 60,000—approximately 15,000 families! This means that year after year a population bigger than that of Springfield is added to Chicago! It also means that 15,000 new homes have to be found in Chicago every year! This factor alone steadily increases Chicago real estate values.

If you are ambitious to own Chicago property now is the time to act! All sections of the city offer splendid opportunities for profitable investment.

You can find hundreds of remarkable real estate values listed day after day in the columns of The Chicago Tribune's Want Ad Section. They are conveniently listed according to districts. You can do your real estate "shopping" in the want ad columns of The Tribune with less trouble and better results.

If you want to buy a house, flat building, bungalow, or a good piece of "vacant," the natural place to look for it is where most of them are listed—in the real estate columns of the

WALL ST. SEEN AS BENEFICIARY OF CUT IN BANK RATE

BY O. A. MATHER.

The New York Federal Reserve bank, the most powerful financial institution in this country, late yesterday reduced its rediscount rate from 4 to 3½ per cent. The Boston reserve bank made a similar reduction. Last week the Kansas City bank reduced its rate to 3½ per cent and the St. Louis bank made a similar cut on Wednesday.

These reductions, which are likely to be followed by at least some of the other reserve institutions, come at a time when investment and speculation in securities have driven the stock market to the highest levels in its history. They come at a time when money rates are relatively easy and the demand for credit for commercial purposes is not large. They come at a time when the central banks of European countries are seeking to attract gold.

Call Wall Street Beneficiary.

With all these factors, coupled with disagreement among financiers as to the wisdom of making credit still easier, the present action of the reserve banks is likely to attract only less attention than the general advance in rediscount rates which preceded the deflation period in 1921. Then it was charged by political agitators that the chief result was to "deflate" agriculture. Now it may be charged that Wall street is the chief beneficiary through inflation of security prices.

In addition, there already has been considerable gossip that a reduction was urged at a recent conference of heads of the Bank of England, the Bank of France, members of the federal reserve board and the governor of the New York reserve bank in this country. Their plea is said to have been that a lowering of rates in this country would attract funds to the English and French institutions, whose rates are higher.

Easier Credits Questioned.

The explanation of the Kansas City and St. Louis banks for their action was that lower rates would cause easier credit to farmers for their crop moving financing. But this was met by some accusation that these reductions will have little such effect and were merely engineered to give the New York bank an excuse to follow a prearranged plan without itself instituting the move.

On the other hand, the action of the New York bank is defended on the ground that maintenance of its 4 per cent rate, with other reserve banks making reductions, would attract more money to New York, unbalance the country's credit resources and foster stock market inflation. It is pointed out that money rates are easy in spite of the fact that brokers' loans now stand at the record breaking total of $3,171,845,000, having increased $30,652,000 in the last week.

First Change Since August.

At all events, the present change is the first since last August, when the New York bank raised its rediscount rate from 3½ to 4 per cent, having instituted the lower rate in April. The weekly report of the New York bank, issued last night, shows considerable credit expansion. Loans and open market bills increased $31,163,000 and $28,895,000 respectively. Deposits are up $34,733,000. Reserves declined $38,576,000 and the ratio of reserves to liabilities fell to 82.7 from 88 per cent last week.

Credit expansion occurred chiefly in New York. For the whole reserve system, loans and bills expanded $47,243,000 and $8,497,000 respectively. Deposits increased $63,631,000. Reserves declined $18,535,000 and the reserve ratio fell to 77.8 from 79.7 per cent last week. At Chicago, loans expanded $5,966,000, but bills declined $5,642,000. Deposits expanded $6,502,000. Reserves declined $3,851,000 and the reserve ratio fell to 78.2 from 79.1 per cent.

450,000 BARREL LIMIT ON SEMINOLE OUTPUT TAKES EFFECT TODAY

Oklahoma City, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Floodgates of the greater Seminole oil area will be partly closed tomorrow in the first concerted effort of operators to stem the prodigious flow that has overrun the markets and caused a price depression felt nationally in the oil industry.

The curtailment is to continue for sixty days. By prorating production of the various companies it is intended to hold the total daily output of the field down to 450,000 barrels, some 50,000 to 75,000 barrels less than the present daily yield. The corporation commission, which had issued a temporary restraining order calculated to decrease production of the field, today tentatively approved the operators' agreement.

Merger Is Announced of Milk Companies

The National Milk company and the Forest Glen Creamery company have been merged, with the former management of both concerns retained in the new company, according to an announcement made yesterday. The combined concern will be known as the Forest Glen National Milk company, with Frank Bobrytzke as president. Both the predecessor concerns have been operating in Chicago for over twenty years, and serve more than 25,000 families with an annual business of over $2,300,000 and a daily capacity of 20,000 gallons of milk.

Lists $566,360 Debts, $370 Assets in Bankrupt Plea

Herman J. New York Central Railroad.

N. R. G.—New York Central railroad reported net income of $55,664,041 for 1926, as compared with $48,627,223 for 1925.

This is equal to $14.52 a share on the capital stock in 1926, against $12.69 a share in 1925.

Surplus for the year was $28,691,047 in 1926, compared with $21,768,272 in 1925.

Profit and loss surplus stood at $185,439,566 at the end of 1926, against $157,776,948 at the close of 1925.

This left net working capital of $29,923,926, which compares with $46,252,089 at the end of 1925.

The dividend was increased from a $7 to an $8 annual basis by the quarterly payment of $2 a share on Aug. 1, 1927.

The company is issuing $38,325,000 additional stock to finance improvements.

Stockholders of record Aug. 10, 1927, will have the right to subscribe to the new stock at par ($100) to the extent of 10 per cent of their holdings.

This privilege expires Nov. 1, 1927.

The 1926 earnings would represent $13.20 a share on the increased amount of stock.

The new stock is not to be issued until Nov. 1 and, therefore, will not carry the November dividend.

This is a high grade stock.

Bassick (Preferred Stock Called).

T. R. L., Moline, Ill.—All of the preferred stock of the Bassick company has been called for redemption on Sept. 1, 1927, at $110 a share and accrued dividend at Central Trust Company of Illinois, Chicago.

The company is a subsidiary of Bassick-Alemite corporation, which in turn is a subsidiary of Stewart-Warner Speedometer corporation.

FAIR STORE RISE FEATURES TRADE IN CHICAGO MART

Chicago stocks were moderately active yesterday but price movements were irregular. Strong buying of Fair Store was the feature, the price rising to 34½ and closing at 34 for a net gain of more than a point. Officials said earnings for the first half of this year compared favorably with last year. The motor group was active, with Marvel Carburetor and Stewart-Warner making fractional gains and Bendix declining nearly a point. Q. R. S. Music was up a point.

The Bendix corporation reported net earnings of $550,835 for the first half of this year, which compares with $413,080 for all of 1926. President F. S. Cunningham of Butler Brothers announced a distributing house will be opened early next year in San Francisco to serve the western coast states. This will make the sixth unit in the company's wholesale distributing chain.

REPORTS OF RUST CHIEF FACTOR IN GAINS IN WHEAT

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Continuation of black rust reports from the spring wheat territory both sides of the international line with a lessening of pressure in the pit brought about an advance of ⅛@⅝c, with September closing at $1.38⅝ to $1.38½ and December $1.42½. Minneapolis and Winnipeg both gained ⅝@¾c, and showed a firm undertone the greater part of the day.

Fears that the continued cool weather over the corn belt would result in much acreage failing to mature grain brought in sufficient eastern and local buying to advance the market sharply, with net gains of ¾@1¼c, with September, $1.06⅜@1.06⅝, and December, $1.09⅜@1.09⅝. Oats were ⅝@1c higher on unfavorable crop reports from the American northwest, while rye gained ⅜@¾c.

Rust Reports Increasing.

Rust reports from both the American and Canadian northwest are increasing, and should temperatures become higher it is feared that the rust would spread rapidly. The reports are coming from conservative sources. The Van Dusen-Harrington weekly summary was construed as bullish, showing 10 per cent loss in part of Minnesota. Durum wheat, usually regarded as a rust resistant variety, has also been damaged in parts of the Dakotas.

Liverpool wheat was ⅛@¼d higher at the close, with Buenos Aires unchanged. Outlook in Argentina is more favorable, as the result of recent beneficial rains, while Australia needs more moisture.

Local Bulls Buy Corn.

Le Count's report, suggesting that probably 50 per cent of the corn crop in parts of Iowa would not mature with an early frost, combined with relatively low temperatures at night, led local bulls to become more aggressive, and prices advanced sharply. Houses with eastern connections were on the buying side early, while the bulge was checked by selling against offers.

Oats market came in for more attention. The Van Dusen-Harrington report indicated a spotted situation in the American northwest, and there were also disappointing threshing returns on late sown oats from Illinois and Iowa. The close was about the top, with commission houses showing more interest on the buying side.

Cash interests were fair buyers of rye, and with strength in wheat an advance was easily attained. Hedging sales from the northwest checked the upturn. The seaboard reported 50,000 bu sold for export.

FARM AND GARDEN

BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Better horses are needed in the corn belt. If horses are to compete with tractors and trucks on the farm they must be good. A slackening in the raising of colts to replace work horses is already apparent. Old worn out horses are now commonly seen dragging their feet along in the fields of the middle west. New ones are needed to take their places.

Good horses are made out of plenty of good hay and grain. The shifting of crops in the middle west has greatly increased the supply of horse building material in the form of legume hays, particularly sweet clover and soybean hay. Surplus crops make cheap farm power.

Edmonds' and Crawford's experiments at the Urbana station show that good results in growing young draft fillies may be obtained by moderate, regular feeding of sheaf oats and legume hay supplemented with a light feed of crushed oats, bran and bone meal. The value of using sweet clover pasture along with permanent bluegrass was demonstrated in the tests.

Records of the experiments show that as weanlings the fillies ate about 8 pounds each of sheaf oats and soybean hay and 2.3 pounds of grain a head daily. The second winter they ate daily 9 pounds each of sheaf oats and soybean hay and 3.41 pounds of grain. The investigators say these amounts produced good gains in height and frame and kept the fillies in thrifty condition. Their appetites were good at all times.

At the end of the experiments, the men weighed the fillies which were in medium condition and found that four of them not yet two years old tipped the scales at an average of 1,484 pounds and stood 15 hands 3.4 inches high.

PIT NOTES

Strength in wheat the last two days has surprised the bears, as they have been unable to see anything bullish in the situation. As prices were on the down grade for around two weeks a natural upward reaction was due. With present uncertainties regarding the spring wheat crop there is a disposition on the part of the trade to take the buying side on breaks, while hedging interests, which are not heavy, according to cash handlers, are content to do their selling on bulges.

There is a disposition on the part of many local traders in corn to work on the buying side. Cool nights of late have not been good for corn. In southeastern Iowa yesterday morning it was 50, and Kansas has complained about temperatures on Tuesday being the coldest for August in years. The impression prevails among corn men that the crop is to be small and they are buying on breaks.

Under the new Illinois warehouse law a public elevator operator cannot deal in grain. This is to be overcome by a private corporation with $50,000 or more capital to be controlled by the Chicago Board of Trade. It is proposed to rent storage space from the elevator operators. Bins with public grain are to be sealed so there can be no mixing. Committees having the work of ironing out the elevator situation are hard at work and expect to have a plan ready for presentation next week.

A northwestern grain man says rust continues to spread in spite of the cool weather and that many persons have come to the conclusion that it does not require hot muggy weather. Latter has developed rapidly from Medora, N. D., to Minneapolis.

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Export sales of wheat in all positions were estimated by the seaboard at 400,000 bu., including 200,000 winter and 200,000 bu. Manitobas. Local handlers sold 50,000 bu. winters to exporters, and charters were made for 340,000 bu. to Montreal and Buffalo. There were 25,000 to 30,000 bu. No. 2 red winter sold c. i. f. track New York at equal to 8c over Chicago September. Rye sales were 50,000 bu. with a good demand reported, and some barley was also worked.

Chicago handlers sold 63,000 bu. wheat; 84,000 bu. corn; 18,000 bu. oats and 11,000 bu. barley to the domestic trade, with 400,000 bu. wheat to go to store. Deliveries on August contracts were 15,000 bu. oats.

Demand for cash wheat here showed improvement with the spot basis ½@1c higher. No. 1 red and hard winter brought September price to ¼c over, with No. 2 grades ¼@½c under, and No. 3 grades, 1@2c under the future. Hard winter basis at Omaha was ½c higher, while at Kansas City it was firm.

Offerings of cash corn were small, and demand fair. Basis was ½c higher to ½c lower with No. 2 grades September price to ¾c under; No. 3 grades, 1@3c under and No. 4 grades, 3@5c under. No. 5 and No. 6 grades sold largely at one price. Spot prices in outside markets were unchanged to 1½c higher.

Basis on cash oats was unchanged to ½c higher with No. 2 white, ½@2¼c over, and No. 3 white, ¼c over to 1½c under September.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Thursday: Wheat, 298 cars; corn, 65 cars; oats, 90 cars; rye, 1 car; barley, 39 cars.

GOOD RALLY IN LARD

A feature in the lard markets was the absence of liberal selling at the opening, the reverse of that for a week past, while there were good buying orders. Offerings were well taken and despite the weakness and 10c break in hog prices advanced and closed at the top with net gains of 7½ to 15c, January leading. Lard in Liverpool was weak and 3 to 9c lower.

Short ribs were sparingly handled and closed 7½c higher to unchanged and bellies were 7½@10c higher. Exports of bacon were 42,600 lbs. and lard 477,900 lbs. Prices follow:

BUTTER AND EGGS

Liberal short covering was in evidence in butter on the Chicago mercantile exchange, and with an active trade the December delivery advanced ¼c, the first rally of consequence during the last two weeks. Early there was a small dip to a new low for the season but the loss was quickly recovered. Total sales were 225 cars. Eggs closed ⅛@¼c higher with prices the best on the present movement. Total sales were 87 cars. Prices follow:

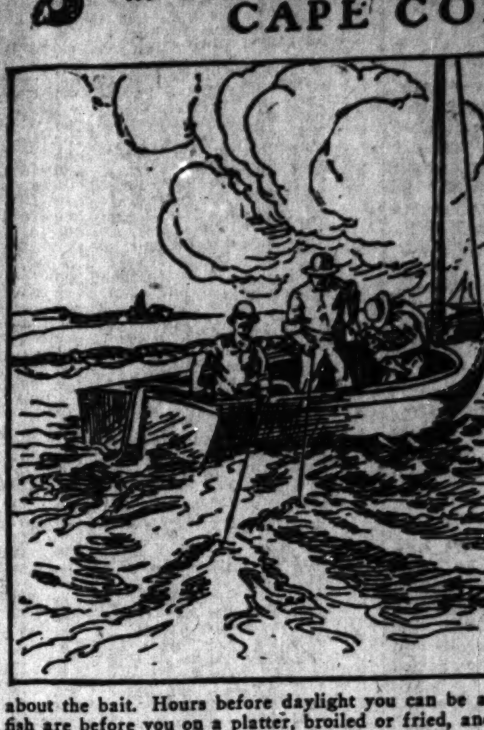
Scraggy Neck at Cataumet on Buzzards Bay CAPE COD



A SUMMER HOME with the Atlantic Ocean at the front door—especially that part known as Buzzards Bay, for generations a famous fishing grounds for the summer colonist. What possibilities for a long season of joyous week-ends, running even into the late Fall!

Grover Cleveland and Joseph Jefferson have fished these very waters. There's the thrill that is the essence of happy recreation in navigating this bay in a Cape Cod Cat or a knockabout sailing craft that doesn't require too much seamanship but leaves plenty of time for pulling lines. Even an ordinary dory will do. The fish are plentiful and not too fastidious about the bait. Hours before daylight you can be away. At breakfast time, the fish are before you on a platter, broiled or fried, and fresh, delicious, appetizing.

Scraggy Neck is a circular headland connected with the Cape by a natural causeway, 60 miles from Boston by rail, or reached by motor over the finest of broad, smooth highways. It is a quiet place, off the beaten track, suited to the better class of summer estates. There are anchorage facilities and a float for small boats and mooring place for yachts up to 18 feet draught. The sheltered waters are a safe sailing and swimming area for boys and girls. The Neck comprises about 350 acres, with 3½ miles of high, breezy shore and a bathing beach reserved for the residents. The lots are large and are sold subject to careful restrictions; priced from $3600 up. Office on the property open daily through the month of August.

They Wouldn't Believe

By Roy Vickers.

SYNOPSIS.

On the way to Donald Brierly's house for luncheon Connie Elmore, Donald's fiancée, tells her friend, Olive Weston, that Donald stands a chance of inheriting half a million from the estate of old Harrowby, a friend of Donald's father.

Olive and Connie share a flat in London. Olive is secretly in love with Donald but sincerely pleased at Connie's good fortune in winning him.

Sandle & Querk, the solicitors handling the Harrowby estate, are crooked and plot to cheat Donald Brierly of the fortune by having a spurious heir appear whose claim is prior to Donald's. In the midst of the plotting Augustus Brierly, Donald's father, presumed to have died when the Titanic sank, calls on Sandle. Querk suggests to Sandle that he invite Brierly to Harrowby house and there, with the assistance of Querk's clerk, Wode, dispose of Brierly.

Connie decides to visit her old nurse, who is now caretaker of Harrowby house. Mrs. Jones is out, but Connie finds the key and lets herself in to wait for her. She hears strange noises in the library and, going to investigate, she sees Mr. Sandle and another man kill Mr. Brierly, whom she recognizes from his portrait. Rushing out of the house, Connie stumbles into Mr. Querk. While telling her story Querk pushes the bell and sends a signal to the murderers. Connie sees a policeman and, calling him, the three proceed to the library and Connie asks Querk to open the secret panel in the wall where she had seen the men place the body. It is empty. Querk accompanies her to the police station, where she tells her story to the police superintendent. Querk intimates that she imagined the scene, and in consternation Connie goes to see Olive, who believes her story.

Querk requests Sandle to come to the superintendent's office, and he presents his alibi, which the police officer accepts. The two lawyers proceed to Wode's office, where old man Turle and his son, the spurious heirs, await them. The old man dies just after they walk into the office and Sandle and Querk leave by the back door.

The next morning Connie calls on Querk and meets young Jones there. She recognizes him as her old nurse's son, but does not know that he has been posing as Henry Turle Jr. Querk later pretends that Connie imagined she saw young Jones. He tells Olive that Sandle is about to bring a criminal suit against Connie unless Olive, as her nearest friend, has her committed to a private institution which he recommends.

INSTALLMENT XXXVI.

MAENTON HOUSE.

Olive's groping hand found the silk cord of a cushion. She twisted the cord, twisted it till it ripped away from the velvet.

"Persuade her—nothing!" she said. "I couldn't even persuade her to see Jelks. I got an order from a magistrate—an urgency order, they call it. She intended to go away. I locked her in here till Jelks came. Jelks confirmed the order, or whatever it's called."

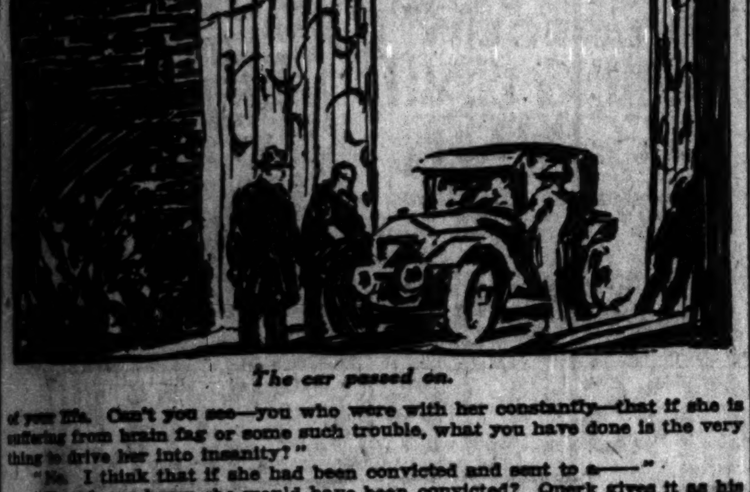
Donald sprang to his feet.

"She was taken there against her will?" he demanded, his voice almost a shout.

"There was no scene," answered Olive, meeting his gaze. "She went quietly and without any kind of protest. But she did not want to go."

His eyes seemed to burn into her brain. There came the thought: "He hates me, too. I hadn't altogether expected that. But, of course, it's quite natural."

"I have no doubt you thought you were acting for the best," Donald said. "But it seems to me you have almost certainly made the most tragic mistake of your life. Can't you see—you who were with her constantly—that if she is suffering from brain fag or some such trouble, what you have done is the very thing to drive her into insanity?"



The car passed on.

"No. I think that if she had been convicted and sent to a——"

"How do we know she would have been convicted? Querk gives it as his opinion. Opinion—that's all—and a solicitor's at that! Querk knows little about the courts—nine-tenths of his work is connected with wills and property. We could have taken some eminent counsel's opinion."

He was angry with her. Perhaps he was going to kill her. It did not matter. But she must make him see that the best had been done for Connie.

"Counsel's opinion wouldn't have been any better," she countered. "There is no knotty legal point involved. They would have had to hang Sandle or find her guilty. And if they had found her guilty of criminal libel they would have found her insane also."

"It's a futile discussion!" he snapped. "When did you apply for this order?"

"Yesterday afternoon."

"Then you had done it when you were talking to me outside the office of the Record?"

"Yes."

"Why, in heaven's name, didn't you tell me?"

There was no point in trying to defend herself, thought Olive. She shrugged her shoulders.

"Why didn't you tell me?" he repeated. "It's beyond explanation—your saying nothing about it."

If he couldn't see that she had wanted to spare him, she couldn't tell him so. She was silent.

He strode toward the door.

"I see," he said grimly. "It is beyond explanation. Good-by, Olive."

* * * * * * *

Connie sank back on the cushions of the car that was taking her to the private asylum. Curiously, she felt more than anything else a sense of restfulness. The smooth motion of Querk's salon car soothed her nerves.

For the rest—the struggle was over. It was the calm of an honorable surrender. She was ready now to yield up her will to that of the nurse who sat beside her.

Already there was nothing very terrible in that thought. The nurse was a pleasant, kindly girl who eyed Connie in open admiration.

"Where is Maenton house, nurse?" she asked.

"It's in Maenton—quite a dear little old world village which very few people have heard of. It's right off the beaten track, although it's barely twenty-five miles north of Charing Cross. Maenton house used to be the manor house. It's nearly four hundred years old. It's got lovely grounds. You're sure to like it—everybody does."

Connie's lips half parted in a smile. There was something really funny in saying everybody liked an asylum. In asylums they ill-treated you, locked you up and beat you if you gave them trouble. O, what did it matter? No amount of physical ill-treatment could exceed the pain of that moment—"The order was granted to your friend, Miss Weston." Nothing mattered. She would just do what they told her and forget and rest—and rest.

"We are just here now, Miss Elmore."

Connie started to full wakefulness. The car was slowing and jolting in a lane one side of which was blocked by a high wall. Of course asylums had walls. But this did not look like an asylum wall—it was of old mellowed brick like the brick of Hampton Court.

"I didn't know I had been asleep," she said.

"You'll be all the better for it," said the nurse. "We're going through the gates in a minute. I don't know anything about gates myself, but I've been told these are something rather special in the way of ironwork."

Connie knew nothing about gates, but she had seen gates like these in books on architecture that Donald had shown her. Before the chauffeur could blow his horn the gates were being opened by four men—or, rather, one man opened the gate while three men stood by. One of the men motioned to the chauffeur as the gates were closed behind them and stepped toward the car. The nurse lowered the window, signed a slip of paper and returned it to the attendant. Then the car passed on.

"It takes nearly five minutes to reach the house," said the nurse as the car passed up a winding avenue of pine trees.

"Am I allowed to ask questions?" asked Connie.

"O, Miss Elmore, fancy saying 'allowed'!" said the nurse, reprovingly. "You're allowed to do anything here that doesn't hurt yourself or other people. What do you want to know?"

"Why did you sign that paper?"

"Well, you see, every time those gates are opened a sort of clockwork thing records it and those men have to account for every opening of the gate."

"I see," said Connie. "They certainly are something special in the way of gates."

The heavy odor of pine invaded the car.

"They're very lovely grounds," said Connie.

"This is only the drive. In a minute we shall come to the tennis courts—there!"

A moment later they passed through double rows of tennis courts on which half a dozen games were in progress. At each game a nurse was umpiring.

"Are those—inmates?" asked Connie.

"Patients," corrected the nurse, "yes. We're all very keen on tennis. Those are the ties for the mixed doubles. Now around this corner you will see the house."

Connie looked. The house, built of the same mellowed brick as the wall, had gables and turrets and a wonderful old stone terrace decked with flowering plants. The front door stood wide, and Connie had a glimpse of a dark, rich interior as stately as the terrace and the gables would have led one to expect.

"It isn't bad, is it?" asked the nurse, confidently.

"It's certainly all very beautiful," said Connie. "But—it's rather difficult to like it, you know."

"O, you'll soon get over that!" said the nurse. "Everybody does. Of course you'll feel strange for a day or two. But there's such a lot going on always that one simply hasn't time to be dull."

One Lazy Day in 30 Urged for Frayed Nerves

Nothing Like It to Give New Lease on Life.

Do you ever think of treating yourself to a lazy day? A real, honest-to-goodness lazy day? I don't mean one in which you keep moving about aimlessly and accomplishing little. But a day you devote to the least possible expenditure of energy in a twenty-four hour period.

Plump girls who got that way by making lazy days out of several or more in the week aren't invited to read this. It is for the woman to whom her friend says:

"I simply don't know how you keep on keeping on with all you do and all you go about."

One such active person, keyed up constantly under the drive, answered her friend's remark:

"I don't. I stop dead for twenty-four hours whenever I get the chance, which is at least once in four weeks and twice if I can manage it. I could not keep on day after day cramming twenty hours of work and pleasure without going to pieces if it weren't that I run away to a hotel and hide out from everything and everybody for a day."

I have heard of a number of society women who in their most active season, take this method of catching up to help them through the balance of their social activities. They take a hotel room and hang out the "Not to be disturbed" sign, leave word no telephone calls are to come through and next day come out feeling strong enough to take up their tasks again.

Very full lives, days of perpetual motion—women who have to meet them often are borderline nerve cases, for after cramming the hours with work and pleasure they are too tired to get relaxation and rest from the remaining hours. The twenty-four hour respite at least once a month would help immeasurably to preserve health and beauty.

One does not have to leave home if one has considerate home folk who will graciously accept the order for a "lazy day". One can stay parked right in her own room and instead of piling up magazines or books that should have been read but weren't just lie in a dreamy state of peace and relaxation in a room where the light is dimly suffused. For the good of the nerves, the eyes, the skin this one day off in thirty is heartily indorsed by one who knows there is nothing like it to pick you up and put you on your feet ready for action again.

Women Vote Beauty Chief Charm; Man's Ballots for Legs

Which does a man admire most in woman, beauty, brains or legs?

This question was put to a vote among three hundred delegates attending the twenty-first annual convention of the National School of Cosmeticians at Hotel Sherman yesterday by Mrs. Pearl Ecker Hubbell, dean of the school. Only women were allowed to vote. Beauty won with 158 votes, with brains second and legs third. An unofficial canvass among the men showed a landslide for legs.

"Brains are essential to a woman's success in business," asserted Mrs. Ruth J. Maurer of New York. "But beauty is an important factor. No one ever heard of legs carrying a woman to the top. While foolish men argue that women's legs are their chief attraction, the most casual glance settles that matter in this day of short skirts."

"You can buy a pretty face at a beauty shop for so much a box," said Mrs. Maybelle DeWitt of Hollywood, Cal. "Brains are something a woman may develop. But only God can give you a shapely pair of legs."

Presbyterian School Increases Its Faculty

Officials of the Presbyterian Training School of Chicago, of which Robert Sawyier is president, yesterday announced several additions to the faculty roll.

Miss Hazel Foster is to be dean and aid in Bible instruction, Miss Mary L. Palmer will head the department of religious education, Miss Elsie Rogers will direct courses in recreational leadership, Miss Margaret Lindesmith will be house manager and Miss Ruth Bottorff registrar and secretary of the school.

Some of the best known Presbyterian theologians in the United States are among the older faculty members, including Dr. George L. Robinson, Dr. R. W. Owens, Mrs. Venice B. Jackson, Dr. Carl B. Gage, Mrs. W. H. Bretall and Miss Florence Towne.

Meller Loses Her Pearls; Jeweler Grabs 'Em Back

PARIS, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Raquel Meller has lost her 2,000,000 franc pearl necklace—actually lost and not for publicity purposes either.

The Spanish singer bought it from a jeweler two years ago, but overlooked the detail of paying for it, so the jeweler swore out a warrant and seized the necklace in her hotel room, along with her shoes, stockings, silks, and satins, and everything else he could find.

At today's hearing in the local courts, the jeweler was permitted to keep the necklace, but the singer's clothing was returned to her.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Milton D. Oestreicher, 6017 Woodlawn avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Who is your choice to succeed President Coolidge?

Where Asked.

Kinzie street at State.

The Answers.

Stephen A. Snape, Tribune Tower, Indiana Limestone company representative—I would say Charles G. Dawes. And, Dawes is the most logical man for the office. He will have had a thorough Vice Presidential experience, thus being fully prepared for the duties of President. He is of the middle west, thus understanding the entire country. He would make a safe, progressive President.

Mrs. L. D. Stinger, 13 West Delaware place, milliner—Either Dawes or Lowden. Dawes has a large following; he is an active, forceful character, and he could be depended upon to do what he thinks is right. Everybody likes and admires Lowden. Not only would Lowden have city people with him but the farmers also.

W. H. Grauer, 5107 Glenwood avenue, accountant—Secretary Hoover, because of his record when in charge of the American relief work in Belgium during the war; because of the excellent way in which he is handling the office of secretary of commerce, and because he is a man of ability and unquestioned honesty.

Miss Gladys C. Rust, 2236 Farragut avenue, secretary—Coolidge, whether he wants to run again or not. If it's unalterably "no" with President Coolidge, then I suppose it's Mr. Dawes, for the reason that he has a mind of his own. He thinks for himself, and then, straight from the shoulder, he proceeds to act.

L. E. Beal, 730-40 Rush street, correspondent — Lowden would be the best man for the office. I have always thought highly of Lowden. He made a great record as our war governor, and I believe that he, as President, would handle the government wisely.

"Great Show" Verdict of Sally's 100 Guests at Majestic Theater

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

"Say, wasn't that a great show, Miss Sally!"

That was what little Johnny C. told me as we were filing out after our party at the Majestic theater yesterday afternoon. And right he was—for we had a glorious time from the instant we met Mr. Crowe, manager of the Majestic, received the favors he had ready for us, and filed in to take our places.

The performance started with a regular riot by "Our Gang"—an initiation in which Farina and Fatty got about everything in the calendar. The news picture that followed was just as good, with football, boxing and swimming matches that had the boys sitting on the edges of their seats—and those were just the curtain raisers.

The next number brought real excitement—Frank Wilson in a trick bicycling act. Maybe he didn't have us gasping, with the stunts he did!

Then came Pinto and Hall with a great musical act—accordions and saxophones that they played on the stage, in the audience, everywhere. Then came Gene Collins and his "Sunburnt Revue"—colored dancers in all the latest types.

A quick curtain, and Gordon Manners and Company were on, tumbling and doing acrobatics at a great rate—to be followed by one of the best features of all: Olympia and Jules, with the finest trained dogs you ever saw. Big dogs, little dogs, jumping hurdles, sliding, playing games, doing tricks, until you'd think they were almost human. That was an act we hated to have end.

But end it did—and so did our afternoon. Or rather, we thought it did, without counting on the surprise in store for us. It came, though, as we were filing out—a fine box of candy for every boy and girl, with the compliments of the Lilly Candy company.

Brazil Offers $70 Bonus to Each Japanese Settler

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Aug. 4.—The new Brazilian ambassador, Senor Feitosa, presented Premier Tanaka with an invitation from the Brazilian government to Japanese immigrants to the number of 5,000 a year until 1932 and assisting each to the extent of £14 (about $70). The Japanese government has been assisting immigrants to Brazil to the extent of 200 yen ($100) per head. Six thousand emigrated to Brazil this year and 12,000 are preparing to migrate in 1928.

Ravinia Stars Make Event of "Masked Ball"

Proves One of Year's Most Stirring Operas.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

"A Masked Ball" last night resolved itself into perhaps the most tuneful and most stirringly sung performance of the present Ravinia season. It is no easy matter to present these fine old Verdi tunes in the way they should be presented.

Probably one reason that the opera is so seldom given is that it is so difficult to assemble a cast such as that made up of Elisabeth Rethberg, Florence Macbeth, Julia Claussen, Giovanni Martinelli, Giuseppe Danise, Louis D'Angelo, and Virgilio Lazzari, and so alert and resourceful a conductor as Gennaro Papi.

With this group of artists on call, it would be a good plan to give the opera frequently. It is possible that a good many in the audience had only a faint idea of what the story was about. There seemed to be a general opinion that all the male principals were doing their best to look like his late majesty, Charles I. of England, except Giordano Paltrinieri, who bore a resemblance to one of the judges of the court that brought that monarch to his unfortunate end. That fact, however, seems to bear little relation to the apparent story of "A Masked Ball."

As a matter of fact, it makes little difference. "A Masked Ball" is one of the pieces where you can be quite indifferent to the plot and revel in the tunes. There were two, for example, that fell to Mr. Martinelli, one at the end of the first scene, the other in the second, that would decorate any opera of any kind, and both were sung gloriously.

One can remember also Mme. Rethberg's splendid performance of a more serious number in the next scene. Incidentally, she and Mme. Claussen were singing their parts for the first time on any stage, and, while on the subject, Mme. Claussen accomplished a real achievement with her fortune telling scene. The best characterizations of the evening fell to her and Mr. Danise, and this helped considerably, even in a not altogether comprehensible opera.

There were further causes for cheerful memories of the performance, among them Miss Macbeth's vivacity as she sang the part of the Page, and Mr. Danise's excellently conceived and sung baritone offerings, while the subterranean grumbling of Mr. D'Angelo and Mr. Lazzari were perfect examples of how all conspirators should sing.

German M. E. Church, Built in 1853, Is Razed

Workmen yesterday began tearing down one of the old landmarks on Chicago's near north side, the German Methodist church, located at Center and Dayton streets. It was built in 1853 and housed many of the homeless after the Chicago fire.

The Rev. H. C. Loeppert, pastor, yesterday recalled the years spent in the old frame building. "We're the only Methodist church in Chicago that has its sermons preached in German," he said. Work on the new church building will begin next week.

West Side Girls to Play O'Leary for Title Today

Small girls from the west side will compete for the championship in the game of O'Leary at Douglas park this morning at 10 o'clock. The three best players in each of two divisions from each of the west parks will match skill in the annual O'Leary contest on the Douglas park outdoor dance floor. The game consists of bouncing a rubber ball in time with the "1-2-3-O'Leary" rhythm. The girl going the farthest in the seventeen exercises scheduled will win the championship.

Lillian Gish to Return to Griffith's Direction

Hollywood, Cal., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Lillian Gish, who became famous as a screen actress under the direction of D. W. Griffith, has returned to his personal direction, according to reports tonight. Miss Gish and Griffith would neither affirm nor admit that a new contract had been signed, but Griffith's business agent said a confirmation would be forthcoming shortly.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

W. S.: TO WALK CORRECTLY you should hold the head erect, the backbone straight, abdomen in and chest out, and be sure that the body from the waist up makes no movement. The propelling is done with the legs swinging easily from the hips, knees held slightly rigid. Place a little more weight on the ball of the foot than on the heel, to prepare you for the next step.

H. B. N.: I AM NOT IN FAVOR of skipping meals. It is better to eat regularly and lightly at each meal. Where one skips a meal she is apt to overeat at the next one, and the effort has been in vain. What you need is a diet list, giving a proper selection of foods. Send a stamped, addressed envelope for it.

Bringing Happiness to Others Is Best Remedy for Grief

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"Suppose you had worked your way through college and helped younger brothers and sisters to get an education. Then at 29 you met a man whom you could admire wholeheartedly and love devotedly and who worshiped the ground you walked on. You married him soon after and then a cruel accident tore him away from you. But through weary months you found strength in the dream of a little one of his to cherish. Then you went down into the Valley of the Shadow and came out with empty arms.

"It's over a year now, but the desolation is even more cruel. There is no hope of baby lips saying 'mother' to help you over the loss of him who called you 'sweetheart.' You can't marry an old sweetheart, now a bachelor. He is too fine to get an empty shell, but if one could become a second mother to forlorn, motherless babies life might be full again and you would cheat no man by giving less than he had a right to expect. You could not be one another's big love. Only a quiet, mutual respect and purpose for his children could prove the golden tie there.—Mrs. M."

Who was it said that all human life, inasmuch as there is death in it, must be considered a tragedy? You have had your share of suffering, but as Aristotle declared, "tragedy purges life". Only through the lens of death and misfortune is man lifted above the selfishness of mere individuals. You have, Mrs. M., a life ahead of you. It was a brief period of perfect happiness you knew, but how many thousands of women in this world have never known an hour of what life gave you? Into every life there comes sorrow. But life has to be carried on and the way to bring happiness back into it is to try to bring into the lives of others some of those beautiful moments that were your privilege. It can be done. It takes courage. It takes strength of character and of body to pull oneself out of a grief like yours, Mrs. M. But it can only be done by helping to build up other lives around you.

The bachelor may be the one who needs that help most. If children come to you, and you give them a mother's love, you will find your present sorrow, poignant as it may be now, a distant background against which you have built a world of happiness for them and for yourself as well.

There would be no cheating a man to whom you bring respect and the purpose of mothering his children. If children aren't born to you, you could take a helpless foundling infant and give it care and love. Don't submerge yourself in grief and pity while there are so many empty hearts in the world to help.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Doing It Tactfully.

"Dear Miss Blake: I have been keeping company with a fellow seven years my senior. He has a habit of interrupting every one while they are talking, which is annoying. Can you suggest something that will break him of this habit? CYNTHIA."

That is a most annoying habit, isn't it? Couldn't you suggest to him, in a tactful sort of way, that people ought to be allowed to finish their sentences? You might pretend you are referring to some one else, if you have any delicacy about censoring him directly.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

Mary Christine is especially fond of Aunt Kathryne. She is in and out of her aunt's home, nearby, every day, running errands, doing little chores and being an adorable companion.

"Mary Christine, I believe I'll get a little girl of my own," Aunt Kathryne told her one day.

The child pondered, then said: "O, Aunt Katie, don't get a little girl. It'll be such a long time before it's worth anything." E. M.

Little Bobby was the proud possessor of a baby fox terrier. A friend, hearing of his possession, inquired of him, "What kind of dog have you, Bobby?"

Bobby proudly replied, "Housebroke dog." R. E.

Onwentsia Is Favored Gathering Place for Golf and Tennis Fans

BY NANCY R——.

Onwentsia continues to be the most popular of Thursday evening gathering places for the alert and athletically inclined of Lake Forest's smart set. Mixed doubles prevail on all the tennis courts, while the green and rolling golf course is dotted with mixed foursomes endeavoring to capture one of the alluring prizes on display in the foyer of the clubhouse.

And at about 8 o'clock every one gathers in the grill and card room at the southern end of the building to partake of the buffet supper spread out on long tables. Several kinds of salad, two or three tempting hot dishes and deep fruit pies are there for the taking—not much danger of added avoirdupois after the strenuous exercise of the last two or three hours.

Among yesterday's tennis players were Sarah Brewster and Ellsworth Laflin, Grace McGann and Herbert McLaughlin, Sarah Hinde and Waldo Allen, the Billy Hubbards, the Keith Carpenters, the junior Hale Holdens, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Welles, the John Prossers, and the Thomas Marshalls. Others who are enjoying these Thursday affairs this year include the Monnie Wallers, the Clarence Mitchells, the John Broeksmits, the James Herbert Mitchells, the George F. McLaughlins, the Philip Swifts, the Arthur Dixons, the Stanley Keiths, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Phelps, the Billy Blairs, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams, and the Billy Pullmans.

Fashion note: The smartest stockings seen recently at various country club gatherings are those with the intriguing and new "upper clox." Instead of starting where clocks have always started heretofore, at the foot of the stocking, these newest decorations begin at the top and wander down several inches below the knee. They are to be had in all the favored summer hues, and are most effective showing below the season's knee-length skirts.

Day's News in Society

Berlin has been the accidental meeting spot of several Chicagoans quite recently. Mrs. Marshall Field, who has been at Carlsbad for the cure, was at the Adlon for a brief time, as were Miss Emily Larned and Miss Nellie Carpenter, who were en route to Carlsbad from Norway and Sweden. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Haskell and Mrs. Arthur Wheeler joined the little colony there, as did Dr. and Mrs. Wilhelm L. Baum and son, who have been abroad for several months, and who are sailing this week for America.

The gardens of Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick, Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson, Mrs. D. Marks Cummings, and Miss Katherine Colvin will be opened tomorrow under the auspices of the Lake Forest Garden club. The gardens, all at their best just now, are riots of color in August bloom.

Mrs. Marcus D. Richards and three children of Hubbard Woods are at West Chop, Mass., where they will be joined Aug. 15 by Mr. Richards. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Coonley Jr. and children have taken the Richards residence on Tower road until Sept. 15.

Mrs. William P. Conger of 200 East Pearson street is spending the remainder of the summer at Bar Harbor, Me. Mrs. Philip D. Armour of Lake Forest is at the Malvern there for a three weeks' stay.

Mrs. Everett L. Wyman of Lake Forest is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Delaney at Stockbridge, Mass.

Mrs. William K. Kenly is at her villa near Williamstown, Mass., where she has as her guest her daughter, Mrs. Rebecca McDoel Wyman, who has been a regular attendant at the Institute of Politics there.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss L. Coonley of New York, formerly of Chicago and Great Barrington, Mass., have been visiting with Chicago friends at Dublin, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Venard and two sons of 1039 Rush street are spending the late summer at Estes Park, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney W. Treat and small son, Wyllys Baird Treat, of 445 Wellington avenue have returned from five months' stay abroad. They spent some time in Tunis, Paris, and London, and made a visit to the Channel islands.

Mrs. George S. Gaylord of Pasadena, formerly of Chicago, is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Brunker of Winnetka.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—Maj. Gen. Charles P. Summerall, chief of staff, U. S. A., returned to Washington this evening from an inspection through the middle west.

The chief of naval operations, Admiral Eberle, and Mrs. Eberle had a company of fourteen at dinner this evening.

Maj. Gen. Le Jeune, commandant of the marine corps, and Mrs. Le Jeune and Miss Eugenia Le Jeune, who were in Newport for a visit, returned tonight from New York, where they spent a few days en route.

Baron Lennart Rappe, former attache of the Swedish legation in Washington and more recently Swedish consul at Chicago, arrived in Washington today. He will spend the remainder of the week here and will then go to his new post of duty in Winnipeg, Canada, where he is to be the Swedish consul.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bacon of Chicago, accompanied by Miss L. Fraser of Plainfield, Ill., are in Washington this week at the Mayflower.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Tribune will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." Address Embarrassing Moments, Chicago Tribune. Write on one side of the paper. No manuscript returned.

A Surprise for the Family.

There were many questions in the letters pouring in from my people in a faraway state. The new baby's eyes? Her nose? Her hair? Words failed me when I came to the last named query, so I decided to send a sample of the downy black hair, even before I could "dress it up" with a bow of the usual pink ribbon.

After the nurse, whose scissors had snipped the lock, left the room, I dropped the hair on the floor. I kept an eye on it, I thought, until the night nurse came in. She picked it up for me and dropped it into the fold of the letter which was ready to be sealed.

Imagine the chagrin of a proud young mother when back comes a little black feather, softly curved, accompanied by merry jests about my little angel's wings! My pillow, alas! had been shedding. MRS. J. H. C.

Her Curls Fell Off.

Having recently gotten a boyish bob, I was leaving for town and I put my hat on, but much to my disgust I looked simply terrible without any hair sticking out. I didn't know what to do. I happened to come across several bunches of fake curls of my sister's. I immediately stuck them under my hat and left home.

I was on the "L" about ten minutes, and lo and behold what should drop in my lap but a bunch of curls in plain view of everybody. I believe I got as red as the dress I had on and left the "L" at the next station.

Flowers Still Bloom for Smart Shoulders

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—If we decide to "say it with flowers" we continue to speak straight from the shoulder. Yes, the flower perched up on the shoulder is still with us after many seasons and for all types of costumes. From sports wear to evening gowns it lends the same invariable chic.

Provided, of course, that it is the right kind of flower! For here the makers of fashion are particular and often the vintage of a gown may be detected by the kind of flower that blooms on the shoulder. This season it is the fabric flower of loose and often ragged appearance which represents the correct horticulture. And frequently this flower follows the lead taken by frocks and hats. That is to say, it is made of two tones of the same color. Thus, if you are wearing a bosi de rose ensemble collared in brown fur the fabric chrysanthemum nestling in the fur collar may be of bois de rose and a more decided pink.

This last brings us to another favored haunt of the costume bloom. It is still encouraged to grow upon the fur collar of the coat. But, of course, there is nothing arbitrary about locality and if one decides to have a chrysanthemum of the frock material finish the point of a V neck line who is there to say "nay" to such a harmless eccentricity?

Like so many of the smart afternoon frocks of today the accompanying mode is trimmed only with a self flower on the shoulder and the rhinestone buckle of the belt. Observe, however, that it is scrupulous about the diagonal line, which is enunciated in the slanting girdle and in the surplice effect of the bodice.

My hose do wear much longer now!

USED regularly, Spic means more than clean, sweet absence of all body odor. It brings longer life to silk hosiery, sheer lingerie and frocks.

Spic instantly destroys the acids of perspiration which rot fabrics as well as cause unpleasant odors. Even washing silk hosiery every night is not enough. Because these destructive acids have been at work all day.

To make your hose wear longer simply apply this soothing snow-white powder to the feet and limbs each morning. The perspiration acids will be destroyed all day as fast as they arise. And your feet will feel so much better. No itching. No burning. Just comfort.

For perfect daintiness use Spic freely on all perspiration centers—rub it well into the armpits, between the toes, etc. It acts instantly and lastingly. Soothing. Harmless—cannot injure, dry or irritate skin. Apply it as often as you wish to any part of the body.

Women find it wonderful for use on the sanitary napkin. It banishes all fear of offense.

At any drug-store or toilet-goods counter get a month's supply of Spic—50c.

Coast Guard Observes Its 138th Anniversary

Observance of the 138th anniversary of the founding of the United States coast guard was marked yesterday by an address by the senior officer in charge of each station outlining the history and traditions of the coast guard service. The coast guard was organized on Aug. 4, 1789, under an act signed by President Washington.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Silsby of Lyndonville, Vt., announce the engagement of their daughter, Eunice Ruth, to Truman Oliver Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman S. Morgan of New York City. The wedding will take place in December, after which Mr. Morgan and his bride will reside in Chicago.

Before Bed

Cleanse skin of make-up, etc., this way, if "That schoolgirl complexion" is your aim

By NORMA SHEARER

LETTING make-up, powder and rouge stay on the face over night is a grave beauty mistake. That tends to clog the pores; invites blackheads and imperfections.

Hence experts urge nightly cleansing with a TRUE COMPLEXION SOAP and water.

Thus, largely on expert advice, millions use Palmolive Soap; touch their faces with no other. It is made of cosmetic oils. It is made for one purpose only—to protect and beautify the skin.

Wash the face gently with Palmolive. Massage its balmy olive and palm oil lather into the skin. Rinse with warm water; then with cold. That is all—it's nature's rule for keeping that schoolgirl complexion.

Do that regularly, and particularly at night. Note how much better your skin in even one week.

GET REAL PALMOLIVE

Costs but 10c a cake. Use no other on your face. But be sure you get GENUINE Palmolive. Crude imitations, represented to be of olive and palm oils, are not the same as Palmolive. Remember that and TAKE CARE. The Palmolive-Peet Co., Chicago, U. S. A. (Advertisement.)

New Soprano's Golden Voice Thrills Elmer

And He Gives the Little Lady a Hand.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Here are congratulations for 18 year old Miss Marie Bronarzyk, coloratura soprano, whose twenty minute recital from WLIB at 7:40 was one of the most spectacular of the several impressive musical events last evening.

I was so startled I scarcely could believe my ears when I discovered this voice a minute or so after the recital had started. The quality of her tone is remarkably brilliant in its upper registers. Her lower tones are golden mezzo soprano.

That this praise may not turn this gifted singer's head, be it added that further long years of study will be required before her coloratura vocalization will be faultless. However, as Announcer Bill Hay stated, "here is a voice and personality of whom you will hear more from in the years to come."

Apparently Frederick A. Stock, as guest conductor of the New York Philharmonic orchestra, WJZ-KYW, [8:40 to 9:30 last evening], made a great hit with radio audiences. The programs thus far probably would appeal to any listener. The New York applause is long.

Last evening's concert opened with "In the Hall of the Mountain King" from Grieg's suite. Followed by Deems Taylor's suite of five tone poems, "Through the Looking Glass." If ever the radio audience heard a true phantasy they heard it then.

The closing selection was Sebelius' "Finlandia." I didn't know this was so beautiful.

Friends of Mme. Belle Forbes Cutter, soprano, WEBH, 9 to 9:30, undoubtedly were sorry to hear that her recital last evening was the last until fall.

The University of Chicago choir gave a recital at Mandel hall, WLS, 8:30 to 9. Early sacred works predominated. I don't know whether we are to have further concerts from this excellent choir.

The broadcasts last evening were unusually clear.

JOHN DILLON DIES; LEADER OF IRISH FREEDOM BATTLE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Aug. 4.—John Dillon, former Irish member of parliament and one of the Irish nationalists' most active leaders, died last night at a London nursing home after a major abdominal operation.

John Dillon for thirty years was one of the leaders in the fight for Irish home rule. He succeeded "Honest John" Redmond as chairman of the Irish Nationalist party in 1918.

He was born in 1851 and became a physician and member of the Royal College of Surgeons. Seeing Ireland's need, he stood for parliament from Tipperary at the age of 29 and was elected. He retired in 1883 and went to California to rest. He came back in 1885.

During the world war he opposed the British plans to muster additional troops. He attacked the Sinn Feiners in 1917 for, as he declared, their alienation of sympathy in America for the Irish cause.

WOULD SIMPLIFY APPLICATION FOR ALIEN RE-ENTRY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—[Special.]—An investigation of the amount of "red tape" in the bureau of immigration, particularly with respect to the formalities surrounding issuance of reëntry permits to aliens who desire to leave the United States temporarily, has been ordered by Harry E. Hull, the commissioner general of immigration.

The reëntry permits are granted to resident aliens who have complied with the regulations of the bureau and who wish to go abroad for comparatively short periods.

"Under the present system," the commissioner general explains, "an alien residing in Pittsburgh and contemplating a trip to Europe must write to the bureau in Washington for the reëntry permit. The bureau forwards the request to Ellis island for verification.

"The request is then returned to Washington with the necessary endorsements and the permit is issued in Washington and sent to Ellis island, the alien being notified that he may call for it there before he leaves on the ship."

ALIMONY CLUB IN COURT, BUT ITS AID ISN'T NEEDED

The Alimony club was officially represented in court for the first time yesterday before Superior Judge Joseph David. Nina S. Heyl, secretary, appeared in interest of Isadore Radler of 1136 South Troy street, a Northwestern university student, who is being sued for divorce by Mrs. Celia Radler of 3341 West Roosevelt road, also a Northwestern student of social psychology at the Evanston school.

"We never lived together after our marriage last summer," Radler replied to her motion for temporary alimony.

"Never lived together?" Judge David echoed, looking at the wife.

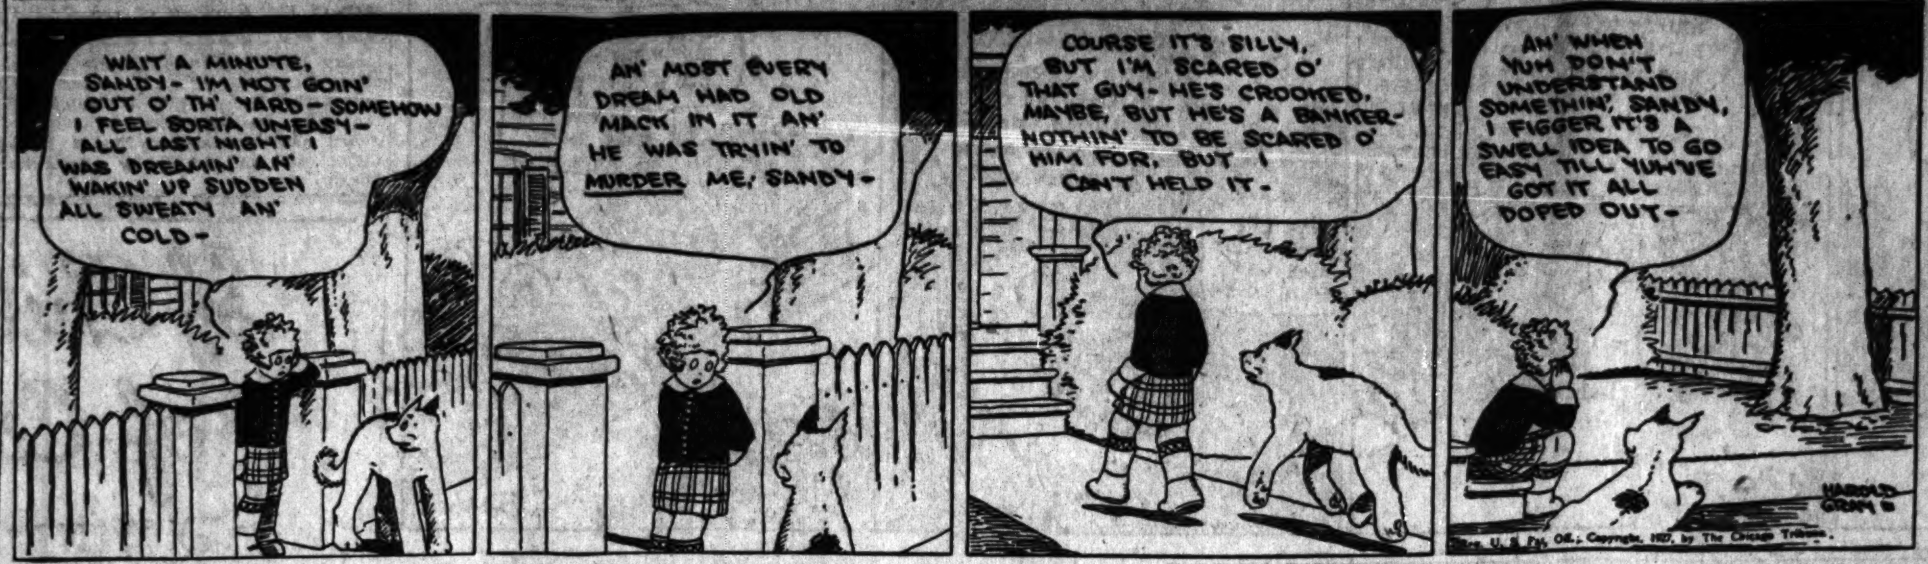
She nodded.

"Motion for alimony denied," the court ruled.

Frees Cinderello Murder Suspect on $15,000 Bail

Jack McCurn, reputed ally of Al Capone, Cicero vice lord, was admitted to bail yesterday by Judge Emmanuel Eller in connection with the murder charge following the slaying of Dominic Cinderello two weeks ago. Judge Eller set McGurn's bail at $15,000. The body of Cinderello, sewed in a sack, was taken from the Calumet river near 111th street and Kean avenue.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Uneasy Annie



WAIT A MINUTE, SANDY- I'M NOT GOIN' OUT O' TH' YARD- SOMEHOW I FEEL SORTA UNEASY- ALL LAST NIGHT I WAS DREAMIN' AN' WAKIN' UP SUDDEN ALL SWEATY AN' COLD-
AN' MOST EVERY DREAM HAD OLD MACK IN IT AN' HE WAS TRYIN' TO MURDER ME, SANDY-
COURSE IT'S SILLY, BUT I'M SCARED O' THAT GUY- HE'S CROOKED, MAYBE, BUT HE'S A BANKER- NOTHIN' TO BE SCARED O' HIM FOR, BUT I CAN'T HELP IT-
AN' WHEN YUH DON'T UNDERSTAND SOMETHIN', SANDY, I FIGGER IT'S A SWELL IDEA TO GO EASY TILL YUH'VE GOT IT ALL DOPED OUT-

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Friday, Aug. 5.) (Daylight Saving Time)

Pepper Party Song and Fun on W-G-N Tonight

TWO and a half hours of melody and mirth will comprise tonight's Pepper party program from W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel between 10:40 p. m. and 1 a. m. Among the special features will be groups of songs by the Pullman Porters' quartet and another presentation of "The Annual Banquet," that uproariously funny burlesque of a business banquet which listeners have heard before. In addition to these novelties there will be jazz music by the Pepper Party Rowdies, with songs by Jack Higgins; by Doc Davis and his Drake hotel dance orchestra, and by Vanston's Blackhawks. There will also be songs by Bryce Talbot, baritone.

PAUL ASH
[Gibson Photo.]

Cosmo D'Almada, operatic baritone, is to present another twenty minute recital tonight between 9:15 and 9:35. Mr. D'Almada is again devoting the major portion of his program to operatic selections. This is the fourth of a series of summer recitals which he is offering over W-G-N. Fern Scull, the station's staff accompanist, will be at the piano.

Paul Ash will bring his musical gang before the microphone for another special broadcast direct from their studio in the Oriental theater, between 8:30 and 9:10 p. m. Wade Booth, whose singing has attracted the attention of listeners during the last two of Paul's programs, will again be a member of the gang tonight, and Paul says he will try to persuade him to sing Kipling's "Boots," one of Mr. Booth's numbers in the stage show at the Oriental this week. Paul Small will, of course, be heard in some songs, and there will be many a rollicking melody by the gang. Paul is going to do his own announcing.

Kathleen Ryan, contralto, and Helen Protheroe, soprano, will offer another of their joint recitals between 8 and 8:30 tonight. For tonight they have arranged a list of offerings that are certain to appeal to those who still remember the old songs and ballads.

Today's baseball game between the Cubs and Boston will be broadcast by W-G-N starting at 2:55 o'clock, with Frank Dahm at the microphone.

Aged slowly in wood for FLAVOR

Do you know Heinz Vinegar is so good because it is aged in wood—a patient, leisurely process that mellows and matures it? That is why it has the true bouquet, aroma and flavor which only slowly aged vinegar can have.

Because of this, Heinz Vinegar improves every sort of sauce and dressing. It brings out the natural flavors in green things. It makes a delicious salad dressing and gives a refreshing, inviting taste to ever so many hot weather dishes.

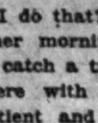
YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN

by Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans



Study Your Child.

"Now, why did I do that?" I said to myself the other morning when we were trying to catch a train. "I never get anywhere with the boy when I am impatient and peremptory."

And through the making of many mistakes I've discovered that it isn't enough to study your child—to understand him or her. You can't stop there. You've got to go further and model your treatment of him on that knowledge. The understanding is the foundation. You've only built something when you've learned to fit your handling to his nature.

Unfortunately, it sometimes takes a mother or a father a long time to learn that you can't adopt an arbitrary attitude toward your children—that you can't lay down inflexible general rules and expect the children to conform to them, regardless of what radical changes might have to take place in a child to make it possible for his particular nature to fit the prescribed line of conduct.

"Billy can't be driven," said a wise young mother to me the other day. "He becomes simply immovable if any one attempts it. So I never try it any more. I reason with him and then I ask him to do things."

"If I hurry Mary," says another mother who has two young daughters, "she gets all worked up. You know how I've always been about keeping appointments and catching trains—always making last minute connections in a grand rush? Well, I've given that all up. Now for Mary's sake I allow myself huge margins of time, but the funny part of it is that Janet regards the hullaballoo of getting off on a trip as a thrillingly pleasant excitement, and thrives on it."

And so it goes—there's only one time that Bobby is cross and unreasonable and that's when he's tired—and Danny dreads going past places where they're blasting and riveting—and Sally simply wilts under your displeasure—and a battle of wills [the "I'm going to see whose will is the stronger" kind of tactics] may be devastating to David. What will bring results with one child will fail utterly with another.

With this matter, as well as with any other that involves the human equation, the exercise of judgment is essential. Nothing that can be said is absolute. So, in accommodating your ways to those of your child, you have to temper that accommodating by guiding and controlling him to a reasonable degree, so that he gradually becomes master of himself.

And this is a very helpful thing to bear in mind in dealing with your child: his peculiarities are not always his faults—they may be simply those different tendencies, that special temperament, those particular traits of character that make of him an individual.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

He Deserves a Violin.

"Would you kindly make me an appeal through your column for a violin for a 16 year old boy who is quite anxious to take lessons? His mother has been a widow for twelve years and at the present time he is the only support of the family, as his older brother has been out of work for several months. There are two younger children who both attend school. E. Q."

Perhaps this young chap has a talent well worth fostering. I do hope one of our musician readers will have an instrument for him.

Text Books to Give.

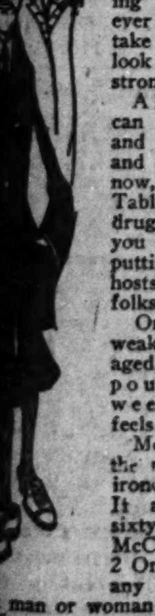
"I am disposing of my household goods and I find a number of text books some school library might like to have. E. L."

Would you like to have some of the books this correspondent offers? They'd probably be splendid for home study.

Getting Skinnier Every Day

Hollows in Cheeks, Neck and Chest Growing Deeper Every Week

Someone Ought To Tell Him How To Gain Pounds of Solid Flesh And Look Like a Real Man



Tens of thousands of thin, rundown men — yes, and women too — are getting discouraged — are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now, for McCoy's Tablets, which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and now feels fine.

McCoy takes all the risk — read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health — your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

The name McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets has been shortened—just ask for McCoy's Tablets at any drug store in America or

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Cooking String Beans.

Green bean cookery, though so extremely simple, is also extremely exacting. The care which goes into keeping the beans a grassy green shade has a value of another and greater sort, that is, the flavor is superior when the color and some other qualities are retained by nice work, and when so cooked the beans will neither be a bronzy nor a black green.

Cooked green beans which are blackish in shade are likely to be so because of actual dirt on the vegetable which cannot be removed by mere washing. The wax beans that are blackish may be so in part because the small beans which have formed in the pods are dark, and do give off a coloring matter which will show in a rim around the kettle and in the dark color of the pod when it is cooked. Because of this, wax beans are really superior when they are cooked without breaking the pods, other than the ends from them.

A rim of dark color on the inside of a kettle in which strictly green beans are cooked—green in color as well as condition—may be real dirt, and the beans get flavored with it. The surface of the pod collects dust and dirt while it is growing. We might, indeed, say that this dirt fairly grows into the rough surface of the pod. The way to remove it is both by washing and by the blanching of the beans by dropping them in cold water, and then rinsing them in cold water.

When we stop to think of it we consider it advisable to lessen the quantity of dirt we eat in every way we can. We breathe enough nearly to kill us sometimes, and therefore we like to avoid eating any great quantity. This care in cooking green beans, while it removes the dirt—one of the government canning experts called it "laundering" the beans—not only cleans them, but it shortens the cooking time about fifteen minutes. Since it is long and also hot cooking that deprives the bean of its grassy or deep sage green shade, and, worse, of its delicate flavors, these two reasons alone ought to convince us that this is the best way to cook them, and there is another reason, or what we may call a fourth: When blanched and given a cold dip they may then be cooked in a small amount of water. A large amount leaches out some precious solubles which we need for our well being.

To use baking soda with green beans is abhorrent to some of us, not only because it destroys the vitamines, our best authorities tell us, but it changes the delicate flavor.

WANTED—MEN.
Do You Want Work?

Will you work one hour between 7:30 and 8:30 every evening?

THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY IN AMERICA. THIS AD IS GENUINE AND EVERY WORD OF IT IS REAL.

CONGENIAL WORK GOOD PAY. THIS AD WILL APPEAR ONE WEEK ONLY, SO READ THESE FACTS CAREFULLY AND ANSWER THIS AD IN PERSON FRIDAY EVENING. IT IS ABSOLUTELY DIFFERENT AND IS THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY IN THE CITY TODAY.

WHETHER EMPLOYED OR UNEMPLOYED, READ CAREFULLY AND INVESTIGATE. YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO PASS UP THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY IN CHICAGO TODAY.

READ THESE FACTS CAREFULLY. Remember, you can earn at least $40 for your spare time work during the evenings, and we will show you how to do this. EXTREMELY SIMPLE work and make you understand thoroughly before you start. WORK WILL NOT CONFLICT WITH PRESENT EMPLOYMENT. NO SELLING. NO SCHOOLING. NO INSTRUCTION COURSES. These positions can be filled during the spare hours [during the evening] of merchanics, tradesmen and business men. ABSOLUTELY NO EXPERIENCE REQUIRED. Full time positions can be arranged for those unemployed and those desiring permanent work. FINANCIAL CO-OPERATION GIVEN. This is not just "another ad," but a responsible, well known Chicago firm offering real, dignified employment. Positions [part time or permanent] are extremely simple, in pleasant surroundings and most congenial atmosphere. Do not confuse this ad with others of similar wording, for YOU WILL NOT BE ASKED TO SELL ANYTHING. This is real. This is genuine. Every ambitious person in the city of Chicago would be anxious to procure this employment if he only knew the facts. YOU will EARN THE MOMENT YOU START work and we will make you understand and know you can do the work before we ask you to start and you can earn as a bonus a TEN DAY VACATION WITH ALL EXPENSES PAID for three months' consistent work. YOU select your vacation site anywhere in the United States. WE PAY TRANSPORTATION AND ALL EXPENSES. Don't be misled and don't waste your time on "wild goose chases." This is an unusual opportunity. Come and get the facts. Applicants must be white and over 25 years of age. Every one will be given utmost consideration. This is not a chance but a REAL OPPORTUNITY. This ad will appear until Friday only and none will be considered after Friday evening.

Apply Friday evening, Aug. 5th, at 8 o'clock. ROOM 1512 BLUM BLDG., 624 S. MICHIGAN-AV. [next door to the Blackstone Hotel].

NOTICE—Our business is becoming so heavy that we have decided to open a new department. Scores of new applicants have been given employment during the evening after business hours. Many of our employes, who are employed otherwise during the day time, have bought new cars and have opened new bank accounts as a result of this wonderful extra income opportunity. Make up your mind now to answer this ad promptly, for this opportunity will not last long. Knowing how and why means EXTRA MONEY during the summer months. A BANK ACCOUNT AND VACATION. Shirkers, buck-passers, and would-be smart alecks stay away. REMEMBER THE TIME TO APPLY IS 8 O'CLOCK FRIDAY EVENING ONLY. Now if you really desire to open a REAL BANK ACCOUNT AND ENJOY A VACATION THIS SUMMER ABSOLUTELY FREE OF EXPENSES. DON'T MISS THIS. Do not answer this ad unless you are really sincere and anxious to earn an EXTRA WEEKLY INCOME during the summer months. Another organization has attempted to copy our extra income plan and has copied this ad verbatim. "A hint to the wise is sufficient." Be guided accordingly.

We will receive no applications after 8 o'clock Friday evening, so make up your mind NOW to answer on time. REGARDLESS OF PRESENT EMPLOYMENT EVERY ONE WILL BE GIVEN FULLEST CONSIDERATION AT THE ABOVE TIME.

This is absolutely the last time this ad will appear. Positively no applicants will be received after Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Whether employed or unemployed, you cannot afford to miss this. So make up your mind NOW to be on time Friday evening.

ROGERS PARK.
THINK THIS OVER.

This building has every modern convenience. Is located on a corner, with a southwest exposure.

Four and five room units—some with 2 baths—such as you would expect to find only along Lake Shore-dr. at $10,000 to $12,000 more than our prices.

The total monthly operating cost runs as low as $46.91 on a four rm. apt. and $57.50 on a five room apt.

The purchase price runs from $4,400 up. You may purchase an apartment for as low as $1,500 down payment.

165 CARS
ALL MAKES

Fifty cars sold since the start of this sale. There's the answer. They must be real values when fifty are bought within three days. However, there is still a large selection left, including a couple of practically new Dodge Bros. sedans that we have marked down due to the introduction of the new Four. Just look some of these over, then come right in, don't wait. A small down payment is all that is necessary.
